IN A BAD PLIGHT:—Steamer Labrador, which has arrived at St. John's, Nfld., from a trip along the Labrador coast, reports that a fishing crew of thirty people are on a desolate island, off the northern section of the coast, where they have been virtually abandoned for some time owing to the fact that the instructions for a vessel to bring them down miscarried.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH oyster supper in Temperance Hall on Monday evening was a well managed and well attended entertainment. OBITUARY:—The death of Mr. Edward Quinn, of St. Margarets, one of the oldest citizens of the county, removes one of our best known and most highly respected residents.

The death of Mr. John Flieger, of Chatham, took place on Tuesday. He was a deservedly respected citizen and the bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends. See funeral notice.

A BAD BREAK:—A number of men were driving along Water Street on Monday forenoon in an express wagon belonging to Mr. John Fraser, when the horse became unruly, and in consequence of an ill-advised pull on one of the reins, ran upon the sidewalk, where it slipped, a shaft of the wagon or the hames on the horse's collar striking the easterly plate glass window in Elkin's meat store, cracking the lower half of it very badly. To replace the plate with a new one will cost about $33.

THREE EDITIONS have already been printed of Biggle Horse Book, an announcement of which will be found in our advertising columns. This little book which is crammed full of information on the horse, costs but 50 cents, yet we are free to say it has as much practical, boiled-down information for busy people as books costing ten times as much. Put it in the hands of your boys and girls and get the hired man a copy. Free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

NO LADIES ALLOWED:—Intelligence has come to Dorchester that the steamship Kelvengrove, commanded by Capt. E. H. O'Neil, of Westmorland county, recently sailed from Liverpool, England, for Cape Town, South Africa, with a full cargo of war supplies. The cargo includes 1,200 mules and forage for them, also 100 muleteers in charge of the animals. In consequence of the government not allowing ladies to sail on steamers carrying war supplies, Mrs. O'Neil was obliged to leave the ship at Liverpool and is to go to Dorchester, providing the Kelvengrove continues in that trade for a long period.

DON'T EXAGGERATE:—The Moncton Times says:—Millers' Tanning Extract Co., of Millerton, N. B., make, on an average, 325 barrels of hemlock extract every week. Forty-five cords of hemlock are consumed every day in the work of making the extract."

The Extract works referred to are amongst our best industrial establishments, but their output is very much overstated by the Times. If Messrs. Miller can average one half of the quantity stated per week, they think they do well. If they could do what the Times says, with their plant, Klondyke wouldn't be in it with them.

TREED BY A MOOSE:—On Monday of last week Mr. John Sullivan, of Bay du Vin river, while going into the woods to cut logs, met a bull and cow moose about a mile from his house. The animals were about fifty yards from him and, thinking they would go away, he laid his dinner kettle and jumper down, intending to wait until they did so. The bull, however, took a look at him and made for him. Fortunately, he was near a tree that had fallen at an angle which enabled him to clamber up it out of the way, or it might have fared badly with him. The moose stood, snorting and pawing for some time, and then lingered as if waiting for Mr. Sullivan to come down, which, of course, he took care not to do. Finally the animal went away looking for its mate, and Mr. Sullivan made good his escape.

MISS WILLISTON'S DEATH:—The death of Miss Kate M. Williston, daughter of the late Alexander Williston of Bay du Vin, and formerly well known in Chatham, where she was the leading lady teacher in our common schools at one time, took place at New York on Tuesday of last week. Since her visit to her former home, more than a year ago, on the occasion of the last illness of her mother, Miss Williston had not been in good health, and within the last three months she grew rapidly worse until the end came. Her sister, Miss Mary Williston, of Bay du Vin, was with her for some time before she died and together with Miss Annie Loggie, a niece, accompanied the remains to Chatham, where they arrived on Friday night, or rather at an early hour on Saturday morning. They were taken to S. Mary's church, of which deceased was long a valued member, and there remained until after Morning Prayer on Saturday. The Holy Communion was celebrated at 7.30 a.m.—it being the Festival of S. S. Simon and Jude—and was attended by a number of the friends and relatives of the deceased, more of whom would have been present if fuller notice of the arrangements could have been given. The remains were taken from the church about 10 a.m. and conveyed to Bay du Vin, accompanied by Mr. T. B. Williston, Miss Mary Williston and other relatives and friends. The interment took place there on Monday afternoon in the churchyard of S. John Evangelist. Miss Williston, since removing from Chatham to New York some ten years ago, had been manager of St. Agnes' Nursery, a day home for children. She was widely known for her active and energetic life of usefulness in Christian work, and her death is sincerely lamented by many friends. Canon Forsyth in his sermon on Sunday morning last, paid a suitable tribute to the memory of one so long well known for her good works in connection with S. Mary's congregation.

Site for Artesian Wells.

Mayor Winslow and R. A. Lawlor, Esq., town solicitor, have secured from Mr. Alex. Hay an option to purchase, at $20 an acre, the 11-acre field, or any part of it, situated in rear of his front field southeast of the stone homestead; also, at $50 an acre, a strip 100 ft. wide adjoining the back lot on the north at the foot of the hill, comprising about two acres; also the right of way to pass along the west side of the property and the right to lay water pipes along either side of the whole lot and to locate artesian wells on any part of it. Mr. Hay, for $100, undertakes also not to place any buildings or other erections hereafter on any part of his lot without the consent of the Town Council. The option is for one year and the transaction is entered into with the view of boring on the property for a water supply. The arrangement is a very satisfactory one on both sides.

To Our Readers.

The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to matters and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be. This they can do by giving the information in person at the office, or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE'S columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see reference to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in making them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

Chatham Parish Election.

Hardly one-third of the ratepayers of Chatham parish polled their votes in the election for municipal councillors on Tuesday. Even town clerk, M. S. Benson, forgot to give the requisite notice of the event at the regular time, so little did it interest him, but he and M. S. Benson, jr., were to the fore at the town hall on Tuesday to attend to the polling when 368 voters out of about 1100 cast their ballots, a poll being also held at Loggieville. The candidates were County Warden Jas. F. Connors, Coun. William Kerr, and Mr. Nicholas Cunningham. The last named person has really become a nuisance by offering himself as a candidate because a few people think it a proper thing to make a joke of the election by inducing him to run. There should be a provision in the law relating to Municipal elections by which candidates who run for vexatious purposes and put the public to unnecessary expense should be required to forfeit an election deposit, just as such candidates do in Dominion and local elections. The result of the polling was as follows:—

	Kerr.	Connors.	Cunningham.
Chatham,	233	231	59
Loggieville,	36	26	8
Totals,	269	257	67

An analysis of the polling in Chatham gives the following results:—

Connors and Kerr,	115	ballots.
Cunningham and Kerr	39	"
Connors and Cunningham,	2	"
Kerr plumpers	79	"
Connors plumpers	114	"
Cunningham plumpers	18	"

In St. Andrew's Church.

Our St. Andrew's Church correspondent writes:—

Rev. D. Henderson, last Sabbath forenoon, preaching in his own pulpit referred at some length to the fact of the British Empire being at war and said that war was to be deplored. Every true christian, said the preacher, viewing mankind as a great brotherhood, must look with grief on contending hosts in the battlefield. But Great Britain had not provoked this war. She hated war, but she hated still more oppression and cruelty and she was to-day at war because she was called to fight for God and humanity, and her sons who had fallen, or would fall in South Africa had died and would die for the sacred cause of humanity and civilization. The empire was involved in a no more justifiable war during the present century. The congregation of St. Andrew's would follow with intense interest the career of their brave and loyal fellow-worshippers now on their way to the seat of war. These young men, as well as the rest of the Canadian contingent were showing to the world a noble example of British loyalty and patriotism. They had left their homes and friends to undergo the hardships and dangers of war, in order to maintain the honor of the British flag in a distant part of the Empire. They went forth with the heartfelt good wishes of their fellow-citizens and fellowworshippers; and Mr. Henderson expressed the hope that a happy return to their respective homes would quickly follow the victorious career of the young men who went forth from St. Andrew's church. The congregation seemed in hearty sympathy with the patriotic sentiments of their pastor and delighted with the trend of his discourse. At the close of the service the National Anthem was finely and heartily sung by the congregation.

Rev. D. Henderson is announced to preach his regular monthly sermon to young men on Sabbath evening next.

For South Africa.

The New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and P. E. Island volunteers who enlisted for service in South Africa received very enthusiastic greetings everywhere as they were on their way to Quebec last Wednesday. It is estimated that 15,000 people assembled at and near the St. John Railway station to cheer and wish them God-speed. At Sussex, Moncton and other points there were enthusiastic crowds. The Fredericton squad joined the others at Chatham Junction. The steamer Nelson was crowded on a special trip from Chatham to Newcastle on Wednesday night, when many of our people, accompanied by the Chatham Citizens' Band, went to give the Miramichi soldiers and their comrades a send off. The train was several hours late, but it made no difference. The crowd waited at the station until 3 o'clock Thursday morning. When the train was approaching the bands played, (the Newcastle Orange Band being also on hand) and continued to play and the crowd composed of all classes—men and women, boys and girls—cheered. Our own men of the contingent were found by their friends and hearty good wishes were expressed to them, Mayor Winslow gave to Major Weeks, who commands the Maritime contingent, two sovereigns each from the Chatham fund for the Chatham men under his command, Speeches were made by Major Weeks and Mayor Winslow, good-byes were said and the train moved off, all cheering with great enthusiasm.

The men had a great welcome in Quebec. They left for South Africa on Monday afternoon, the Governor-General, members of government and hosts of friends and relatives being present to see them off.

Mayor Winslow has received the following letter from Joseph Letson, one of the Chatham men, and it will no doubt be read with interest by his many friends here:—

QUEBEC, Oct. 28th, 1899.

To His Worship, Mayor Winslow, Chatham.

DEAR SIR:—On the eve of sailing I thought it my duty to drop you a line about the boys. We thank you very much for the good send-off you gave us in Newcastle; also for the two sovereigns which were very much appreciated. The boys are all contented and happy and all anxious to do something for Canada. Our new uniforms have been issued to all of us, together with everything a soldier requires for active service. We are to have a parade of the regiment to-morrow. We have been told by British imperial officers that the regiment, as a body is the best men they have ever seen, and I think they are. The men weigh from 140 to 190 lbs. We expect to sail tomorrow about 4.30 o'clock. The boys get along finely together. Again thanking you for your kindness to myself and comrades,

Sincerely yours,
JOSEPH LETSON.

Hon. Peter Mitchell's Funeral.

The funeral of Hon. Peter Mitzhell, who died at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal, on Tuesday night, 24th inst., as stated in last week's ADVANCE, took place last Sunday afternoon from the residence of his brother, ex-sheriff James Mitchell, Newcastle. Although rain had fallen quite steadily all day, a large crowd of people gathered at and in the vicinity of the house as the hour of the funeral—three o'clock—approached, many of them from the surrounding districts and including some of the oldest residents, to whom Mr. Mitchell was best known. A large number took a last look at the familiar features of the deceased, which appeared very natural and well-preserved. A funeral service was conducted at the house by Rev. Wm. Aitken of St. James' Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Wm. Murray, after which the remains, which were enclosed in a beautiful rosewood casket, were borne to the hearse. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. C. Miller, F. E. Winslow, Judge Wilkinson, D. Ferguson, R. R. Call and S. Thomson.

Some time was lost awaiting the arrival of the Town Council of Chatham and the Chatham Citizens' Band, which for some unexplained reason delayed leaving Chatham by the steamer Nelson for nearly twenty-five minutes after the appointed time—two o'clock.

The funeral procession was under the direction of Major R. B. Maltby and was led by the Orange and C. M. B. A. bands of Newcastle, the members of Newcastle and Chatham Town Councils and the Citizens' Band of Chatham, which took its place soon after the cortege moved off for the place of interment, a great number of citizens of all classes following. The Orange Band led off with the funeral march "Flee as a Bird" composed of that air, "Nearer My God to Thee" and Pleyel's Hymn. Then the C. M. B. A. band played a few bars of the Dead March in Saul which was continued by the Chatham Town band until the grave was reached. As the funeral procession proceeded the bells of St. James' Presbyterian and St. Mary's Roman Catholic churches were tolled. A longer or more compact funeral procession is seldom seen on the Miramichi. The line of march was down the long stretch of hill from Mr. James Mitchell's, around the public square and up to the churchyard. All who were present did not, however, get into it, but those who did not went by the shorter route to the place of interment Here, after the casket was placed in the grave, which was beside that of the parents of deceased, the Orange band played "Nearer My God to Thee," prayer was said by Rev. Wm. Aitken and the interment was concluded.

The floral tributes were profuse. Mr. T. D. Adams sent a very handsome one to deck the casket at Montreal, as did also Mrs. Geo. E. Livingston of that city. A broken column was sent by the Mayor and aldermen of Newcastle. Dr. Baxter, in behalf of the Miramichi Natural History Society, and a number of Liberal friends and admirers also sent wreaths.

Amongst the mourners at the funeral was Mr. John Hardie, of the Marine Department, Ottawa, brother-in-law of deceased, who hastened to Montreal immediately on hearing the news of Mr. Mitchell's death. He was subsequently instructed to accompany the remains to Miramichi as the department's representative.

Mr. Geo. Watt, nephew of deceased, who went from Chatham to Montreal to bring the body here, says that after Mr. Mitchell's death he received a letter which the latter wrote to him on the afternoon of the day he died, and in which he referred as usual to being in good health. He was in the hotel corridor and office about 5 p.m. that afternoon and again in the evening, retiring about 10 p.m. On Wednesday forenoon the chambermaid found that his boots were outside of his room door, not having been taken in, as usual, and notified the office. When the room was entered the body was found on the floor between the bed and dressing table, partially disrobed. He had broken a cuspidor in his fall, death being, no doubt, due to appoplexy.

New Flour Mills.

It is gratifying to know that Northumberland County is leading the Province in the matter of establishing flour mills, as the present month witnesses the completion of two modern roller process mills on the Miramichi River. The largest of these has a capacity of 50 barrels of wheat flour a day, is owned by Mr. Chas. E. Fish and located on the old grist mill site at French Fort Cove, between Chatham and Newcastle. The other has a capacity of 35 barrels a day, is owned by the William Richards Company and located at Boiestown. Besides having the latest improved roller process wheat-grinding plant, both of these mills are also fitted with the most modern machinery for grinding buckwheat.

The Fish mill has three stands of double rollers for wheat, made by Wm. & J. G. Greey, of Toronto, and one double stand of rollers for buckwheat. There are also bolters, a cleaning machine, smutter, flour dressers, bagging machines, etc. The system of bolting is the Plansifter, and like all the other plant of the mill it is the latest improved and best known.

The deputy commissioner for agriculture, Mr. T. A. Peters, made an official inspection of the mill on Thursday last and said there was no better mill, of its capacity, in Canada. It only required more machines of the kind that was in it and more power to make it equal to the best mills in Canada or the United States: He said to our reporter "Mr. Fish makes flour equal to the best Manitoba patent in color, fineness and quality. There is no mistake about the mill, and your people may now grow wheat, for they can get as good flour made from it as any that can be imported. Our wheat has been found to be equal to the best Ontario Spring, makes just as white a bread as the whitest from anywhere, and it keeps its freshness longer."

The Richards mill is of the same modern character as Mr. Fish's and will produce the same high grade of flour.

The Fish mill has all the wheat it can handle. It has been a very dry time and there was not enough water to run it to its full capacity of late, but that has been bettered by the late rain. Mr. Fish is now utilising the refuse stone and soil from his quarry in the construction of a storage dam away up the gulch and when that is completed he will be able to run full time.

Besides the Fish and Richards mills there are five other modern roller process mills in the province. They are as follows:—

Poirier's	50 bbl.	mill,	Shediac;
Gaudet's	35 "	"	Memramcook;
McLaughlin's	50 "	"	Buctouche;
DesBrisay's	50 "	"	Petit Rocher;
Fripp's	50 "	"	Woodstock.

Roller mills of the same modern improved character are being completed as follows:—

Cochran & Stevens', Edmundston,	50	bbls.
Doherty's, Campbellton,	50	"
Blanchard's, Caraquet,	—	"

There is work for others in different parts of the province and, no doubt, enterprise and capital will be found equal to the demand. It is evident that the wheat and milling industry has come to New Brunswick to stay and the activity displayed in promoting it is an effective endorsement of the local government's policy under which it has been so liberally encouraged.
