Shaw, Montreal, when her sister, Miss Dorothy Maud Appleton, became the bride of Mr. David Sterling Buchan. The Rev. Dr. Young, of Douglas street Methodist church performed the ceremony and only the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom were present.

Very general regret will be caused by the announcement of the death of Mr. James McDonald, which occurred at his home on Wednesday morning of last week. He leaves a widow and ten children, two daughters, Stella and Nita, and eight sons, Clifford, Wesley, Ronald, George, Fred, Bruce, Burns, to whom the sincere sympathy of the community is extended.

The death occurred in Vancouver on May 29 of Mrs. Bradshaw McKenzie. The body was brought to Campbellton and interement was made in the Campbellton Rural cemetery last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. McKenzie is survived by a husband, one daughter, Mrs. A. McG. McDonald, of this place, and three sons, George G., of Vancouver; Dr. John B., of Loggieville, and James B., of Nelson (B. C.)

MONCTON

Moncton, June 12—Miss Rae Ryder, of Havelock, is spending a few days in the city with her brother, Mr. Frank Ryder.

Miss Katrina McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McKenzie, has successfully passed her examinations in music at McGill College, Montreal, and has received the degree of Bachelor of Music. Miss McKenzie has been a resident student at the Royal Victoria College during the last four years, and has graduated with an unusually high standing, taking especially high honors.

On Friday evening a number of the girl friends of Miss Susie Steeves gathered at the residence of her sister, Mrs. D. Roy Somers, for the purpose of tendering Miss Steeves a variety shower. The gifts were arranged in a large basket very prettily made up and suspended from the ceiling by ribbons. Music and whist were indulged in during the evening. Luncheon was served at midnight, after which the happy company dispersed. Miss Steeves is to be one of the principals in an interesting event in th near future.
