TURKISH BLACK SALVE.

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF THE HONORABLE THE EAST INDIA COMPANY.

THIS SALVE, prepared from the original Receipt, procured from a celebrated Turkish Hakim, (physician) of Smyrna, in Asia Minor, and which has obtained an unprecedented celebrity in Great Britain and the East Indies, from the astonishing Cures performed by it in both these countries, has lately been introduced into Montreal. As might be expected, its popularity has followed it, and its use is becoming general among all classes. The contracted limits of an advertisement necessarily precludes entering into any adequate detail of its merits, but, for the information of the public, it is intended to publish, from time to time, such statements of cures as have or may occur. It has been used for the following complaints with the most complete success:—Such as Swollen Glands, Broken Breasts, White Swellings, Whitlows, Scalds from Steamboat explosions, or other causes, Burns, Fever Sores, Scrofulous Sores, Sore Nipples, Carbuncles, Scald Head, Gun-shot Wounds, Bruises, Boils, Frostbites, Wens, Chilblains, Ulcerated and Common Sore Throats, and Bonions. If used in time, it will prevent or cure Cancers, also, Swellings arising from a blow on the Breast, Ring Worm, Pains in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, Pains in the Chest, Palpitation of the Heart, Complaints in the Liver, Spine, Heart and Hip, Rushing of Blood to the Head, Swelled Face and Toothache. In fact, it is impossible to enumerate half the complaints that have been cured by the application of this Salve.

ST. LEON AND CAXTON SPRINGS.

MONTREAL, June 3, 1850.

For the past twelve months I have frequently recommended the Waters of the St. Leon and Caxton Springs, and have formed a favorable opinion of their efficiency as aperients in various derangements and diseases. I have found both Waters well adapted, in the generality of cases, for accomplishing all the purposes of the ordinary saline aperient draughts, over which their tonic and alexipharmic ingredients give them, for continued use, a superiority.

I, the undersigned, Mayor of the City of Quebec, certify and attest—that the Physicians of the City of Quebec, who have given testimonials relative to the efficacy of the Plantagenet Waters, are perfectly well known to us as distinguished Physicians among the Members of the Profession—and that a considerable use of these said Waters is made in this City. LUXURIANT HAIR.

BOGLE'S HYPERION FLUID.—One bottle of this truly valuable liquid is worth more than its weight in gold. There is no quackery in its composition; but healthy and efficacious ingredients, calculated to effect all that is professed. Baldness will at once depart, and a luxuriant growth of hair take its place. Grey hair will return to its pristine brilliancy—weak hair become strong and vigorous, and the skin take a proper and healthy action by the use of the inestimable Hyperion. As an article for giving softness to the hair, and a brilliant gloss, it cannot by any compound be equalled. 190

The following is from the New York Evening Mirror, May 28, 1849:—

"WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—Among all the Panaceas advertised for the cure of human ailments, there is none in which we have more confidence than 'Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.' We regard it as one of Nature's own preparations—simple, safe, pleasant to take, and almost certain to cure all bilious and pulmonary affections. We have witnessed its wonderful effects in cases that were regarded as hopelessly desperate, and we can conscientiously recommend it as one of the best medicines in the world."

The following is from a very respectable source:—

BOSTON, November 27, 1848.

Mr. S. W. FOWLE—DEAR SIR.—Although averse to having my name public in the newspapers, I make this unsolicited statement, and you are at liberty to make use of it as you may please. In the Fall of 1847, I took a violent cold, which brought on a severe cough that lasted through the Winter and Spring, and caused me to raise blood and phegm continually, day and night, which greatly reduced me in flesh and strength; I tried several kinds of medicine, with little or no effect; I had become feeble and emaciated, and began to despair of ever getting relief, when, by advice of my friends, I was induced to try Dr. Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam; and after having taken five bottles, I found myself nearly, or quite well, and to this alone I think I owe present existence. I shall be happy to give further information to any one who will call on me.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM WHEELER, Grocer.

TESTIMONIALS.

"It is, undoubtedly, the most complete Dictionary of the English language that has ever been published, and AMONG WITS MARKS before any other Dictionary of that language will be required. It is, in every respect, far superior to the folio edition of Johnson's Dictionary. The Introductory matter—on the origin and progress of language—Etymology—the changes of the English language, and other topics—contains an immense mass of useful information, which must have cost the author a very great degree of labor and research. The pronunciation of Scriptural, Classical, and Geographical names, forms a most valuable appendix to this Dictionary, and cannot be too highly appreciated."—Thomas Dick, (Author of the Christian Philosopher, &c.)

Bridgehy Place, near Dundee, Sept. 13, 1849.

"In regard to pronunciation, we feel perfectly satisfied that this revision places that subject on a truer ground than any other work of the kind. The system of pronouncing conforms to a pure and manly taste, adapted to the character of the language, and is far removed from all affectation and mere fashion. * * It is now, as we fully believe, in this revision, brought down to the true circumstances of the community in all respects. And we hope it will find its way rapidly, not only to the schools and the study, but to the parlor, the counting-room, and to the every day purposes of life."—Hon. Wm. B. Calhoun, Dec., 1847.

"We venture to say that there is no Dictionary in the English language which combines so many advantages, with such economy of price, beauty of execution, compactness and clearness, as this Quarto Edition of Webster."—N. Y. Observer.

"We rejoice that the public award is strongly gratifying our long-cherished conviction that Noah Webster was decidedly the best Lexicographer who has treated of the English language. Emphatically the Dictionary of our language."—N. Y. Tribune.

"There is no Dictionary but this of Webster's that can be adopted as a standard."—Boston Courier.

"In its admirable definitions, its accurate philology, its copiousness, good sense, and completeness, it is that receiving the judgment of the learned world, that it has no equal."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"With materials so abundant, advantages so unusual, and upon a basis so valuable as the result of the labors of Webster, during the thirty years which he devoted to the subject, Professor Goodrich has compiled a perfect and most authoritative Dictionary of the English language as spoken and written in A. D. 1849."—Baltimore Patriot.

"Perhaps no work ever issued from the press more free from faults in every particular."—Daily Ohio State Journal.

"Its cheapness is not the least remarkable thing about it, nearly 1,500 quarto pages for $6."—St. Louis Herald of Religious Liberty.

"Its definitions are models of condensation and purity. The most complete work of the kind that any nation can boast of."—Hon. Wm. B. Calhoun.

"We rejoice that it bids fair to become the standard Dictionary to be used by the numerous millions of people who are to inhabit the United States."—Signed by 104 Members of Congress.
