Disorders in South Ireland

Sinn Feiners Make Scene in Court

TORONTO, Nov. 22. — The Telegram today has the following cable from its Belfast correspondent:

"Dublin district and the south of Ireland are fast approaching a condition of disorder rivalling the accepted ideal of the worst days in the wild west. Last night the Talbot street post office in Dublin was forced by an armed gang who secured three hundred pounds in cash and escaped without detection.

Dr. Ronan, who has only recently returned from France, was held up on Baggot street, Dublin, by an armed man. The doctor put up a determined resistance and put his assailant to flight.

The premises of Messrs. Murray, gunsmith, Cork, were raided by Sinn Feiners yesterday who took a number of guns and a supply of ammunition without the slightest interference.

Amendments have been made to the restrictions existing against the importation of arms and ammunition into Ireland following the repeated success of the Sinn Feiners in getting possession of weapons and amunition.

James Dolan, the Sinn Fein member of parliament was arrested at Manor Hamilton the other day.

BELFAST, Nov. 22.—In the crimes court of Armagh today, Edward Donelly, Sin Feiner organizer for Ulster; Edward Hughes, a farmer; and William O'Brien, a Galway professor, all charged with unlawful assembly at Tynan in October, and soliciting funds for the Dail Erran (Irish parliament), created a scene by declaring they did not recognize the authority of the court.

The accused men were carried into the court. Mr. Donnelly said the Dail Erran was a legitimate body in the eyes of Irishmen, and the only body that had the moral right to legislate for or to rule the Irish people.

"Your authority," he added, "is that of a usurper, backed by the military machine guns, tanks and rifles."

Mr. O'Brien made a similar statement.

Mr. Highes declared that he had been born a Sinn Feiner and would die one.

Donnelly and O'Brien each were sentenced to three months' imprisonment, while Hughes received a two months' sentence.

LONDONDERRY, Nov. 22. — Soldiers returning to their barracks here last evening were attacked and badly beaten by a crowd. The police made an effort to assist them but this proved fruitless and the troops were compelled to take refuge in the Salvation Army hall from which they sent a telephone message for help.

A company of soldiers came to the rescue of the beaten men. The police fired a volley with blank ammunition and dispersed the crowds, who shouted "Up with Dublin—up with the Irish."
