Scene in Spain's Senate.

A Noble Duke Boxes a Senator's Ears,

Then a General Scrapping Match Ensues — The Parties Satisfied Without Resorting to the Duel.

Madrid, May 22.—The exciting incident which culminated in a free fight in the Senate yesterday was provoked by the statement of the Duke of Tetuan that Senor Sagasta's speech the other day to the Liberals had contributed to bring about the vote in the American Senate.

Gen. Lius Pandos said: "Everything now happening is due to the cowardice and feebleness of the Government."

Senator Comas said: "You will discuss that tomorrow."

"We will discuss it," replied the Duke of Teutan, "but I will accept dictation from nobody."

"Nor I either," retorted Senator Comas at the top of his voice.

At this the Duke of Tetuan, pale in excitement, boxed both ears of Senator Comas, and felled him to the floor.

The son of Comas threw himself upon the duke and struck him a heavy blow with his fist.

Several senators intervened, and a general scuffle ensued, with great confusion, and it was some time before order was restored.

The Duke of Tetuan tendered his resignation immediately after the incident. It is believed that he misunderstood the reply of Senator Comas, as he is regarded as an extremely courteous and honorable man. Senator Comas is a professor in the University of Madrid, and held in high esteem in scholastic and political circles.

Senor Canovas, Senor Sagasta and the President of the Senate had a long conference on the subject of the affray, but all maintain the greatest reserve.

The Senate resumed its session in the evening, but no reference was made to the incident. It adjourned at 10 o'clock, after which the immediate witnesses deliberated with the seconds of the Duke of Tetuan and Senator Comas for an hour before the seconds decided that under the code duello, a duel was unnecessary.

Sensational Scrimmage.

A Masked Robber Holds Up a Street Car.

Shot Dead by the Superintendent of the Line—Two Persons Injured.

Tacoma, Wash., May 22.—A single robber held up and attempted to rob a car on the Stellacco Electric Line last night. As he got on the platform he pulled a mask down over his face, produced a revolver and ordered Superintendent Dame of the Motor Line, and Motorman Wellman, to a compartment in rear of the car. They complied with alacrity.

The robber then ordered the passengers to hold up their hands, and commenced relieving them of their valuables. Supt. Dame drew his gun and fired through the compartment door at the robber, who returned the fire. The robber dropped dead with bullets through his lungs and heart.

Dame was shot in the arm, and Jewett Smith, a passenger, received a ball in the leg.

FAVORITES FOR LONG YEARS.

For long years Diamond Dyes have been the favorite family dyes in the Dominion of Canada; and although imitation package dyes have been plentifully offered for sale, their great inferiority to the "Diamond" in strength, fastness, beauty of color and brilliancy was known to the great majority of women, and they were condemned and avoided by all who valued good and bright colors. No sensible woman can afford to risk her goods with poor dyes when the "Diamond" are admittedly the world's best.

A most important point to remember is that the Diamond Dyes cost no more than the crude and common dyes sold by some dealers for the sake of large profits.

Ask your dealer for the "Diamond"; if he values your trade he will be in a position to supply you.

The citizans should visit Springbank on Monday and inspect the reservoir and pond. It will cost you less than any trip you ever took.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claim to public confidence.
