Wesley Church Sociable.

Last night a most successful and enjoyable sociable and concert was held by the Ladies' Aid Society of Wesley Church, and the basement of the building in which it was held was crowded with an appreciative audience. Mr. J. Whiteley presided and made reference to the great assistance always rendered by the ladies to the church and the loyalty and unity of the congregation. The programme rendered was an excellent one. Solos were rendered by Mesdames J. J. Miller and A. Gobbie, Misses Diamond and Russell and Messrs. Cornick, Courtney and Hatcher; Messrs. E. V. Wylie and A. W. Martin gave capital recitations and were deservedly en-

QUARTERLY REPORT

Of Board of Trade, March 31st, 1912. (Synopsis and Extracts.)

Yesterday the Quarterly Report of the Board of Trade was taken up for discussion. In order to facilitate the work of the Council the quorum was reduced from 7 to 5 as recommended. As to the Resolutions about Customs Bonds passed on February 22nd, last, the Government so far has taken no action.

DUTIES.

"In the past, when reductions in duties have been made, no notice has been given of the intended change, and importers who have been put to loss in good faith have found themselves put to considerable loss. The Council has therefore written to the Government, pointing out the injustice of the proceeding and requesting that at least three months' notice should be given when duties are to be reduced thus giving importers a chance to realize stocks upon which the higher duties had been paid."

CHATEL MORTGAGES.

"A great deal of consideration has been given to the laws dealing with the Registration of Mortgages, especially in regard to Chattel or Stock in Trade Mortgages. Representations had been made by the late Council to the Government on the matter, but further inquiry disclosed the necessity for still more drastic alterations in our laws than were at first proposed. Under our present laws a creditor may give preferential security to a particular creditor without the knowledge or consent of his other creditors. The new Stock in Trade Mortgage valid it is only necessary that it shall have been in existence two months before registration. The law does not require that it shall be registered within a specified time after execution, and the consequence is that a general creditor has no means of learning of the existence of a mortgage which in his opinion should be void. The first Resolution forwarded to the Government asked for greater facility in obtaining information from the Registrar's Office, and that a Stock in Trade Mortgage should be registered within 5 days of execution and not become valid until 14 days thereafter. But it will be seen the fraudulent Stock in Trade Mortgage still still be given. It may also be said that every stock in Trade Mortgage eventually becomes an instrument of doubtful probity, although perfectly legitimate in the first instance. The Council has therefore called the attention of the Government to this matter, and requested that our laws shall be amended to prevent, as far as possible, the issuance of preferential Stock in Trade Mortgages, and to facilitate the obtaining of information from the Registrar's Office." The Council recommends the appointment of a Statistical Clerk by the Government and has forwarded a list of statistics which in its opinion should be collected.

HARBOR FIRE BOAT.

"The principal Fire Insurance Companies doing business here, insist that a Fire Boat shall be procured and threaten to raise the rates unless it is done, which might mean additional fire insurance premiums to the amount of $25,000 to $50,000 per annum. The cost of the boat is estimated at $10,000 and the cost of its upkeep at about $10,000 per annum. Theoretically, the Municipal Council should be responsible for the protection of the City from fire, but you are aware, the Fire Department is by Statute under the control of the Government. The Municipal Council has no money available for the purpose, and cannot raise money without Legislative permission, and so far, it has proved impossible to get the Government to realize the seriousness of the position. In any case ultimately, citizens will have to pay for the boat, and the Council has suggested that the property which would be protected should be taxed to pay for the service. The area protected would be the South Side, the Dock Premises and the North Side from the South Side of Duckworth St to the Harbor. A very small addition to the rates in this area would be sufficient to cover the cost of the boat, and would save a very much heavier tax in increased Fire Insurance. The city being without the protection in addition, the Council is now informed that there will probably be no difficulty in making the required arrangements."

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The Council recommends that a special committee shall deal with the difference in the weights and measures of staple articles for general sale. "For instance, cattle feeds range in weight from 35 to 45 lbs. per sack. Paints are sold in 25 and 50 Gallon Cans, shot is sold in 25 and 28 lb. bags, nails in 25 and 28 lb. bags and condensed milk is put up in cans of various weights."

FISH EXPORTS.

"The export of codfish from July 1st, 1911, to November 31st, 1912, has been 1,024,946 quintals. Last year the shipments from April 1st to June 30th, were about 125,000 quintals, and the export for the next three months will be about the same. It will indicate a total export of 1,150,000 quintals for the twelve months. The export for the whole year for the year ending June 30th, 1911, 1,502,269 for 1910, and 1,732,387 for 1909."

WINTER FISHERY.

"The Winter Fishery on the South Coast has been good. U. S. vessels have continued to buy haddock and green fish, thus reducing the quantity of fish to be sent to Oporto and the Mediterranean in June and July."

NORWEGIAN FISHERY.

"The Norwegian Fishery to date is $4,000,000 as against 28,000,000 last year at the same period. The total catch last year was 5,000,000, so that there is every prospect of there being a very large increase in this fishery. The whole increase will not take the form of dried fish, as a large proportion of the catch is marketed in other

That Fellow Rossley Again.

If proof of the popularity of Jack Rossley was ever required it was amply furnished by the immense crowd that gathered at the Star Hall, last night, to greet his re-appearance after his visit to New York City. Within thirty minutes from the door opening the place was jammed and packed to its utmost capacity, and even if the accommodation had been trebled it could never have held the crowd that gathered to greet his return. The Lovitts, his new people, are by far the most novel and clever artists that have ever appeared in this city, and were very successful in their efforts to please the people, and he sees that they get it. Mrs. Rossley, Percy Orth, Joe, the Inimitable Joe, Burkhardt, and Bonnie Rossley made a huge success with their new act, The Pierrots Carnival, and received applause in abundance; the costumes beautiful, the pictures good and the music furnished by the Star Orchestra now the strongest orchestra in this city; was all that could be desired. In conclusion we wish Jack and his jolly little wife everything that is good.

Before Mr. Justice Johnson. Joseph Burnstein vs. Matilda Sharpe. This is an action for $1,000 damages for unlawfully entering and taking possession of premises occupied by the plaintiff as tenant of the defendant, by which the plaintiff suffered loss of business and delay. The defence is that the plaintiff was in arrears with his rent, and that he did not in fact occupy the premises and carry on business there at the time when it is alleged he did. The plaintiff's case was closed about a month ago, but the defence was postponed owing to the illness of Mrs. Sharpe. This morning the case was resumed. Mr. Knight for the defendant called and examined Mrs. Sharpe, who was then cross examined by Mr. C. C. for the plaintiff. Miss Sharpe was then called and examined and their cross examined.

A third witness, Mr. J. A. Giff, was being examined at 1 o'clock and the case will probably be finished this afternoon.

MEDITERRANEAN MARKETS. "The Hawes and Lemessurier agencies in the Mediterranean, which were started under the aegis of the Board of Trade, have continued to do most useful work. Every fisherman in the Island derives some benefit from these Agencies in the increased value of his fish."

LOBSTER FISHERY. "The scheme initiated by the Government for the preservation of the Lobster Fishery by purchasing the male lobster and returning it to the water, if faithfully carried out, seems likely to stop the wicked waste which has been going on in that valuable fishery."

H. M. S. ELINOR. "In the first quarterly Report of last year, mention was made of the work of H. M. Ship, Elinor. The Council wishes to express its appreciation of the very excellent and valuable work which has been done in the accurate charting of the coast of Newfoundland. The Council trusts that the vessel will be extended to the Labrador Coast and also that at least one season shall be devoted to locating off-shore banks which may prove new and valuable fishing grounds."

Mr. Gosling, the Vice-President of the Board, presided at the meeting yesterday.

BOARD AND COUNCIL. "The Board of Trade has been established now for two and a half years and the Council feels that its existence has been more than justified. The Council regrets to report, however, that the membership is still far short of what it ought to be, and not sufficient to pay its expenses. Every commercial man in the Island should become a member, and should feel assured that the $10 per annum he subscribes to the Board is among his best investments. As a meeting place for our merchants in the city, it should be most useful. The single-minded aim of each successive Council has been to improve the Island for the benefit of the whole island, giving to that endeavour a great deal of time and study without any personal advantage of any sort."

TUCKER AND THE CUTE MAN

HEAR DISTANT RUMBLINGS OF THE COMING BATTLE.

Delaney, Tucker, the Cute Man from Carter's Hill and Mrs. Tucker were all on deck last night when I entered the abode of Tucker. A very heavy discussion seemed to be on, for they hardly condescended to look up when I came in, and although the whole front of the stove was taken up by the Cute Man or even Mrs. Tucker failed to shift from their moorings. Good night to you, said I, in a voice that would do credit to an auctioneer on a drizzly day; what's the business to-night? Why you look like a crowd that was struck by a snow bank and were waiting the arrival of a relief party. And with that I hauled over the stool and, placing my back up against the wall, made the most out of a cool reception.

"I was fully five minutes before any of the party opened their gobs, and at last I noticed the jaws of Mrs. Tucker stretch a bit, and later her tongue banged forth in all its best brand of vindictiveness. She turned her two almond nut shaped eyes upon me and then beheld I could behold a sudden anger. Tim, said she, 'im glad you arrived here to-night, for we were getting dubious about you. You as leader of this party have a great deal to do and we expect much of you. Already we can hear the sound of the
