The Travellers at Home.

Winnipeg Council of United Commercial Travellers inaugurated what they intend to be the first of a series of social evenings, in their council room, Eureka hall, on Saturday evening last. The travellers and their friends to the number of 60 or 70 gathered at the hall on this occasion, and passed a very pleasant evening at Progressive Pedro and in other ways. Mayor Wilson welcomed the guests, on behalf of the council, and after Secretary Cox, had stated the rules of the game, the company settled down to an hour or two of progressive pedro. At the end of this period several prizes were awarded—Mrs. J. F. C. Cox securing the ladies' first, while Mr. Grundy claimed gent's first. Mrs. Buchanan and W. A. Cavanagh secured the "booby" prizes for the poorest score.

During the evening musical selections were rendered by Miss Connor and Miss Grundy and Messrs. Cox and Hargreaves.

After the pedro, a dainty repast was served, which added much to the pleasure of the evening. Before the gathering broke up, a vote of thanks was passed, on motion of L. C. McIntyre and J. M. Lamb, to the officers and members of the council for the pleasant entertainment they had provided. The warbling of "God Save the Queen," as it has seldom been sung before, brought the happy evening's enjoyment to a close, all agreeing that the travellers know something more than how to sell goods, when they set their minds to it.

It is the intention of Winnipeg Council U. C. T. to hold a social evening monthly during the winter season.

Boot and Shoe Trade Notes.

The boot and shoe manufactures of Quebec have prepared an agreement for the men to sign before resuming work.

The boot and shoe store of A. Paul, on the corner of Main street and Portage avenue, was damaged by fire Wednesday morning to the extent of about $100.

In styles of shoes for the coming season there is a decided tendency towards black in kid. Patent kid is rapidly becoming a favorite. A medium full toe is selling best. Oxfords in men's light and medium tans will be good sellers next season.

The stronger feeling which has developed in the hide and fur market is making the market for spring lines of boots and shoes firmer and in some quarters there is talk of higher prices. The trade here, however, do not regard the situation as warranting any advance as yet.

Over two hundred head of fat cattle were shipped at Qu'Appelle for Gordon & Ironsides last week. The animals were brought from the ranches in Touchwood Hills.
