LOCAL MARKETS.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 4.

There was a quiet market to-day in wheat and prices were unchanged. It was different in oats though, the receipts were light and the demand good; buyers tried hard to keep them down to $1 15, but it soon became evident that the man who had the most money was to get oats to-day, and bidding in some cases ran up to $1 18, closing unsettled and excited. Outside the above there is nothing of any account to mention. Trading was quiet and prices easy. Quotations:

—Two Londoners took a trip this week a considerable distance down the Thames in a canoe. "Snow flurries and canoeing are scarcely enjoyable when mixed," is the way one of them describes the journey.

Lieut.-Col. Lewis, of stained glass fame, of London, Ont., is in the city. B. J. Nash, hearse, carriage and cab manufacturer, of London, Ont., arrived on Saturday evening. John Campbell, a well-known carriage maker of London, Ont., arrived from the east last night.—[Victoria, B.C., Times.

—An enthusiastic meeting of the London Camera Club was held at their rooms in the Robinson Hall Chambers last evening, and arrangements were made for the season's work. The members will commence the season by a lantern slides next week and thereafter than they will be held early in December. A shade more money will be given for secondary. The fat stock show about over. For the few on offered prices have been realized. Calves offered in smaller numbers and an opportunity of judging of the progress made by London's local amateurs.

—In the case of Elliott vs. Thompson at Osgoode Hall on Saturday Mr. Hoyles, Q.C., for the defendant, moved for prohibition to the First Division Court of the county of Middlesex to restrain proceedings upon a judgment recovered in the absence of the defendant. The motion was dismissed.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Egelton, which took place from the family residence, Fullarton street, yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. H. Ferguson, S. Stewart, J. Harris, J. B. Smyth, S. McBride and P. Temple, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Hicks.

In response to a notice sent to the medical practitioners in the city, a goodly number of them met at Dr. Campbell's office on Dundas street for the purpose of organizing a medical society. Dr. Moorhouse was appointed president, Dr. MacArthur vice-president, Dr. Drake treasurer, and Dr. Campbell secretary. Drs. Waugh, John Wilson and Meek were appointed a committee on bylaws. After a discussion of several other matters the meeting adjourned to meet again at the Medical College on Monday evening, Nov. 17.

—The regular semi-monthly meeting of the London South Chautauqua Circle was held last evening in the usual place. In response to roll call members present gave short quotations from "Longfellow," the poet for the evening, after which the lesson from "Winchell's Geology" was ably taught by Mr. W. Kettelwell. Miss L. Westland recited with good effect "Kamblan," from Longfellow's "Spanish Jew's Tale"; then Mr. J. Ward and Miss A. G. Dale sang in a most pleasing manner the "Hymn at the Consecration of Pulaski's Banner," when a most enjoyable and profitable evening was brought to a close.

—In connection with the dedicatory services at the North End Presbyterian Mission Sunday school an interesting meeting was held last night, when addresses were given by Rev. Messrs. Talling, Speller, Murray, Rogers, Gordon, and Messrs. G. W. Armstrong, Jas. Gordon, and Sayer, Mr. H. E. Nelles read a report of the work being done, which was exceedingly encouraging. The musical and literary portion of the programme was given by Misses Gilmour, Evans and Cannell, and Messrs. J. I. Anderson and Bapty. The school is now on a solid footing. The total cost of the mission school is $3,776.

"The Little Tycoon."

This opera will be produced at the Grand Opera House on Friday and Saturday evening. The Montreal Gazette says: "'The Little Tycoon,' with all its attendant merriment, brilliant and exhilarating music and general picturesqueness, still continues to attract large audiences at the Academy. The music is distinctively new to the stage, and the more it is heard the more it is valued. It differs considerably from other productions of light opera, and in treatment stands out alone. The music never seems to pall on one, but flowing forth in glowing rounds of ever-varying melody, rendered with the utmost precision, tact and delicacy, it literally extorts admiration." The plan will open on Wednesday morning.

Janauschek at the Grand.

A fair house greeted the celebrated Madam Janauschek, in "Macbeth," at the Grand last evening. The acknowledged artistic superiority of the famous Bohemian actress would render praise or criticism uncalled for. Suffice it to say her conception of the tragic Lady Macbeth is at once a revelation of studied experience and consummated genius. Mr. J. W. Rennie shows true dramatic ability in the impersonation of the lordly Macbeth, a role which his commanding appearance enhances. Macduff, too, received a creditable rendition in Mr. A. H. Stuart's hands. Of course the whole interest centers in Janauschek, and excepting Macbeth, Macduff and Malcolm, the other members are given little scope for a display of their aptitude. The costuming was thoroughly in keeping with the realism of the play.

The Castoner Case.

At Osgoode Hall, Toronto, yesterday, re Ancient Order of Foresters and Castener.—Chisholm (London) for Eva Castener, one of the claimants in an interpleader, appealed from an order of a local judge at London refusing to direct the other claimant, Rebecca Kershner, to give security for costs. Both claimants claim the sum of $1,000 under a benefit certificate issued by the Ancient Order of Foresters upon the life of Leo Castener, alias Kershner, now deceased, and each claims to be his widow. Upon the application of the Ancient Order of Foresters under con. rule, 1,141 (a) an interpleader issue was directed, and Rebecca Kershner was made plaintiff, but was not ordered to give security for costs, although she lives out of the jurisdiction. Hellmuth (London) for Rebecca Kershner, contra, contended that security for costs could not be ordered in a case of this kind. Middleton for the Ancient Order of Foresters. Reserved.

An Official Visit.

Last night Right Wor. Bro. A. B. Munson, D.D.G.M. of the London district, paid an official visit to Tuscan Lodge, of this city. Wor. Bros. Fisher and Clarke were appointed a deputation to introduce the District Deputy, who was received with grand honors. Thereafter, on behalf of the lodge, he was heartily welcomed by Wor. Bro. Paul, W.M. At the close of the evening's work, the District Deputy congratulated the lodge on its efficiency and steady progress. An adjournment was then made to the banquetting chamber, where a substantial repast was served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in a truly social Masonic manner. There was a large attendance of members of the lodge and of visiting brethren, including representatives from every lodge in the city and suburbs, from St. Thomas, Brockville and elsewhere. Among the leading brethren present were: Wor. Bros. Morgan, Kilwinning Lodge; Ford, St. John's, 20; Dr. Gardiner, Corinthian; J. Smith, 209a; Rt. Wor. Bro. Porte, Wor. Bros. Parker, Fisher, Broderick, McWhinney, Sutherland and Clarke, from Tuscan Lodge.

The Protestant Orphans' Home.

The monthly meeting of the Protestant Orphans' Home was held in Victoria Hall yesterday, the members present being Mesdames Morphy (president), Hyman, Gregsten, Jeffery, Priddis, Fitzgerald, Shaw-Wood, Hamilton, Moore, Owrey, De la Hooke, Wm. Glass, Samuel Glass, Thomson, Miss Priddis and Mrs. Garlick, the secretary. There are at present 61 children in the home, and excepting colds, all are in good health and attending school. Dr. Brown decidedly refuses to pass any more children into the home, as there are already too many for the size of the building, and there are many applications being received, which the ladies have to refuse. The Doctor advises the finishing of the attic, which would accommodate a few more. Donations for October which were thankfully acknowledged are as follows: Mrs. Anderson, clothing; Mrs. Smallman, clothing; Mr. Gillespie, tea; Mr. D. Collins, vegetables.

BEECHAM'S PILLS cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

Smokers Should Read.

London is well known throughout Canada, particularly as the city from which the celebrated "Highland Lassie" cigar is shipped to all parts of the Dominion from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Messrs. H. McKay & Co., the manufacturers, take a special pride in this 5-cent cigar. It has been completely tested by the majority of the smokers of the country, who pronounce it the choicest article on the market. Nothing but the best fillers and wrappers are allowed in its composition, and, when once tried, it convinces the most sceptical of its superiority. Messrs. H. McKay & Co.'s immense establishment, with its products, is a credit to the city.
