KNOTTY QUESTION WAS UNSETTLED

Presbytery Refuses to Sanction Separate Church at Lawrence Station.

The Presbytery of London was in session until after 6 o'clock last evening discussing a petition from the Presbyterians of Lawrence Station, asking for permission to establish a separate congregation at that place. At present Lawrence Station is under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Lawrence, who also has the work at Cowal and McBride, and it is provided with only one service a month. There are 37 families at Lawrence Station, and the names of 107 persons were attached to the petition.

A motion to refuse the prayer of the petition, but that services be held every two weeks at Lawrence in the summer, and once a month in the winter, was made by Dr. McCrae, and defeated. Later the question was referred to a special committee, which met representatives from Lawrence Station and a compromise was proposed, whereby the organization of a separate church was to be abandoned, but services were to be held on two Sunday evenings every month between May 1 and Oct. 1, with one service a month during the balance of the year, and that the surplus moneys taken at the offerings at Lawrence Station be given over to the McBride church. The Lawrence Station people were unanimously in favor of this scheme, and accepted it, but it was not adopted by the presbytery, which will deal with it at another meeting.

The resignation of Rev. Mr. Steven, of Dutton, was accepted, and the following resolution passed: "That the presbytery accept Mr. Steven's resignation, the same to take effect on the 31st day of May, and that the pulpit be declared vacant on Sabbath, the 4th of June, by the moderator of the presbytery, and that Mr. Kelso be appointed as interim moderator. In regard to the memorial presented in this connection the presbytery accepts with gratification the expression of loyalty and attachment to their pastor, and accords with them in the prayer and hope that all those who have in them the Spirit of Christ will link arm in arm and work for common weal and hasten the coming of our Master's kingdom. The presbytery commend Mr. Steven to guidance of the great head of the church, and prays that his way may be opened up, and that he may be speedily settled in a congenial field of labor."

Rev. T. R. Shearer was appointed moderator of Appin, and Rev. Dr. Ross was named to represent the presbytery at the jubilee of St. Andrew's Church, Thamesford.

Rev. Messrs. Mackay and Woods were added to the home mission committee to look into the matter of a new church for the south end of the city.

Dr. McDonald, of Mosa, was given three months' leave of absence to visit the old coutry.
