

DEMONSTRATION Last Night in Honor of the Papal Delegate.

The demonstration last night in honor of His Excellency the Papal Delegate, which was the most brilliant ever witnessed in the city. The enthusiasm of the people cannot be done justice to by any description that we would attempt to give. The big parade of all the Roman Catholic societies that lined up at 7.30 o'clock brought out the whole population of the city to see the monster procession. The streets were lined with people on both sides from Riverhead to Holytown waiting to see the procession. The line up was as follows:—

C. C. C. Band.
Catholic Cadet Battalion.
C. L. B. Band.
Benevolent Irish Society.
St. Vincent de Paul Society.
Mechanics Society.
T. A. Juvenile Band.
T. A. Juvenile Society.
T. A. B. Adult Band.
T. A. Adult Society.
Mount Cashel Band.
Star of the Sea Society.
Holy Name Society.
Christian Doctrine Society.
St. Joseph's Institute.
Knights of Columbus.
Citizens generally.

The different societies left their halls one after another and joined the ranks, so that when Holytown Hill was reached the line extended from Bank Square to Springdale St. The bands played appropriate music on the march. On reaching Patrick St. where there was a triumphal arch and where fireworks were set off, the enthusiasm reached its height. According to the programme laid down the Papal Delegate and the Archbishop and party intended to meet the Society at Springdale Street, but as there was unexpected delay in getting ready the meeting did not take place till the head of Patrick Street was reached. The societies opened their ranks to allow the party to pass through. In the carriages were the Papal Delegate, Archbishop Howley, Bishop-elect Power, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Beaudry, Monsignor Sinnott, about 30 priests, the Sisters of the Convents at Cathedral Square, Mr. Justice Emerson, Chairman of the Citizens' Committee, Mayor Ellis, F. J. Morris and Mr. Power, father of the Bishop-elect. As the carriages passed through the ranks the occupants were cheered again and again. The Cadets presented arms and the band played stirring airs. After the party passed through, the ranks were joined and the procession continued its way down town to the Cathedral by way of New Gower Street, Duckworth Street and Cochrane Street. The whole route was lined with spectators on each side of the street. Fireworks were set off at the arches and from the roofs of several private houses. Meanwhile the prelates and clergy had driven back to the Cathedral grounds where thousands of people began to assemble. The procession reached the front of the church at 9.30. The Papal Delegate, Archbishop Howley and the clergymen took their station on the steps of the Cathedral. By the time all the societies had reached the plaza a mass of humanity, probably 15,000 people, blocked the whole square from Garrison Hill to the Mercy Convent, including the area near St. Patrick's Hall. A display of fireworks followed that eclipsed all the other pyrotechnical displays. Rockets of the most artistic and expensive design were shot up into the walkin for an hour. The arch of St. John the Baptist in front of the Cathedral was a veritable blaze of glory with red, white and blue electric lights. After the numbers had departed and passed in front of the Apostolic Delegate, he addressed a few words to the universe gathering, and said:

"My Dear People,—I am extremely grateful for the royal reception you have given me. I am overjoyed at the wholesome manner in which I have been received, and take pleasure in your own joy. My demonstration is not for me, but for the Holy Pontiff, whom I represent. I am edified over the orderly manner in which the reception has been conducted, and the manifestations of concord, harmony and good feeling existing between all citizens. I shall never forget the reception given me to-night, and on behalf of the Supreme Pontiff I thank you heartily—the citizens who arranged matters, the authorities of our city, and the people of Newfoundland."

Chairs were then given for the Pope, for Monsignor Sinnott, His Grace the Archbishop, Bishop-elect Power, Monsignor Sinnott, Bishop March, the visiting clergy, Cathedral clergy, and finally three cheers and a tiger for King George. The bands then played a selection of Irish airs, "God Save Ireland" and "Let Erin remember the days of old." Finally the C. L. B. band struck up the National Anthem and brought the programme to an end. The Delegate and clergy retired into the Cathedral and in a few minutes the sacred edifice was filled with people. At the request of the Archbishop, the Papal Delegate ascended the altar steps and imparted the Papal Blessing to the kneeling thousands, a fitting finale to the day's celebration. The successful carrying out of the programme yesterday is due in a large measure to the officers of the societies, including Mr. E. M. Jackson, Mayor Ellis, Mr. J. L. Slattey, Hon. D. J. Greene and Major Donnelly, of the Cadets; Mr. Scott, President of the Mechanics Society; Mr. John Barron, head of the Knights of Columbus, said to be the finest looking body of men in the parade. Congratulations are also due to the special aides-de-camp appointed from the Cadets, viz., Mr. V. P. Burke and Mr. J. Summers, who are attached to His Excellency's staff while in the city.

Imparts the Papal Benediction.

Yesterday afternoon a large number of people visited the C. C. Cathedral and received the Papal Blessing from His Excellency Monsignor Sinnott. He celebrated Mass after his arrival yesterday in the Presentation Convent, and in the afternoon drove to Mount Cashel Orphanage, accompanied by His Grace Archbishop Howley. The prelates were received by Rev. Bro. Ennis, who showed the Delegate through the building. He was delighted with what he saw.

Entertained C.L.B. Band

When the B. L. S. returned to St. Patrick's Hall last night after taking part in the demonstration in honour of the Papal Delegate, the C. L. B. members who headed the Society in the march were entertained by the body. Vice-President J. L. Slattey in a brief speech congratulated the band on their turn out, and spoke in a very appreciative strain of the music rendered by them. He also referred to the co-operation of people who though not co-religionists of the members of the Society yet helped in a great measure to make the demonstration in honour of the Delegate such a splendid success. The officers of the Society then brought the members of the band to the music room where refreshments were served—and an impromptu concert was given and a most pleasant time spent. Messrs. J. L. Slattey, T. H. O'Neill and several of the members of the band contributed selections.

Accident Last Night.

While Mrs. Thomas Croke, of Wood Streets, was in the C. C. Cathedral last night viewing the fireworks and illuminations a cane from a skyrocket hit her in the head and hurt her severely but not dangerously. She bled profusely, and men near took her to the Central Fire Station where she was attended by Rev. Fr. Sheshelby and Dr. Stafford, the latter doing the necessary for the wounds received. Mrs. Croke was later taken to the Hospital in the ambulance.

TAKE NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that all those who intend entering for this year's regatta before starting to train purchase one or more bottles of "STAFFORD'S LINIMENT", as they will find that it is one of the most penetrating, invigorating and cheapest liniments on the market. People find that once they have used it never trouble any other kind. The sale for this liniment is increasing every day, and not a single person having used it can say that it was not better than a certain other kind. Remember this is "STAFFORD'S LINIMENT" we are talking about and no other. For sale everywhere. Manufactured by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, Theatre Hill—July 14/11

I'm the Cream of the West Miller, and I'll tell you what I'll do—I'll guarantee your next batch of bread

I WILL guarantee it to rise away up out of the pans, and make as delicious bread as you ever tasted. The loaves will be the biggest and most wholesome you ever baked with the same amount of flour. I'll guarantee it or you get back the money you paid for the flour! Now see:

Go to your grocer and buy a barrel of Cream of the West Flour. Take it home and bake it up.

Give it a trial.

Give it a couple of trials. Your oven or yeast might not be just right the first time.

Now when you give it a fair trial, if you honestly feel that you have not had splendid satisfaction with Cream of the West Flour, return the unused portion of barrel and get your money back.

Just tell the store man your bread didn't come out right and you want your money back as guaranteed.

It's not the grocery man who loses. It doesn't come out of his pocket. It is the Campbell Milling Company, Limited, of Toronto, who pay, and they are satisfied to pay if you'll be satisfied to try Cream of the West Flour.

Ask your store-keeper about this guarantee. He knows. He will tell you. Try a barrel.

Cream of the West Flour The hard wheat flour that is guaranteed for bread

Guarantee

We hereby affirm and declare that Cream of the West Flour is a superior bread flour, and as such is subject to our absolute guarantee of money back if not satisfactory after a fair trial. Any dealer is hereby authorized to return price paid by customer on return of unused portion of barrel if flour is not as represented.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Our trawmen continue to get good farces each day, and boat loads of fish are not an uncommon sight about here. We all hope that it may continue for some time yet.

The S. S. Solway arrived from St. John's at 8.30 last evening on her way to Labrador. After a short delay she continued her voyage to the coast. Among the passengers who joined her here were Mrs. T. McRae and Miss McRae who are going to Grady to spend a time.

Master Charlie Coffin, son of Mr. George Coffin, engineer of the S. S. Fiona, arrived by yesterday's train on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Thomas Noseworthy and other friends.

Mrs. T. C. Mackintosh and her daughter, Miss Annetta, took a run down here from the Gouls on Wednesday, returning same evening.

Mrs. J. H. Emmett, leaves by tomorrow's train for St. John's where she will meet her son and his bride and with them will leave by the express on Sunday for home at Halifax. Mrs. S. has made a number of friends during her short stay here who will be pleased to see her in our town again in the near future.

The S. S. Mary with the C. C. C. excursion party on board arrived in port at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. The excursion all through was delightful. With smooth water, jolly companions, good music, pleasant and crowded hall at concert, how could it be otherwise. We congratulate the committee on the success of their first excursion.

Mr. Dugald Munn received a Marconigram this morning from his brother, Mr. R. S. Munn, at Sandy Islands, Labrador, conveying the pleasing information that the fish was just striking in and that good results were expected. We hope other parts of the coast will have the same experience.

A picnic party of ladies and gentlemen of this town are camped near "Pegdickton" on the New Harbor Rd. and are having a delightful time. They expect to return to town tonight.

The Marine Railway Dock Co. are expecting to commence operations in a few days. The material is now on the way, and as soon as it arrives no time will be lost in pushing the work to completion.

A large number of people were at the station yesterday to bid bon voyage to Mr. Harry Emmett and his popular bride (nee Miss Spracklin), who left for St. John's enroute to Halifax their future home. The lucky rice was lavishly showered on them by their well wishers.

Rev. J. T. Anson, an Armenian preacher who had been here for a week soliciting aid for the orphans under his care in that far-distant land—orphans whose parents had been cruelly massacred by the Turks, spoke to a number of sympathisers at Victoria Street School on Tuesday night. He left by yesterday's train for St. John's.

CORRESPONDENT.

Harbor Grace, July 21, 1911.

PRIESTS BY ROSALIND—Rev. Fr. McDonald, of Charlottetown, P.E.I., and Rev. Fr. McCarthy, of Boston, arrived here by the Rosalind yesterday and were present at last night's demonstration. They will remain here until after the consecration of Bishop Power.

The Kidneys Wear Out

But in advanced years you can keep these organs healthy by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

As old age comes on most people suffer more or less from derangements of the kidneys. With some there are years of pains and aches, with others Bright's disease sets in and the end comes quickly. Fortunately many have learned about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and are enabled by their use to keep the kidneys healthy and active. Mr. Richard Preston Osborne, Lambton County, Ont., says: "Seventeen years ago I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills when my back was so bad that to stoop or rise was torture to me. The kidneys were in bad condition, but these pills entirely freed me of back pains. I have used them ever since, whenever the kidneys would get out of order, and now, at eighty years, am well and hearty, thanks to this grand medicine."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
