LENT IN LONDON.

The Queen's Taste Distasteful to Court Circles—The Latest Thing in Parisian Preaching.

LONDON, March 18.—Queen Victoria has drawn down upon herself a perfect torrent of denunciation by her action in ordering that "drawing rooms" be held during Wednesdays in Lent. Attendance upon these events is practically obligatory on the part both of the diplomatic corps and of the Ministers Plenipotentiary from foreign countries, and it happens that both of these bodies contain a large number of Roman Catholic and High Church men who object most strongly to participate in court luncheon upon a "Holy day." To make matters worse on one of the "drawing room" days this month there was a special Lenten service in the Chapel Royal at the very time when the reception was in progress. Some members of the diplomatic corps are as irate as they were a few years ago, when on the occasion of her Majesty's holding a court, a formal notification was issued from the foreign office that the Queen would receive the members of the diplomatic corps, "male and female."

It is officially announced that as the fatigue of traveling from the Riviera to Darmstadt and Hamburg would be enormous, the Queen has abandoned her projected trip to Germany. This change of plans, however, will enormously increase the cost of the Queen's foreign trip. At the Villa Palmieri, there would have been the rent to pay, and practically everything was ready for her Majesty. At Grasse, however, a large sum will go in rent, while over two score of wagons loaded with furniture, china and other household goods will have to be dispatched from Windsor across the continent.

PARIS, March 18.—In the Church of Saint Pierre de Montrouge, during the present lenten season a medieval fashion in preaching has been introduced with considerable effect. The sermon is in reality a dialogue carried on between the pulpit orator and a member of the congregation—of course a learned priest. The latter raises objections from time to time to the statements made in the pulpit, in the form of questions or otherwise, and the result is a lively discussion, ending with the complete defeat of the apparent opponent of orthodox catholicism.

A TERRIBLE STORY.

How a Little Girl was Burned to Death Near Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

MT. PLEASANT, Mich., March 18.—A man named Dennis Burns, of Wise township, came here to purchase a coffin for the burial of his 7-year-old girl, Saturday. He was very excited, and told the undertaker that while he was at the back of the farm and his wife was at a neighbor's, some man had outraged his little daughter, and then poured coal oil on the floor and bed and set fire to them. The fire was first discovered by the mother, who found the house nearly consumed. The child was burned so badly that she died in great agony.

She told her mother that a man came, and after assaulting her, started the fire as above stated. She was so near dead that she could not give any further description of the man. Sheriff Kane took the coroner and a doctor and drove to the scene and carefully investigated the matter, but was unable to learn more than a repetition of the above facts.

The house is burned with all its contents, and the little sufferer is dead. No one saw anyone come or go from the house, and unless some new developments occur the fiend will never be known. Some think she set fire to the house herself and that the story of the assault is untrue, yet if that had been the case she could have escaped out of the house and saved her life.

TORY TACTICS.

Barefaced Attempt to Steal the Seat in West Northumberland.

COBOURG, Ont., March 18.—The west riding of Northumberland was on the 5th of March redeemed by the Liberal party and their popular young standard-bearer, Mr. John Hargraft, after twelve years of Tory misrepresentation, the returning officer, A. H. Macdonald, declaring officially on the 9th inst. that Mr. Hargraft had been duly elected. Since then, however, David Hicks Minaker, a well-known party hanger-on who has just been appointed census commissioner for West Northumberland, obtained an order for a re-count, and on Monday the re-count began. In the very first polling subdivision, No. 1 Cobourg, six ballots were found not initialed by the deputy returning officer, all of them being marked for Hargraft. As the scrutineers and the deputy returning officer were all positive that no ballot had been placed in the ballot box without the initials of the deputy returning officer, this seemed inexplicable. These ballots were laid aside by the judge. In the next polling sub-division, No. 2 Cobourg, nineteen ballots marked for Hargraft without the initials of the deputy returning officer, were found, and seven marked for Hargraft had been defaced in various ways. These 26 were also laid aside for argument. In No. 10, township of Hamilton, eight ballots, all marked for Hargraft, did not have the initials of the deputy returning officer. In polling sub-division No. 19, of the township of Haldimand, fifteen ballots, all marked for Hargraft, had not the initials of the D. R. O. These uninitialed ballots, on being more closely examined, showed that the paper was slightly different from the other ballots, and that while the type appeared to be the same, the ink was somewhat blacker or heavier than that on the other ballots. The deputy returning officers and the scrutineers in each of the polling sub-divisions assert most positively that every ballot paper put into the ballot box had the initials of the deputy returning officer upon it. They cannot be the slightest doubt that after the ballots were returned to the returning officer a large number of ballot papers were taken out of the envelopes and forged, counterfeit ballot papers substituted for them, and there can be no doubt that the ballot papers defaced in No. 2 Cobourg had also been defaced since the return of the papers to the returning office. The argument upon the uninitialed ballots took place. Mr. Guillet's counsel, Mr. Holland, used all the arguments he could think of to induce Judge Benson to reject these ballots. Judge Benson, however, firmly refused to accede to the arguments of Mr. Holland, but followed the Supreme Court decision and his own precedent made in the East Northumberland re-count in 1888. The uninitialed ballots were allowed and five of the defaced ballots were disallowed, the net result being that Guillet just held his own on his ballots and Mr. Hargraft gained one on his, increasing the majority by one and making it 37. Had the frauds not been perpetrated Hargraft would have gained 7, making his majority 43.

Some Foolish People

allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say: "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists. ywt

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation; its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 25 doses, 35 cents.

"How good of you to come, doctor! I didn't expect you this morning." "No; but I was called to your opposite neighbor, poor Mrs. Brown, and thought I might as well kill two birds with one stone."

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion or Dyspepsia.
