Had Good Time.

The Highlanders had a good time Monday night when Sergt. Pitman was winced and dined by the boys. Mr. Pitman will leave shortly for Montreal. There was an excellent menu served. Before Mr. Pitman left he was presented with a set of military brushes and was cordially cheered by every brigade boy present. Proceedings concluded with the National Anthem.

Railway Traffic.

Up to date this year the railway traffic is much larger than up to the same time last year. All excursion trains running are crowded, and the expresses going to Port aux Basques are filled with people going abroad. It is likely that this year there will be 100 per cent more passengers carried over the railway line than last year.

Forest Fires.

In addition to the information we published yesterday in our Notes from the North from a correspondent, we publish to-day the intelligence given in the Daily News this morning, which is as follows:—

Botwood, May 28.—A terrific forest fire started last night on McHale's cut and line. It swept the country right out to the salt water at the bottom of Peter's Arm, and following on the west side of Botwood to the North Arm, will probably go down the country to New Bay and Fortune Harbor, if the gale of wind now prevailing continues. The wind is from the south-west. So far the dwellings at Botwood are safe. The Company's men, and private individuals are watching to prevent the fire from getting hold of the houses. A fierce fire is also raging on the ridge on the east side of Botwood. This fire started at the bottom of Norris' Arm and is sweeping down the country towards Lewisporte. The telephone and telegraph line between Botwood and Bligh's Falls is burned, and probably the A. N. D. track as well.

Norris' Arm, May 28.—With this wind Norris' Arm and Glenwood are safe. Fire is raging in the vicinity of Botwood. A few houses are burnt. It is reported that Lewisporte is now ablaze.

Sheep and Swine

RAM'S FLESH.

R. R.—Is there any season of the year in which the flesh of rams is fit for human food? All the rams in this section are bought cheap and sent to Newfoundland.

Ans.—There is nothing injurious in the flesh of rams, but there may be a disagreeable odor. The season makes little or no difference. If any season is favorable, it would be in June or July while on grass.—Montreal Herald.

Minard's Liniment Co. Limited,

Yarmouth, N.S.
Gentlemen.—In January last, Francis Leclaire, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work.

SAUVAGEUR DUVAL,

S. A. Captain Drowned.

Yarmouth, May 22.—Capt. Holland, who came to Yarmouth four weeks ago to take charge of the Salvation Army work in that division, was found dead this afternoon at Rockville, three miles from town. There were no marks of violence on the body, which was floating in the water. Captain Holland had come to this country from England and succeeded Captain White at Yarmouth.

Captain Holland left his home in Yarmouth early in the afternoon and went down to Rockville. At that place he was seen at 4 o'clock and at twenty minutes past four his dead body was found in the water. A coroner's jury was empanelled and a verdict rendered of "found drowned."

Empire Day at Branch.

At Branch the usual school holiday was given on May 24th. The children assembled in school and the younger ones were dismissed to enjoy Empire Day as best they might. Unfortunately the weather was not suitable for outdoor amusements; so the little ones, though somewhat disappointed, kept their holiday mirth within their homes. The senior pupils were treated to a lecture on The British Empire by their teacher, Mr. L. English, A.A. Mr. English spoke at length, the pupils in the meantime taking notes of the chief points on which he dwelt. He said in part:— "It is the proud boast of Englishmen that the sun never sets on the British Empire." From the far east to the far west the Colonies of Britain stretch around the Globe. It is estimated that one-fifth of the entire land on the earth's surface belongs to this great empire, and one-sixth of the world's population is British subjects. The English language is heard in every country, and ships, flying the flag of England, sail on every sea.

"The greatness of the British Empire is due mainly to the enterprise of the English people, and to the control of the seas which the English navy has won and maintained. Ever since the sea kings of old settled in Britain her sailors have traded constantly with other nations. The same hardihood which distinguished the Vikings of one thousand years ago still characterizes the British sailor. In discovery and colonization England has held a foremost place. India, Australia, South Africa and North America are mighty proofs of the enterprise of the English race.

"The control of the seas had long been disputed. The first great victory of an English navy was in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, when the Armada of Spain was annihilated. Later on the Dutch were the greatest rivals of England; then the French and Spaniards thought to predominate, but English seamanship once more prevailed. What sailor of Britain does not look back with pride to the days of Nelson, who, in the great naval engagements of the Nile and Trafalgar established England as the undisputed mistress of the seas? And to-day if she were called upon to defend herself there is but little doubt that victory must fall to the mighty navy which has been justly styled 'Britain's right arm.'

"The Empire's Feast Day is May 24th, which was first instituted as Empire Day, after the death of Queen Victoria. When the good queen died it was thought advisable to change her birthday festival which had so long been a national holiday into a day of Empire. This day is indeed a fitting occasion for every British subject to rejoice. We, as citizens of the mightiest Empire of earth, should be thankful for the liberties which we possess, the protection of which we are assured, and the great union of England and her dominions to which we belong."

Mr. James A. Power, who left here a few weeks ago for Boston, in writing to friends says that he is well pleased with the place and considers his chances good in the "hub." This talented young Harbor Gracian will have a wide scope for his business as painter, decorator, etc., and several other useful arts of which he was an expert. We wish him success.

An item in the Boston American of May 21st informs us that Dr. Grenfell's auxiliary schooner George B. Cluett left Boston Harbor that day deeply laden with "furniture of every description, including two pianos and other musical instruments, for one of Dr. Grenfell's missions on Labrador. For more than a year the collection of furniture has been going on to be used in the latest home for fishermen established by the physician-missionary. The pianos were sent along for the use of the fishing schooner girls. All the furniture on board was donated by Bostonians."

CONCERNING BREAD

And of Special Interest to the Millions Who Eat It.

The housewife together with every lover of good, pure bread, will welcome the announcement that: It is possible to obtain Flour from which can be made Bread possessing all the wholesome nutritive and digestive properties contained in the Best and Purest Spring Wheat. Bread made from "ARUNDELL" flour in addition to these merits has that distinctly sweet and wheat taste obtainable only from the best spring wheat.

"ARUNDELL" goes largely into competition in London and throughout the U. K. with these flours milled by special process and which have become so deservedly popular by reason of their retaining all the best properties of the pure spring wheat none of the merits of which are sacrificed to obtain the maximum of whiteness.

Try a barrel of "ARUNDELL" and be convinced of all that is claimed for it; also that by reason of its strength and absorbent qualities it is the most economical flour for family use.—may 27, 61, eod.

Hr. Grace Notes.

The market was fairly well stocked with codfish this morning. Quite a number of very fine salmon were also offered for sale at the very reasonable price of 10 cents per pound.

An old resident of the South Side, Mrs. Annie Parsons, died there on Saturday last after a long illness. The funeral took place yesterday, when the remains were followed to the grave by a very large number of relatives and friends. The old lady, who was over 80 years of age, leaves several sons to mourn their loss.

Mr. James A. Power, who left here a few weeks ago for Boston, in writing to friends says that he is well pleased with the place and considers his chances good in the "hub." This talented young Harbor Gracian will have a wide scope for his business as painter, decorator, etc., and several other useful arts of which he was an expert. We wish him success.

The above item seems somewhat strange, but if true we are glad to see our fishing population on Labrador coming up to the piano level. Now we hope no person will misunderstand us; a piano is none too good for any of our fisher girls or boys either, but we wish them one and all such a busy season that they will have no time for such a delightful pastime. But may the harvest be so good that they all will be able to purchase a piano at the end of the voyage. CORRESPONDENT, Harbor Grace, May 28, '12.

Stokers' Meeting

The Firemen's Union held their quarterly meeting in the Longshoremen's Hall last night. It was proposed and seconded that all Union firemen sailing from this port get $35 per month, the same pay as the stokers who are engaged on the Red Cross, Hudson Bay and Montreal steamers are receiving. At present the firemen on all our coastal boats are paid $30 a month. This they claim is not enough, and it was decided to notify shipowners a month ahead regarding the request for an increase of $5. It was stated at the meeting that Delegate Woods and Secretary King would be going to Bell Island in a few days to make arrangements for the formation of a branch of the Union there, as alluded to in yesterday's Telegram.
