Leeburn.

Miss Lottie Carnegie has returned home after a pleasant visit to friends in Weston.

Harry Horton returned to his duties as teacher at Paramount on Saturday.

Fall wheat averages 30 bushels to the acre.

Belgrave.

W J Oliver is visiting at the homestead. He looks hale and hearty.

The sound of the threshing engine is again heard in our midst. The average is about 25 bushels per acre.

John Hamilton, a former resident of this place, is visiting in this neighborhood.

Bush fires in this vicinity are destroying a great deal of valuable timber.

Henry Wilson is the owner of a team of horses which he claims to be the largest and strongest in the county.

Dungannon.

Gilbert Coombs, of the London Free Press, enjoyed our rustic air last week. He was the guest of his aunt, Mrs Tobin.

We notice the familiar countenance of Joseph M. MacDonald in our midst after an absence of about four years. He is now foreman of one of the leading lumber companies of Alpena, Michigan. He is taking his holidays at the old home-stead, and his old cronies frequently exchange experiences with him under the tall cherry trees. Mr MacDonald is accompanied by his cousin, Miss E. Brodwell, a young lady of 12 summers.

Belfast.

Wm. Crosby was visiting friends in Wingham last week.

Mrs W. J. Phillips, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks at James Mullen's, visiting the old folks at home.

Donald McKenzie and Wm Murchison, of Toronto, paid our little burg a flying visit this week.

Messrs. Hamilton and Kilpatrick have the contract for building a new bridge over the Nine Mile river, west of this place. They expect to finish the job this week.

George Kean has purchased a traction engine and separator. As it ran through the village about 4 a.m. on Friday, the startled people mistook it for a runaway locomotive.

Belgrave.

T. E. Nixon, our enterprising harness maker, has started a livery stable in connection with his business.

Large quantities of lumber and cedar posts are being shipped to Londoff and Allen Craig, by James Tyner, of this place.

While A. Taylor was amusing himself along with some of the boys rolling heavy tires on the street, he accidently rolled one into Rev. Mr. Burwash's rig, causing the horse to become frightened. Fortunately it was kept from doing any serious damage.

Another carload of cheese has been sold this week at good prices.

Rev. Geo. Law and Alex. Stewart are away trout fishing. We may expect some tall fish stories from "Sandy" when he comes back.

BORN.

In Goderich, on Tuesday, the 17th inst., the wife of Mr W. Reason, of a still-born child.
