WEDNESDAY, JULY 2nd, 1890.

Religious Anniversaries.

The month of June is, par excellence, the month of religious anniversaries in Canada, and the past month has witnessed the meeting of the Western Baptist Association at Westport in Digby county; of the Methodist Conference which was held at Yarmouth, and of the Synod of the Church of England, in Halifax. These meetings possess much interest to those who would advance the welfare of the denominations they represent, and generally attract a large attendance of the laity included in them. Nor were the occasions referred to an exception to the rule. In their semi-parliamentary proceedings, their financial and missionary matters receive full discussion. We are glad to know that our Baptist brethren have received such noble aid to the capital being provided for the Ministers Annuity Fund. Among the names of contributors to this fund we find the name of Archibald FitzRandolph, a native of Digby, but domiciled in Fredericton, who gave $1000; a friend—name not given, subscribed another $100C; J. R. Calhoun gave $250; A. D. Yerxa, $50; E. C. Whitman, $25; Peter Paint, $20; Robt. Frizzell, $100; Asa Cohoon, $100, and William Frizzell, $20. At this rate our brethren of that church will soon be able to make provision for their worthy and worn-out ministers.

The Presbyterian General Assembly met two weeks ago at Ottawa. From a report before us we observe that the total membership of that body in Canada reaches very nearly to 158,000, shewing an increase for the past year of nearly 6,000. Of the total number the Maritime Provinces furnish 34,634, which is an increase of 1,368 for the year. Financially the year 1889 has been a very successful one for the Presbyterians of Canada. The payment for all purposes exceeded $2,000,000, of which nearly $111,000 were disbursed for benevolent purposes. Surely the country cannot be poor that makes it possible for a single body of Christians to levy upon its adherents for benevolent and religious purposes a sum equal to two millions of dollars a year.

King's College celebrated her one hundredth anniversary last week. In 1778 an academy was established, and in 1789 a college, which makes her the oldest English speaking institution of learning in the British colonies. Many visitors from the United States and Canada were present assisting in the celebration.

The Late Rain—Its Effects.

The welcome showers of last week were much wanted, though no great damage was done by the previous cold and dry weeks. It was feared by many that a continuous prevalence of weather without occasional showers would injure the hay crop in this valley to a great extent, and that the grain crops might be injuriously affected, both of which evils have been averted by the late timely showers. In fact it has been asserted that the former crop will be augmented by twenty per cent by the late change in the weather, and the other crops have received through it an impetus which may carry them to an abundant harvest, a result that will have been aided by the almost unusual coolness of the season.

Answers to careful enquiries assure us that the root and vegetable crops bid fair to do well. Potatoes have come up with less than an average of blanks, and have a healthy and vigorous appearance. The small fruit crop always suffers from lack of moisture, and the late rainfall has had a marked effect upon it. As a rule reports assure us that most varieties of apples have set well, and that an average crop, at least, may be looked forward to with considerable certainty.

Historical Notes on Forgotten People.

In the little group gathered on the banks of the river at Annapolis in October, 1755, to witness the sailing from that port of the last of the vessels employed in the deportation of the unfortunate French habitans, we observed a couple bearing the name of Davies or Davis, namely, John William Davis and his wife, who had then been only two years married. We may add now that Mrs. Davies on the occasion named bore a babe about a year old in her arms—a boy—who afterwards became the father of George Davies, who married Mary Spurr, a daughter of the late Abraham Spurr. Their son, the late Rev. Thomas Harris Davies, Wesleyan minister, died in this town some two decades ago, and his son and daughters remain with us to this day.

We believe, though we have no exact proof of the statement, that a sister of the infant who was present to witness the final departure of the expatriation of the French inhabitants of the valley, was the wife of Thomas Harris, known as adjutant in the Annapolis militia in 1776, and it is an ascertained fact that a son of this infant, William by name, married Charlotte, daughter of John Harris, a brother of Thomas, the adjutant. This man lived in Clements, about three miles below Annapolis, and his farm is still known by the name of the Davies property, and adjoins the old John Harris farm. The Davises may therefore be justly ranked among the oldest of Annapolis families, and be catalogued with the Eassons, Winnietts, Lecains, Berteaux, Rumseys and Saunderses, and reckoned with them as being of the immediate successors to the ancient French settlers as occupiers of the town and vicinity.

This family have always born the reputation of honest, loyal and frugal citizens, and they have deserved the reputation. Among the descendants of John William Davis (who, by the by, it is believed came to Nova Scotia in the employ of the Ordnance department) might be cited more than one who have held a high place in the esteem of their fellows in the place where they lived, but none of them were more highly respected and loved by those with whom his duties brought him into personal relation than the late Rev. Thomas H. Davis recently so well known in our section of the county. This gentleman was distinguished for his modest and unassuming demeanor, and fine intellectual powers. His occasional poems, which found their way to the public through the medium of the newspapers of the day, proved that he possessed much poetic fervor and taste, and that they were transcripts from a pure and generous mind. As a preacher, he was not brilliant, but magnetic and affectionate, and his words were as potent, perhaps, as if they had been uttered by greater eloquence.

Dominion Day at Middleton.

The thunder squall of Monday evening gave presage of a fine morning for Dominion Day, which was literally fulfilled. The air was cool and bracing, and the sun shone with a brightness that brought cheer to all hearts. Flags were flung to the breeze from nearly every housetop in the town at an early hour, and before eight o'clock quite a number of people were observable in the streets, and the arrival of the usual W. & A. Railway morning freight train threw upon them two or three hundred additional visitors. Every flat car, box car and baggage car was thronged with people from Bridgetown, Paradise and Lawrencetown. Carriages, single and double, covered and uncovered, had arrived with their well-dressed and smiling occupants before ten o'clock. The booths were soon thronged with customers seeking draughts of ginger ale—the Royal Belfast, made of the well-known Wilmot Spa water, beers in hops, spruce and ginger, nuts, figs, oranges, and strawberries were in special request by the hundreds of youths and maidens of the surrounding country.

At 10.30 a procession of horribles paraded the streets headed by the Bridgewater Brass Band followed by a crowd of juveniles who were much amused by the unusual spectacle. Soon after a match game of cricket was commenced between the boys of Bridgetown and Carlton's Corner which finally resulted in a victory for the lads of the former place after a well contested game. The arrival of the regular N. S. C. R. at noon brought an additional number of visitors, under the mangement of Superintendent Frazer, and the Lunenburg Band, which could not be forwarded by the special (which arrived about ten), owing to the press of passengers, came now.

At noon it may be safely said there was not less than 3000 people in the town outsides its own population, during the afternoon the cry was "still they come." The train from Halifax brought a considerable contingent, and many people continued to arrive by private conveyance, so that it may be said at least 3500 persons were present. At 2.50 a special train of the N. S. C. R. took some 300 on a pleasure excursion to Alpena Station, causing no visible decrease in the number present.

At the same hour a game of baseball was played between the Middleton Club and one from Bridgewater, in which the latter was victorious. The greased pig and other miner events took place later on and added their quota to the measure of enjoyment of the hour.

Hundreds of dollars were left in the town in exchange for trifles consisting of fruits, fancy temperance drinks, confectionery, soda water &c., and the hotels found it difficult to fill the demands from the empty stomachs of their patrons. Besides some hundreds were fed from tables set in the unfinished station house, the proceeds from which, we were told, were to be devoted to repairs of the sidewalks of the town. Every thing was so arranged by the committee of management as to cause a minimum of friction, a fact which reflects much credit on all concerned.

The quoit match played between Ruggles and Fay of Bridgetown, and Palfrey and Morse, of Lawrencetown, resulted in a victory for the former. The 100 yard race was well contested. It was between L. A. Dodge, F. W. Dodge, of Middleton, and George Hoyt of Bridgewater, the latter proving the victor. The 300 yard race run by professionals—Madder and March—was keenly contested, the latter proving to be the winner. The 500 yard contest resulted in giving a first place to Pyke of Kentville, and a second to Craig, of Middleton.

Soon after the close of these events a rush was made to the skeleton of the fine new station house in which the concert was to be held, and in a few minutes tickets were sold for every seat in the great room, and hundreds were turned away for want of room. The proceeds from this very successful event is to be devoted to the construction of Middleton's sidewalks.

The colt race, which took place a little before, attracted the attention of many of the lovers of horses who were present to witness results. Reagh's Pilot proved to be the winner. This animal deserves all the praise awarded him by the critics present, and many of them saw in Elliott's colt the possibilities of a fast horse in the near future.

We regret that our sketch of the day's proceedings should be so scanty and imperfect, but we cannot refrain from congratulating our sister town, which possesses so many elements of future growth and prosperity, upon the complete success of this, her initial celebration. A spirit of patriotism seemed to animate the hearts of her citizens as one man, and they fully deserved the success they so nobly won yesterday. The day is to be remembered as that on which Lunenburg county became socially affiliated to this county. This happy result could not have been possible without the N. S. C. R. whose manager and superintendent have already made themselves deservedly popular by the urbane and generous treatment of the public whom they serve.

A LIVING ISSUE.—The New York Christian Advocate says: "With all the stimulus afforded by the demoralizing element of revenue, the best license law is inadequate. * * A method of punishing incorrigible prisoners is used in some penitentiaries which illustrates our situation. The offender is placed in a tank into which a stream of water is turned, and is set to work to pump the water out. If the poor wretch ceases to work he will drown in a few moments. It is a life and death struggle with American cities to keep down the rum traffic by means of such laws as are now relied on. In some of these cities the destroyer is rapidly gaining. Is this the best we can do?"

—New York has a law making it a misdemeanor for a person to attempt suicide. It went into effect in 1881. Before its enactment the average number of suicides annually in New York city was 160. Now it is 215. It does not appear that the number of attempts at suicide have increased materially, but that the percentage of success has been greater. The only way to escape punishment for the "attempt" is to carry it to a successful conclusion.

Local and Other Matter.

—A cow belonging to Mr. John Ruggles, Williamston, met its death on the 24th ult., from being hooked by an ox.

—The Medical Association of Nova Scotia commence their 22nd annual meeting to-day at Granville Ferry.

—Frank Andrews, ex-M. P. P., commenced his labors as Postmaster at Middletown yesterday.

—J. W. Beckwith pays the highest price for Good Washed Wool, and wants any quantity of it. tf

—Hiram Morgan, a laborer in Clark Bros.' mills at Bear River, lost the fingers off one hand last Tuesday, by coming in contact with the machinery.

—The report that Amherst had a small flurry of snow on Saturday the 21st ult., is flatly contradicted by the Amherst Press, which says there was lots of dust.

A VALUABLE DUCK.—Mr. Alfred Marshall, of Clarence, is the owner of a Pekin duck, which though only eleven months old, laid her one hundredth egg on Friday last.

CHERRY CARNIVAL.—Bear River advertises a Grand Cherry Carnival on the 15th inst. Two hundred dollars will be spent in prizes, sports of all kinds and abundance of cherries are also on the programme.

A WHITE ROBIN.—In a tree near the residence of Mrs. Harris Oakes, New Albany, a robin built her nest and reared a family of four, among the number being one fully white. The young bird still remains in the vicinity of its birthplace, and is watched with much interest by the neighbors.

—A week from to-day, July 9th, the ladies of St. Mary's Church, Belleisle, intend holding a Tea Soiree on the grounds of Mr. Charles Wade. The object for which the Tea is held, is to procure funds towards the cost of the new bell recently placed in the Church. A good time is looked forward to, and we feel sure a large patronage will be in attendance.

HERE IS A BARGAIN.—We have for sale a splendid new mowing-machine and new horse-rake, which we wish to turn into cash, and for that purpose will give any person desiring to purchase a good bargain. These implements are equal to any ever made, and contain the latest and best improvements. For particulars apply at this office. Remember we are offering some one a great bargain.

—The old church on North Square, Boston, so well-known as the place where old Father Taylor used to preach, and called in his time the Bethel, and which has so often resounded with the eloquent tones of the old man, who will be remembered by many of our people who have listened to him in times gone by, has been sold to the Italian Roman Catholics. It is now surmounted by a cross, and was consecrated about four weeks ago.

BURGLARY AT GRANVILLE FERRY.—Mail driver Rhodes informs us that the store of Mr. Walter Willett, at the Ferry, was burglariously entered on Thursday night last, and a large quantity of goods taken away. The thieves effected an entrance by smashing in a pane of glass in the door and drawing the bolt. Mr. Willett is unable to tell exactly to what extent the store was robbed, though he thinks upwards of $200 worth of dry goods and clothing was carried away.

—Lovers of Rod, Gun and Canoe should not fail to secure copies of the book "Fishing and Shooting," issued by the General Passenger Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway, for the season of 1890. It contains reliable information concerning the best localities for game and fish in the provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, Assiniboia, Alberta and British Columbia, and the states of Maine, Michigan and Wisconsin. Copies furnished free upon application to D. McNicoll, General Passenger Agent, Montreal.

ONE OF OUR HORSES.—The following notice is from the Chicago Horseman of June 19th: "Edwin Ruggles, a lawyer of Bridgetown, N. S., bred, raised, and broke to harness, a horse that is likely to make a fast mark, viz., a black gelding, five years old, fifteen and one-half hands, by Gilbert (son of Constellation, sire of Glenarm, 2.23¼), dam by Lord Nelson, second dam Tallahassee. Mr. Ruggles recently placed this gelding in the stable of trainer Charles W. Bell, St. John, N. B., who is speeding him a strong 2.40 gait on the notoriously slow Moosepath track on the Marsh road near that city."

FARMERS' ATTENTION! PUBLIC MEETING.—Prof. James W. Robinson, Dairy Commissioner of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, will address a public meeting in the Court House, Bridgetown, on Tuesday afternoon, July 8th, at three o'clock, and at Gullivan's Hall, Middleton, at the same date, at 7.30 o'clock. The subjects on which the Professor will speak will be "Dairy Farming for the Dominion of Canada," "Co-operative Dairying," "Fodder Corn and the Silo," and "Agricultural Education." A large attendance of farmers, dairymen, and others interested in these subjects is requested.

LAWRENCETOWN JOTTINGS.—On the return of G. I. Bishop and his bride from the wedding tour, the happy couple was serenaded by the Lawrencetown Brass Band, which received a handsome donation to its fund.

J. W. James, Esq., has recently erected a neat substantial fence on his property opposite the station house. The fence is a great improvement to the appearance of the property and the street.

The Baptists have bought the "Elm House" Hotel, formerly owned by A. P. Phinney, to be used as a parsonage. Mr. Phinney is at present occupying a part of Mr. Wm. Warwick's house.—Spectator.

HYMENEAL.—One of the greatest social events that Port George has seen for many years, took place on the evening of the 17th June, at the residence of Jas. P. Porter. About forty invited guests from the principal families of the place assembled to witness the marriage of his eldest daughter, Ella M., to Joseph D. Whitman, of Lynn, the Rev. Mr. Sponagle, of Middleton, officiating. After the solemn and impressive ceremony which pronounced them husband and wife, the congratulations and well-wishes of the assembled guests were showered on the newly-wedded pair, after which a most complete and elegant wedding feast was announced. The wedding presents were numerous and costly. The happy couple left here on Monday, the 23rd, to spend a few days at the home of the groom's father, Dimock Whitman, of Round Hill, where a grand reception was prepared for them, after which they proceeded to Lynn, their future home. Miss Porter has since childhood been the organist of the Methodist church at this place, and always took a very active part in all the musical entertainments for which Port George is so famous, and her pleasing countenance and artistic music will be greatly missed by the congregation of the little church on the hill.—COM.

—The schr. Temple Bar arrived from St. John on Friday last.

—A gentleman in Montreal figures up the cost of the recent government victory in Quebec province at $210,000 in hard cash.

—It is said by good judges that yesterday's gathering at Middleton was considerably greater than that given in our report of it.

—The ordinance of baptism will be administered at Currell's pond next Sabbath morning at 9.30 o'clock by the Rev. F. M. Young.

—What would the price of Eggs be today if it were not for J. W. Beckwith. He has been paying 15 cents per dozen for some days. 1i

—In another column will be found an article showing the advantages to be derived from the New York S.S. Line, which is shortly to make trips to Digby and Annapolis.

—A gentleman, who had the fact from an official of the company, informs us that the N. S. C. R. yesterday issued 1200 tickets to persons visiting Middleton's celebration of Dominion Day.

—The four mile straightaway eight-oared race between Yale and Harvard university crews was rowed at New London, Conn., last Friday evening, Yale winning by three and a half lengths, in 21 minutes 29 seconds.

—A Canadian has taken out a patent for making coffins out of pulp. A man can save his favorite books, magazines and newspapers until he has sufficient, send them to the mill, turn them into a coffin, and thus sleep his last sleep surrounded by the literature he loved best in life.

LAUNCHING.—A fine new brigantine of about two hundred tons is to be launched from the shipyard of Captain Samuel Groves, Parker's Cove, on Saturday next, 5th inst. The ladies of that place have taken advantage of the occasion, and will hold a tea-meeting and strawberry festival on the same day.

STANDARD BRED.—Mr. D. A. Downie, of East Margaretville, is the owner of a very nice filly; color, bay, with white hind feet and blaze, standard bred under rule seven. Sired by Flying Dutchman (5693) dam by Hartford (10350). If blood will tell, in this young animal we ought to find a charm for the racing course.

—The artistic brush of Mr. Hoyt Foster has greatly improved the appearance of Mr. L. Shafner's dwelling-house on the corner of Queen and Albert streets. Now that Mr. S. has the ice broken, we would suggest that he extend the good work a little further northward.

—If you want to spend a pleasant day on the shores of the Bay of Fundy, select next Saturday, and drive to Hampton. On that date, July 5th, a Strawberry Festival and Fancy Sale is to be held by the ladies of the Hampton Sewing Circle, and the good folk over at that charming spot are noted for the attention they manifest on such occasions.

—Prof. Edmonds, the great Australian wizard, commences a limited engagement at the Court House, Wednesday evening next, July 9th. This company is very highly spoken of by the press of the surrounding country. The Charlottetown Patriot says: "Prof. Edmonds is the greatest magician that ever visited the place, and draws crowded houses at each performance."

TUBERCULOSIS.—The New Hampshire authorities recently sent for Dr. Bailey, Maine's State veterinary surgeon, to come to Rochester to inspect the milk herd of Dudley B. Waldron. Dr. Bailey found seven cows affected with tuberculosis and ordered them destroyed. The whole herd numbered thirteen animals, and have been furnishing milk to Rochester for a long time.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR.—Miss Helen Reed, a native of St. John, N. B., a daughter of Guilford S. Reed, M. D., of Massachusetts, and a member of the Browning Club and other literary societies, has recently been the recipient of collegiate honors at the hands of old Harvard, the sergeant prize of $100 having been awarded for the best translation of the 29th ode of the third book of Horace, a prize which she gained in competition against men as well as those of her own sex. We notice this event because it always gives us pleasure to make a note of the success of all natives of this fair Canada of ours.

—Last week witnessed a serious tragedy in Hants County. The last Windsor Tribune gives us the following particulars:

"About three o'clock this morning Mr. William Seivright was passing down the railroad track near the Wiggin's property, and discovered evidences that an accident had happened. A closer examination showed that one of the circus trains, which had passed along through the night, had overtaken a traveller on the road, and had mutilated him in a shocking manner. Part of the scalp, with hair attached, the liver, kidneys, heart and other organs, one leg and other members of the body were strewn along the track for a distance of a quarter of a mile.

Inquiries revealed the fact that the unfortunate man's name was Edward O'Brien, a farmer who lives at Three Mile Plains, and who has a family to mourn his untimely death.

Methodist Conference.

The Nova Scotia Methodist Conference, which has been in session at Yarmouth lately, closed on Wednesday evening last. The following is the station sheet for Annapolis district for the next year:

Annapolis—R. McArthur.
Granville Ferry—Wm. Phillips.
Bridgetown—F. H. Wright, M. A., B. D.; Supernumeraries, Joseph Bent, J. R. Hart, R. O. Johnson.
Mt. Mission—To be supplied under the superintendence of F. H. Wright, M. A., B. D.
Middleton—T. C. Hooper; Supernumerary, J. L. Sponagle.
Aylesford—J. Gee, J. Phalen; Supernumeraries, A. S. Tuttle, W. Alcorn and Thos. Rogers, M. A.
Canning—A. Daniel.
Hillsburg—W. C. Brown.
Digby—J. M. Fisher.
Weymouth—J. E. Donkin.
Digby Neck—J. A. Simpson.

Many important questions have been considered in view of the approaching general conference at Montreal in September. On Saturday the following were elected delegates to the general conference: Ministers—Revs. W. H. Heartz, S. B. Dunn, D. W. Johnson, W. Ryan, Dr. Lathern, Jabez Rogers, E. E. England, E. B. Moore, James Strothard, S. F. Huestis, T. Watson Smith.

Laymen—Frank Woodbury, Wm. McIntosh, Fred B. Woodhill, Samuel A. Chesley, Henry F. Jefferson, Martin B. Huestis, Wm. Crowe, Hugh M. Irvine, Joshua H. Livingstone, Wm. V. Vroom, Joshua W. Freeman.

On Tuesday last, a bear made his appearance at Pleasant River, Lunenburg County and made sad havoc among the stock of that place. Bruin managed to kill two yearling steers belonging to Mr. Hiram Garber, and after tearing the entrails out of one and the muffler off the other, his bearship coolly stalked off in the woods without being molested.—Progress.

Acadia College will soon have gymnasium. Towards its erection and equipment the graduating class have, it is said, raised $200; the juniors, $90; the sophomores, $100; and the freshmen and academy the same amounts. The governers had decided to give $500 for the purpose.

Personals.

Major Shreve and Postmaster Burton, of Digby, paid our town a visit last Thursday and remained here till Friday afternoon. During the evening they called on a number of personal acquaintances, and expressed themselves much pleased with the hospitality shown them.

John G. Morrison, Esq., of Springfield came through on the N. S. Central on Monday, and remained over till the excursion train on that road left for the South on Tuesday evening, taking in the celebration at Middleton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick, of South Molunkus, Me., arrived at Bridgetown on Wednesday last, and will make quite a prolonged stay in this and Digby County, visiting among their large connection.

—A twenty-five mile cable will be laid between Anticosti and the North Shore of the St. Lawrence by the Dominion government, securing direct communication. Fishermen along the North Shore will get information respecting the supply of bait at low rates. Other cables to and from the adjacent islands near British Columbia, Cape Breton and New Brunswick, in the Bay of Fundy, are also to be constructed.

PRIVATE SALE
—OF A—
Very Valuable PROPERTY.

THE heirs of the late DAVID FOSTER offer at private sale that most beautifully situated and valuable property belonging to the same. This property, which is located in the centre of Bridgetown, consists of four acres of fine tillage land, on which a young and thriving orchard, containing apple, pear, plum, and cherry trees, together with a double dwelling house, barn and other outbuildings, all of which are in a good state of preservation, and so located as to afford every convenience to the purchaser.
For the construction of a large Summer Hotel no more beautiful situation could be found, as the property is delightfully shaded by ornamental trees, and is in all other respects one of the prettiest places in the village. For full information enquire of WILLIAM O. FOSTER, or P. W. WALKER, } Granville.

NEW-ENGLAND NURSERIES.

Stock Unsurpassed. Low Prices.

Mr. I. A Johnson, now representing the New England Nurseries, is again in the province, and will solicit orders in Annapolis and Kings counties during the coming season. Mr. Johnson has sold thousands of trees, of all varieties, throughout this Valley, and is better known than any other man now in the business, and in all cases has placed in the hands of patrons the most beautiful and satisfactory clan of goods ever brought here. The stock of these Cleobrated Nurseries are second to none, and orders are always delivered in person free of charge, and always true to representation. Three years of square and honest dealing accounts in a large measure for the liberal patronage this gentleman has had bestowed on him during that period. 11 4i
