Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y.

EAST BUFFALO, Feb. 22.—Cattle—Only 2 cars of sale cattle in the late receipts, and those were peddled out to the city trade at easy prices with Monday.

Sheep and Lambs—Offering to-day 25 cars—12 cars of Monday's and Tuesday's receipts held over, and 13 cars fresh arrivals. The market showed an improvement to-day in the demand, but prices on the average were no better. A few prime lambs sold at $6 20, and good to choice lots at $6 10 to $6 15, while good 75 to 80 pound lambs, fat, smooth and good killers brought $5 80 to $5 90; light and common lots sold at $5 to $5 25. Good sheep were steady in price and sold at about Monday's rates, good lots bringing $5 25 to $5 40, down to $4 25 to $5 for fair to good lots; cull and common butcher grades about steady.

Hogs—The market has flattened out badly from the high prices of the last few days, and with 35 cars to-day—25 cars of holdover stock and 10 cars of fresh arrivals. The markets are weak, and closed 10c to 15c lower than yesterday. Packers bought good lots of 180 to 190 pound hogs at $8 35, and took the lighter ones of 170 to 175 pounds at $8 20 to $8 25; a few closely selected butchers' brought $8 50; York men bought good 165 to 170 pound hogs at $8 15 to $8 25; pigs sold generally at $7 75; roughs were slow at $5 50 to $7, and stags at $5 50 to $6 50.

Petrolea Oil Market.

PETROLEA, Feb. 23.—Oil opened and closed at $1 18¾.

In Spite of Fashion's Fads.

There is one consolation, and a most soothing one it is. The hoop skirt is doubtless ungraceful, inconvenient, awkward and inartistic, but neither the hoop skirt nor any other device of the dressmaker can destroy the beauty of woman. In some way or another, whatever the prevailing style may be, she always manages to make herself look well.—[Washington News.

A Sunday school teacher was trying to impress upon his pupils the care of the Diety for all living things, great or small, and getting to the peroration of his address he said: "The Lord who made the mountain made the little blade of grass. The Lord who made the ocean made the pebble on the shore. The Lord who made me made a daisy." And then he wondered why the class burst into laughter.

He—I am the slave of my own imagination.

She—What a stupid master.

Oh, that the skies were bluer,
And the milk a little less so!

—All the city clergymen have been asked to speak on the work of the London Humane Society next Sunday.

—The many friends of Mrs. G. N. Sayers, Colborne street, will regret exceedingly to hear that her life is despaired of.

—The Board of Trade purposes tendering the officials of the C. P. R. a banquet upon the completion of their passenger station here.

—The members of Ahoghill Lodge, No. 230, L. O. L., spent a jolly time in their rooms on Adelaide street the other evening, when they held an assembly. Sixty-six couples were on the floor and dancing continued until 5:30 a.m.

—Several well-known young men of this city were summoned to appear before Squire Lacey yesterday for brawling at Hyde Park recently. The cases were settled out of court, the young men paying the costs and promising that they would never be so naughty again.

—The Art Loan Exhibition at Somerset Hall continues to be well patronized, and the attendance will no doubt grow larger as the exhibit continues. The display is pronounced by all to be the best ever given in the city, the Japanese room alone, with its special features, being well worth the price of admission. The object is as commendable as the exhibit.

—James Brooks, a teamster, was driving past the corner of King and Clarence today, and was sitting on the front of the sleigh. One side of the whiffletree came unfastened and, flying back, it crushed his leg badly below the knee. He was carried into the Clarence House and Dr. Graham sent for, but he could find no bones broken. Brooks will be laid up for some time as a result of the bruising.

He has organized for active work nearly every State in the Union, and so has an experience in temperance matters that few men can equal. Mr. Dickie will answer questions from the audience at the close of the lecture.

—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bremner, Hill street, was the scene of a very pleasant event on Wednesday evening, Feb. 22, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jennie, to Mr. Harry Parsons, merchant, of Orillia. Rev. J. Ward performed the ceremony, after which about 50 guests partook of a sumptuous repast. The presents to the bride were both numerous and costly, evincing the good wishes of her many friends and the high esteem in which she is held.

Sudden Death of Miss Ella Portwood.

Her many friends were shocked this morning to hear of the death of Miss Ella Portwood, 464 Talbot street. She was in her usual health yesterday, but towards evening complained of a pain in the head, which grew so bad that at midnight a doctor was summoned. He could do nothing to relieve her, and at 4:30 a.m. she passed away. Examination proved the cause of death to have been a tumor at the base of the brain. Deceased, who was in her 17th year, was a bright, estimable young lady, a favorite with her companions and of a very attractive disposition. She was a member of the Queen's Avenue Methodist Church choir. Her mother and brother have the deepest sympathy.

Waldeck-Cousins.

St. Paul's Cathedral was the scene of a very quiet wedding yesterday afternoon. Capt. Willem Abraham Hubertus Waldeck and Mrs. Amelia Theresa Cousins, daughter of James A. Mann, of this city, and widow of the late John Cousins, were the contracting parties. The nuptial knot was tied by Canon Richardson, rector of the Memorial Church. Miss Taylor acted as bridesmaid, and Dr. Mitchell assisted the groom. Only interested parties were present, and after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was partaken of at the residence of the bride's father. The groom arrived in the morning from Toronto, where he has lately been living. The happy couple left by the C. P. R. last evening for that city, where they will sojourn until the summer, when they leave for the continent. The groom was born in Holland and early in life went to Java, in the East Indies, where he is said to be a leading and successful merchant. He has been sojourning in the city for about three months. The bride is well and favorably known in the city.

A Generous Act.

The Marks fire, in the township of Fenelon, near Lindsay, which occurred on Feb. 3, and by which Mr. Marks, his mother and daughter were burned to death, has caused more than local sympathy. The Empire, of Toronto, started a subscription, and it is learned from the Lindsay Warder that at a meeting held in that town the amount raised amounted to $247. Reference is made to a local institution as follows: "We are pleased to note that the London Mutual Fire Insurance Company, who had a risk on the contents of the house for $200, through their inspector, Mr. L. Leitch, paid the amount of the insurance over on Wednesday last without demur, although not legally liable, as the note the late Mr. Marks had given for the premium was past due and had not been paid. This incident alone speaks volumes in favor of the London Mutual, an action, we predict, that will not be forgotten by the farmers of Victoria."

Swept by the Flames

Watford Visited by a Disastrous Conflagration.

Fourteen Business Houses Reduced to Ashes.

The Fire Beyond Control for Some Time—Narrow Escapes of Several Persons—G. W. Danks, of London, Loses Seven Stores.

WATFORD, Feb. 23.—This place has again been visited by a most disastrous fire, in which fourteen business places have been destroyed. The fire originated about 3:30 this morning in the center one of seven brick stores, owned by Mr. Danks, of London, and one occupied by Dr. Alexander, veterinary surgeon. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp. Dr. Alexander lost everything. The flames spread rapidly south and north. Drs. McLeay's and Auld's offices and rooms were in flames so soon that they also lost everything, with the exception of a few books, and Dr. McLeay had to jump from a second-story window. No insurance. It then spread to W. E. Fitzgerald's law office, which was soon consumed, but the greater part of his library and papers were saved. Loss covered by insurance. The next to go was Cook's cabinet warerooms. Most of the stock was removed and the balance is covered by insurance. The fire was stopped on the south at Thomas & Kenward's banking office, but while these buildings to the south were being burned the fire spread rapidly north, and after consuming a vacant store passed on to Alex. Saunders' law office and Fortune's block, consisting of four stores, all of which were destroyed. They are partly insured. The first of these was occupied by Fortune & Moore, bakers and confectioners. Their stock was partly removed; they have some insurance. Above the stores lived their baker, Mr. Matthews, and wife. They had just time to escape and lost everything. Some insurance. The next place to go was Leigh's barber's shop. Then came Wynne's banking offices, which had some insurance on furniture and furnishings. Neff's feed, flour and seed store followed. The stock was nearly all removed; no insurance. Next came Annet's block, which was insured for $1,500, consisting of two stores, one occupied by himself. His stock of groceries, boots and shoes was partly removed. From $1,200 to $1,500 worth of goods were burned; covered by insurance. The other was occupied by Mr. McKerracher for machinery and implements, all of which were removed. The upper story of these were used as a Canadian Order of Foresters' hall, whose property was mostly removed in a damaged condition. Loss covered by insurance. The adjoining building, a frame one, occupied by Chas. Abbott, harness-maker, was pulled down to stop the further spread of the flames. All the buildings destroyed were brick veneered. By the heroic efforts of the firemen from 3:30 to 5:30 a.m. the fire was confined to the west side of Main street. The buildings on the east side suffered only slightly from broken glass and scorched paint.

BAYFIELD, Ont., Feb. 22—Wm. Bate's barn and stable, near here, were burned this evening. Value, $1,500; fire caused by a lantern kicked over by a horse.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 22.—The buildings of the Woeber Car and Carriage Works covering an area of ten acres at South Denver were burned this afternoon. Loss, $109,000. This throws 130 men out of work.

LUCAN, Feb. 23.—The stables belonging to the Western Hotel, owned and occupied by John Whelan, were totally destroyed by fire last night, together with all contents, which included two horses and a cow. The loss will be about $1,000 and the insurance is only $150. It was only by great exertions of the villagers that the hotel and other buildings were saved. Incendiarism is suspected.

Another Lordly Bankrupt.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Cecil, the son of Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, and secretary to Lord Randolph Churchill, is bankrupt. His liabilities are nearly £17,000 and threre are no assets

Mitchell Coming to Canada.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., Feb. 23.—Charles Mitchell, the English pugilist, left here this morning for New York. To-night Mitchell will meet "Squire" Abingdon, and the two will leave for Canada, stopping off at Buffalo. Mitchell and the "Squire will await Brady's party in Canada so as to sign articles for the proposed fight between Mitchell and Corbett. Mitchell took with him a certified check for $10,000, which he will hand over to Stakeholder Blanchard when the articles have been signed.

MARRIED.
