A. M. HAMILTON & SON'S REPORT

London, Thursday, Nov. 1.

Wheat, white, per bush.....63c to 63c
Wheat, red, per bush.....63c to 63c
Oats, per bu .....23¾c to 25½c
Peas, per bu.....49c to 57c
Barley, per bu .....33½c to 41c
Rye, per bu.....42c to 45c
Buckwheat, per bu.....41c to 43c
Beans, per bu.....75c to $1 00

The grain market was steady today; receipts were light and demand good; prices show no changes. Wheat, $1 05; oats, 72c to 75c; malting barley, 80c to 85c; beans, 60c to $1, the former price for very poor. No corn, rye, peas or buckwheat offered.

Dressed hogs were scarce and steady, at $6 75; demand fair. Live hogs were dull, no business being done. Toronto was completely demoralized yesterday; $4 75 was all that could be got, lower old country markets being the cause. Our quotation is unchanged, because there were no transactions, but we look for a reduction of about $1. This will be keeping time with the foreign prices for meat, and it is quite certain if things don't change the dressed hogs will be similarly affected.

Hay was lower, at $7 50 to $8, the majority of sales being made at $7 50. No straw offered.

That "Stuffed-up" Feeling.

Do you feel choked up with the cold—find it hard to breathe—feeling of weight or oppression in the chest—cough hard and rasping?

Send for a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, take it according to directions and you'll soon breathe easy, your lungs will be cleared of the phlegm and the useless and irritating cough will be checked.

Mr. Eli Butcher, Birtle, Man., writes: "During the past threshing season I contracted a severe cold which caused me to lay up for three weeks. I was clogged up in the throat and chest and could not breathe easy. I sent for a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and it soon gave me great relief and cured me."

THE CAMPAIGN

Nomination Day Doings in the Dominion.

Two Elections by Acclamation—Proceedings in Five Constituencies Postponed—Political Notes.

Toronto, Nov. 1.—Nominations were duly held yesterday in 108 of the 213 constituencies of the Dominion. There were but two elections by acclamation, one going to the Liberals in Quebec, where Mr. Lavergne was unopposed in Drummond and Arthabaska, and the Conservatives securing the second in Ontario, where Mr. Seagram was declared elected for North Waterloo, in the absence of an opponent. The five constituencies in which nominations are to come are Nipissing in Ontario, Yale and Cariboo and Burrard in British Columbia, and Gaspe and Chicoutimi in Quebec, all of them of vast extent, and containing each many points difficult of easy access. The acclamations are fewer than usual, there being generally three or four. In 1896 there were four, two Liberals, one Conservative and one Independent.

There were no special surprises in the nominations. In Quebec, Liberals and Conservatives have each doubled once or twice, and in South Huron, West Elgin and North Norfolk there are two Liberals in the field. Mr. John McEwen is contesting South Huron with Mr. MacMillian; in West Elgin Mr. George E. Casey and Mr. McGuigan, Liberals, and Mr. Jabel Robinson, Patron, are contesting, and in North Norfolk Mr. Charlton is being opposed by Mr. J. C. Ross, also a Liberal.

In Quebec, Sir Adolphe Caron, who was crowded out of Three Rivers, is standing for Maskinonge, making it a three-cornered contest.

In Toronto all three ridings will see three-cornered contests, Mr. A. McFarren running as an independent candidate in East Toronto, and Dr. Hargrave and Mr. H. Stevenson standing as Independents in Center and West Toronto respectively. In Winnipeg the contest will be again between Mr. Puttee and Mr. E. Martin, both running as Independents, as in the case of the last bye-election in that city.

A full list of the candidates will be found on page 1.

WEST MIDDLESEX.

Glencoe, Oct. 31.—The gentlemen nominated for the west riding of Middlesex were Mr. W. S. Calvert, Liberal, and Mr. Richard Dunlop, Conservative. After the nominations the electors crowded around the town hall. Although the Conservatives had for some time been putting forth their best efforts to pack the hall with their friends, and had resorted to tactics which did not appeal to the fair-minded even among their own members, still when Mr. George B. Campbell, their spokesman, attempted to dictate a programme, it was shown that the Liberals had turned out en masse, and formed by far the larger element in the assembly. At the suggestion of Mr. Campbell, Dr. McIntyre took the chair, and as the doctor is an old and respected resident, the Liberals consented to this arrangement. For some two hours Mr. Campbell, on behalf of the Conservatives, endeavored to convince the audience that he, and he only, knew how to conduct a meeting, but failed. It was suggested by a member of the audience that the programme be arranged by the two candidates, but Mr. Campbell would not listen to this, and was finally hissed from the platform.

It was finally arranged in a manner proposed by the Reformers some two hours before. Mr. Dunlop was allowed three-quarters of an hour, and occupied about four minutes, stating that the Reform government had raised the price of sugar. Then Mr. Calcert, amid cheers, addressed the electors in an eloquent manner on the important issues of the day. Then Mr. Thomas Crothers, of St. Thomas, spoke according to arrangement for three-quarters of an hour. He stated that the Liberal party had broken all their pledges; that Sir Charles Tupper, and he alone, was responsible for sending the Canadian contingent, and that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not a loyal and patriotic statesman. When Mr. Crothers had finished he picked up his grip, hat and overcoat, and, accompanied by several Conservatives, left the hall. Hon. George W. Ross was then called and was received with loud and prolonged applause. After disposing of Mr. Crothers' speech, as Mr. Ross delights to do, the premier showed conclusively that the Laurier government had been faithful to every pledge upon which they had gone to the country in 1896. Mr. Ross closed with an eloquent appeal to the electors to return Mr. Calvert, as he knew they would, with as handsome a majority as ever. The meeting closed with hearty cheers for Mr. Calvert Hon. George W. Ross, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Queen, while the name of the Conservative candidate was entirely forgotten.

A BYE-ELECTION.

Though not connected with the federal contest, it may be added that the Ontario Government also carried a seat by acclamation yesterday, namely, in North Waterloo, where the Liberal candidate, Mr. L. J. Breithaupt, was declared elected in the absence of an opponent.

RESIGNED

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 31.—V. Minkler has resigned his seat for Rhineland in the local house.

ENTHUSIASTIC WILSON MEETING.

St. Thomas Journal: Mr. John Farley was at Port Burwell Tuesday evening, where, in company with Hon. David Mills, minister of justice, he addressed a meeting in the interests of Dr. Wilson, the Liberal candidate. Mr. Hillman presided. The meeting was a most enthusiastic one, and the attendance was large. Port Burwell will do well for the government candidate, whose popularity there is great. Hon. Mr. Mills went on to Dutton this morning. He is accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. Clarke, formerly of The London Advertiser.

MR. TARTE MALIGNED.

The Woodstock Express (Independent-Conservative) says: The Conservative papers and stumpers are making free use of the indorsation which Mr. J. I. Tarte has won from sections of the French press for his advocacy of Canadian independence. The Express has never joined in the howl against Mr. Tarte. We have always believed that a good deal of it was irrational and the outcome of the jealousy with which his ability and strength were naturally regarded by his opponents. There was also the fact that Mr. Tarte was a deserter from the Conservative ranks, and to desert the party ranks is to be guilty of the greatest crime in the political calendar.

MR. CALVERT'S MEETINGS.

At Appin—Thursday, Nov. 1.
At Newbury—Friday, Nov. 2.
At Glencoe—Monday, Nov. 5.

NORTH MIDDLESEX.

The North Middlesex nominations at Ailsa Craig were followed by a large meeting in the skating rink, at which the candidates addressed the electors. Mr. Ratz was assisted by Dr. Sampson, of Windsor. The speakers for the Conservative side were Messrs. I. F. Hellmuth, of London; Dickson, of Exeter; and Sherritt.

NOTES.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will speak at Hamilton on Monday night.

Hon. George W. Ross will speak in the skating rink at Quebec on Monday.

Alex. Laforge, the Independence of Canada man, at Windsor, decided to withdraw.

London Under Laurier.

How representative London firms have thrived during the past five years! In 1895 the Conservatives were in power, then the Liberals. A few days ago the Advertiser published some statistics showing the immense growth of local business as evidenced by the increase in the number of workingmen employed, during the Liberal administration. The appended illustration give even a better idea of this growth than did the figures alone:

Number Employes London Box Co.
1895 — 20
1900 — 45

Number Employes London Bolt Works.
1895 — 30
1900 — 60

Number Employes Columbia Handle Co.

1900 — 80

Number Employes McClary Mfg. Co.

MULTUM IN PARVO

Mrs. Thomas McDonough, of Dundas, dropped dead at the dinner table.

Myles McNeil, a miner, was killed Tuesday by a cave-in of a slope in the British Columbia mine at Summit Camp, B. C. M. Greene, his partner, escaped with a broken thigh and severe internal injuries.

The Michigan Central will early next month place orders for the construction of two huge freight locomotives for use on the transfer between Montrose and Niagara Falls, N. Y. These engines will be of enormous power.

The Windsor Review plant was almost totally destroyed by fire Tuesday night; cause not known, unless politics became too hot around the office; loss $3,000. The Review is a Conservative weekly owned by John and T. M. Whyte.

A Windsor telegram says: W. G. MacLaughlin, the air brake man, who is a cousin of W. Youtsey, condemned for the assassination of Gov. Goebel, is pleased with the new evidence now produced in the Kentucky case. McLaughlin thinks Youtsey will soon be free, owing to the stenographer's confession that he was bribed to perjure himself.

CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMPS and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruits, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debarred from eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and take a few drops in water. It cures the cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels.

DELIBERATE FALSIFICATION

Hugh John Macdonald Wilfully Misquotes Mr. Sifton—What the Minister Actually Said.

No more glaring instance of the absolutely audacious manner in which the Tories are endeavoring to mislead the electorate by deliberate misstatements has appeared in the last few days than occurs in a letter from Hugh John Macdonald to the president of the Brandon Conservative Association. Speaking of the allegation that the Minister of the Interior had granted a permit to his late law partner, Mr. A. E. Philp, to take liquor into the Yukon, Hugh John says: "On the 4th of April, 1899, Mr. Sifton was obliged to admit in the House of Commons that he had given Mr. Philp the following permit: 'This will introduce Mr. Philp who will be permitted to enter the Yukon district with such provisions as he may choose to take with him, without regard to the regulations.' Mr. Sifton also stated, 'When Mr. Philp got to the coast he decided to become interested in the bringing of liquor into the Yukon. He telegraphed me asking me to write him that the letter I had given him should include liquor.'"

Will it be believed that Hugh John actually cut off the quotation from Mr. Sifton's speech in the middle of a sentence which concluded, "and his request was promptly declined." Such deliberate falsification of the records seems incredible in a public man, and especially in one who "always keeps his word." The following excerpt from Mr. Sifton's speech as it appeared in Hansard will demonstrate the willful character of the misrepresentation: "The story was circulated at the coast that I had given Mr. Philp a liquor permit, and that he had taken liquor into the Klondike, and with that charity which covers a multitude of sins the story was industriously circulated that I was his partner in connection with the taking of liquor into the country. Well, Mr. Speaker, he never had a liquor permit from me or my department, directly or indirectly, or in any way, shape or form, by or under the authority of any member of this Government. I hold Mr. Philp's written statement, which he is prepared to verify by statutory declaration and which will render him liable to an indictment for perjury if not true, that he never took any liquor into the Klondike in any way, shape or form. Mr. Philp came to me one day in my office and said that Major Welsh had made an order about requiring 600 pounds of provisions for each person going over the pass; that he intended to go up to the Yukon on a short visit—that he was just going in and out, and that he wanted me to give him an order authorizing him to go in without the 600 pounds of provisions. I said to him, 'You do not need any order, the police will not stop you, you are not going as a prospector, and besides the police have not the authority to stop you. The order is to all intents and purposes an advisory order. If anyone goes in without that amount of provisions the police cannot prevent him, as they have not the legal authority to do so.' He, however, said he did not want to have any trouble with the police and asked me to give him a letter which I did. I wrote this letter: 'This will introduce Mr. Philp, who will be permitted to enter the Yukon district with such provisions he may choose to take with him, without regard to the regulations.'" When Mr. Philp got to the coast, like the partner of the honorable member for Pictou (Sir Hibbert Tupper), and a great many other distinguished gentlemen, he desired to become interested in the matter of bringing liquor into the Yukon. He telegraphed me, asking me to write him that the letter I had given him should include liquor, and his request was promptly declined."—Hansard, April 4, 1899, page 850.

No wonder Sir Charles Tupper fail to offer a most abject apology to Mr. Philp for slandering him in reference to this matter, knowing full well that he had not done as charged. The law courts would have taught him a salutary lesson.

TRY IT.—It would be a gross injustice to confound that standard healing agent—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—with the ordinary unguents, lotions and salves. They are oftentimes inflammatory and astringent. The Oil is, on the contrary, eminently cooling and soothing, when applied externally to relieve pain, and powerfully remedial when swallowed.

HE TRIED TO SMOTHER.

Marysville, O., Nov. 1.—Rosslyn H. Ferrell, who was found guilty of the murder of Express Messenger Lane, attempted to commit suicide by smothering himself in bedclothing. The guards pulled the clothes off, while Ferrell fought to prevent their removal. The prisoner's mother and Miss Costlow, his sweetheart, were prostrated.

HAVE YOU ECZEMA?—Have you any skin disease or eruptions? Are you subject to chafing or scalding? Dr. Agnew's Ointment prevents and cures any and all of these, and cures Itching, Bleeding and Blind Piles besides. One application brings relief in ten minutes, and cases cured in three to six nights. 35 cents. Sold by C. McCallum & Co.—71.
