WHEAT SOLD AT 95 CENTS

First That Has Been Offered on the Local Market in Some Weeks.

BUTTER FIRMER TODAY

No Strawberries Offered For Sale—Eggs Stationary in Price—Other Quotations Today.

This morning's supply of hay was not as large as yesterday, but quotations were practically the same. About a dozen loads were sold at prices ranging from $13 to $14 50 a ton.

The only delivery of grain was a load of wheat. This is the first wheat which has been in in several weeks. It sold at 95c per bu.

No strawberries were offered for sale this morning. The crop is practically over. A small supply is expected tomorrow.

Butter Firmer.

Butter is inclined to be a little firmer this week, particularly rolls, which are rather scarce. Rolls are quoted at 19c and 20c per lb.

Eggs are stationary, at 18c per dozen wholesale, with little prospect of a change.

By private wire to H. C. Becher, London, from Harris, Winthrop & Co.

NEW YORK, July 6—Wall street, 10 a.m.—Americans in London are heavy and spiritless, ¼ to ½ off. It is not expected that any postal savings banks will be opened in the present year. Secretary Knox is mentioned for chief justice. Spring wheat is still in need of moisture. Ten per cent increase in valuation of New York property. Beet sugar interests are again moving against American Sugar for control of trade.

BAD TORONTO FIRE.

Toronto, July 6.—Fire which broke out in the third story of the premises of White & Co., wholesale fruit merchants, 60 and 62 Front street east, this morning, caused a loss estimated at $10,000. Most of the damage was done by water, a tremendous quantity of which was poured from seven hose into the third story, and dripped through into the lower floors, which were filled with crated fruit. The loss is covered by insurance. How the fire started is not known.

BRIDGE COLLAPSED.

Lasalle, Ill., July 5. — One person is known to have been killed and thirty seriously injured, two of them probably fatally, when a bridge collapsed during a Fourth of July celebration at Utica, Ill., yesterday. There were 200 persons on the bridge at the time, and practically all of them were thrown into the waters. The person killed was Roza Farmer, aged 16, of Utica.

The crowd had gathered on the bridge, which spans the Illinois and Michigan Canal to see a tub race.

FACTORY ACCIDENTS.

Toronto, July 6.—That manufacturing conditions are better than at any previous time in the history of the province is the evidence of the annual report of the inspectors of factories for Ontario, which was issued yesterday.

During the year there were 665 accidents, of which 44 were fatal. There were two steam boiler explosions, and one gas and gasoline explosion reported.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, of Seaforth, and Mrs. Wm. Routledge and son, of Winnipeg, are visiting Mrs. Adam Palmer, of Hamilton road east.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Interesting Function at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, "The Grove."

A unique baptismal service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, The Grove, on Thursday evening, when their son, Lyle William, and Mrs. Baker's sister children, Wilma Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kernohan, and Lloyd William John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armon Smith, all of The Grove, were baptized by their pastor, Rev. E. A. Shaw, of Siloam. The babies were beautifully attired for the occasion and were exceptionally well-behaved during the ceremony. Mrs. Barker, Mrs. W. Kernohan and Mrs. Armon Smith, are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, of The Grove. Those present, in addition to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, were Miss Ida Ellis, Mrs. (Rev.) Shaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, jun., and family, Miss Frayne (Exeter), Mrs. Madge (California), Mr. Penhale (Exeter), the three sons-in-law, Mr. Armon Smith and family, Mr. W. Kernohan, and Mr. George Barker, Mr. Victor Tackaberry, and Mrs. Rachel Ellis, nurse from Fanshawe. After the baptismal service, a most delicious and appetizing supper was served by the host and hostess.

The Grove choir and Ladies' Aid are busily preparing for their garden party to be held in the church grounds on Wednesday, July 20.

Mr. Langford, of London, will preach at The Grove next Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, who is away holidaying at Tillsonburg and elsewhere.

Mr. T. Robinson has been visiting his brother, Rev. George Robinson, at Toronto. Mr. Wm. Robinson, of Liverpool, England, is visiting at the old homestead.

Rev. E. A. Shaw and wife received a handsome and useful gift from Mrs. John Smith, The Grove, a beautiful Orpington hen and 13 chickens, the other day.

BRUCEFIELD.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Brucefield, July 6.—The Brucefield Rovers were defeated by the Niagara Falls Intermediates in the latter city on July 1, by a score of 3—2. The game was fast and clean. Both teams were very evenly matched. The return game, to decide which team shall land the cup, will be played on the park grounds here on Monday evening, July 11. A hard fought game will doubtless be the result.

The many friends of Miss Sadie Bowey will be pleased to learn that she is once more able to be around.

Rev. E. H. Sawers and wife are spending a few holidays with their son, Dr. C. A. Sawers, of Napier.

GREAT G. T. P. DOCK FOR PRINCE RUPERT

Company Files Plan at Capital for Monster Floating Dock.

Ottawa, July 6.—The Grand Trunk Pacific has filed plans and made application for a drydock subsidy. The company proposes to put in an immense floating dock at Prince Rupert. It will cost a million and a half, and have a lifting capacity of 20,000 tons. It will be a commercial dock of the second-class, and be entitled to a subsidy of 3 1-2 per cent for 25 years.

The marine department has made arrangements to immediately establish a marine depot at Prince Rupert, at an initial expenditure of a hundred thousand dollars, for ship repairs and depot for light and buoy service.

The remains of Frank Gouldthrite reached Ottawa this morning from Detroit. They were taken at once to his home in Rockcliffe Park, and there brief services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Moore, a Presbyterian clergyman. The remains were interred in Fern Hill Cemetery.

LATE LOCAL ITEMS

—Judge Elliott returned from Smith's Falls Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Elliott, who has been paying an extended visit among friends and relatives in the neighborhood.

Grand Trunk Railway System.

Dr. Childs Appointed.

Dr. J. R. N. Childs, of London, has been appointed as an assistant of Dr. English, superintendent of the Hamilton Asylum for the Insane.

Gold Watch Found.

A gentleman's gold watch was found on the street this morning and handed into the police station. The person who lost it may get it at the station by proving his property.

A Former Londoner.

It was stated here today that William B. Malloy, the man who was so badly injured in Windsor by being thrown downstairs from the second floor of a hotel, formerly kept a barber shop on Richmond street north.

Tierney Acquitted.

Michael Tierney was acquitted this afternoon on the two charges of indecent assault preferred against him by John Smith. Judge Elliott held that the evidence was insufficient to convict and discharged Tierney.

Summer Toggery.

Ald. Tancock and Fire Chief Aitken have completed the purchase of straw hats for the firemen, and the brigade are resplendent in new headgear. Their summer shirts have also been handed out to them, and the boys present a natty appearance.

Kicked by a Horse.

While handling a colt as his stables on Fullarton street last evening Mr. J. McCartney, the well-known horseman, was kicked in the thigh. A caulk made a nasty cut in the flesh, and his leg was badly bruised. He was taken to his residence and Dr. W. J. Stevenson dressed his injuries. He will be laid up a couple of weeks.

A Farewell.

The many friends of Mrs. Hattie Writt and son, also Mr. Louis Fanner, gathered at the Traction depot last evening to bid them farewell, prior to their leaving for Vancouver, B. C., where they go to join their uncle, Mr. Charles Fanner, formerly Wabash Railway engineer, of St. Thomas. They will be joined by Miss Lill Ross, of St. Thomas, and the party will leave via C. P. R. at 5 p.m. today.

A Rodney Case.

Inspector Sanders, of the Children's Aid Society, returned this morning from Rodney, where he has been investigating a case that was reported to him where five children are living with a drunken father, who, it is said, abuses them, and does not take care of them as he should. Mr. Sanders found conditions such that he warned the man that if he does not stop drinking and do his duty towards his family they will be taken away from him. The man, it is said, went to Rodney from Delhi some time ago.

Returned Missionary Speaks.

Dr. Leslie, a returned medical missionary from the Congo, and a former London boy, addressed the Epworth League of the Dundas Centre Methodist Church on Monday evening. Dr. Leslie has been in Africa for the past 17 years, and is at present home on a furlough. He has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Leslie, 81 Wilson avenue. He has returned to Philadelphia with his wife and family, where he will spend the rest of his furlough before returning to Congo.

Peculiar Accident.

The 9 o'clock train on the Pere Marquette met with a peculiar accident on Monday night at White station, which brought the train to a sudden stop and frightened the passengers. In some manner a loose plank on one of the crossings was struck by the brake beam. The plank caught the air pipe, breaking it, and interrupting the air connections, which had the effect of stopping the train. The damage was soon rectified and the train proceeded.

A Drowning Victim.

The funeral of Alfred Clarke, the young Barnardo boy who was drowned in the north branch last Sunday, was held yesterday from Logan & Ball
