Mr. D. Wiltse was taken ill on May 23rd at his home in Vossen, Sask., and went to Brandon and thence to Winnipeg for medical treatment.

—Car-load Manitoba Oats just received; fresh lot Bran and Shorts expected this week; lots of Shingles at right prices—Athens Lumber Yard & Grain Warehouse.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church has secured the rooms in rear of the post office and will serve lunches during the 12th of July celebration here.

The many Athenian friends of Rev. E. W. Crane are pleased to learn that he has returned to Brockville District, and wish him a full measure of success in his pastoral work at Elgin.

The Semi-Annual Meeting of the Orange Association of the county of North Leeds will meet at Portland on Saturday, June 24, and Mr. A. W. Johnston, County Master, requests that all District and Masters of Primary Lodges be in attendance, and also as many of the Brethren as can conveniently attend, for the purpose of receiving the annual reports and making the final arrangements for the county celebration, which will be at Athens this year.

The counties council will meet on Tuesday, June 20.

The open season for bass fishing begins on Friday next.

Mr. P. S. Trickey has returned home after a visit of two weeks with friends at Lyn.

Mr. Render of Iroquois is now attending to the mechanical part of Mr. Eyre's baking business, and during leisure hours is taking orders for a superior grade of stove coal for fall delivery. He is also placing on the market a full line of high-class flavoring extracts of extra strength and unquestionable purity.

Mr. Alex Compo was last week wielding his artistic brush in decorating the exterior of Mrs. Hause' fine residence on Wiltse street. And just while we think of it—it is a matter for regret that this street, on which are so many pleasant hemes, should be so entirely neglected by the village road-makers. The mud and water holes make anything but an attractive border to the well kept lawns.

There seems to be a lack of concerted action on the part of the municipalities desirous of abolishing the toll gates of the county. Some preparatory, unifying steps should be taken in order that if possible a scheme likely to meet the views of the county councillors may be devised. Failing this, we would respectfully suggest that a meeting of the delegates be held as early as possible on the opening day of the council, Tuesday, June 20.
