A KILLING ON PICAROON GOOD THING WON AT 10 TO 1

Three Favorites, Two Second Choices and the Long Shot in Front at Hamilton.

Three favorites, two second choices and Picaroon, a long shot, were the winners Wednesday at Hamilton. The day was fine, the attendance large and the track fast. E. S. Gardner was the winning owner, landing the second and third.

Koenigin Luis and Nimble Dick took turns in showing the way in the first race, but at the finish it was all Gov. Orman. The Harvey horse was second, five lengths away, the Marquis almost beating Luis for the show. They were all backed.

Jerry Sharp led to the stretch in the second, when Foley took Restotation past for a clever win, Judge Nelson a strong second. Jerry Sharp stayed to beat the other split favorite, My Bessie, for third.

The third race was Chas. Eastman all the way. Moonraker was off badly, or he would have beaten La Pucelle for the place. Scarfell was backed to win, but was killed by the fast pace.

Clara Dee showed the way for six furlongs in the mile race, Azelina going out when ready to gallop home. Sheriff Bell almost caught up to the pacemaker. The first and third horses and Exclamation were most backed.

Picaroon was the hottest thing in four weeks and he landed all the money. The Ornament gelding made a regular butcher's killing, most of the money being bet away from the track. Half a dozen others were backed with Kamerun at short price. The favorite took an early lead, with Picaroon waiting behind. Armstrong gave him his head at the eighth pole and he romped home a winner by lengths, Kamerun dropping back among the also rans, La Golden and Oak Leaf driving home in the money.

Ezra won the last race in impressive style. He was away absolutely last and looked a beaten horse, but he ran over the field up the stretch. Sneer, that had led the bunch, stayed for the place and Merimbo came up for the show. Glendon broke thru the barrier and Moreland was scraped off. The horse ran away around the track and intelligently came back after rounding the top turn, but instead of nodding to the judges, kept on the reverse way a couple more miles. Demurrer also ran away two miles, Kelly being unable to hold him. They did not start, but being in the starter's hands, all bets stood.

PHYSICIANS

We have a card index system devised for you by a "fellow sufferer," in which you should be vitally interested. It is the "Hegele" Physicians' Account Record, and is positively the shortest, simplest, easiest kept, most convenient and most accurate of all; because it is an account and case record combined, in which the original entry is the permanent record. It presents the only perfect solution of the physician's greatest problem, for it enables him, in three or four minutes each day, to keep his accounts thoroughly up-to-date, which must result in better collections and less loss through bad debts. Get the descriptive booklet to-day—a postal or phone message brings it.

DUFFERIN MATINEE RESULTS

Excellent Racing at the Park—Little Sandy Won at London.

The Dufferin Driving Club held one of the best matinees yesterday ever given over their track. The racing was very exciting. Four harness races and one run were the program. The free-for-all was a great struggle between James McDowell's William C. and Mr. Vodden's good little mare, Velma. It took five hard heats to decide the winner. William C. in the fourth heat equaled the track record in a race, held by Harry S., 1.06, in the fifth heat. It looked as if he would pace a half in 1.04. Velma and he went lapped to the quarter in 32 seconds, when on the turn he made a break and Velma came home alone in 1.07½. The Dufferin Club is doing everything to attract the public to their matinees. The running horse men will be given a chance to earn some winter's feed for their horses at the matinees, along with the trotters and pacers. The summary:

Little Sandy Won.

London, June 13.—A largely-increased attendance, a splendid card and several hair-raising finishes marked the second day of the London Trotting and Pacing Association meet. Many of the oldest horsemen declared they had never seen better racing, and the fact that a large part of the 4000 spectators present remained until 6 o'clock to see the finishes proves the quality of the sport offered from the public's point of view. Little Sandy's performance in the feature event was a perfect exhibition of steady and consistent pacing, and Othello had the 2.24 trot all his own way, but the slower movers in the 2.40 pace furnished most of the excitement. Weather fair; track fast. Summary:

First race, 2.40 pace, purse $300—

TAILENDERS WERE SHUT OUT MONTREAL WINNING, 7-0

Toronto Couldn't Hit Pappalau and Lost Second Game—Doran Reported Yesterday.

Toronto gave a very punk exhibition of how to play baseball yesterday at Diamond Park. In the field errors were made that nearly always resulted in a score and at the bat they made a noise like the "Rooters' Club." However, every team have their bad days. Rochester and Jersey City were the other winners. Record:

Jersey City	25	14	.641

Games to-day—Toronto at Montreal, Rochester at Buffalo, Providence at Baltimore, Newark at Jersey City.

Montreal 7, Toronto 0.

What Montreal did to Toronto yesterday was a shame. McCarthy started out to pitch for Toronto, but was wild and retired in the third in favor of McCafferty after four runs had been scored. Pappalau was on the slab for Montreal and had a little of everything. Only two hits were secured off him, one by Frick and one by Currie, who was sent in to bat for McCarthy. Wagner at third, for the Royals, shone with the willow, having four hits out of five times at bat, also three stolen bases to his credit.

Montreal got busy in the first. Joyce was given four balls, J. Bannon sacrificed and Wagner singled, scoring Joyce. Wagner stole second, but Huelsman and Massey were easy outs. In the second G. Bannon singled, Hartman did the same and stole second. Connor sacrificed, scoring Bannon. Pappalau was out at first, Joyce walked and stole second, Hartman coming home on the double steal. J. Bannon was safe on Meek's fumble of Tumsett's throw and Wagner's two-bagger scored Joyce. Huelsman ended the agony being out at first.

There was nothing more doing till the fifth. Huelsman got four balls, Massey was out at first, G. Bannon walked and stole second, Huelsman scoring on McGovern's bad throw to second. Hartman and Connors were easy outs. In the seventh Wagner singled and stole second. Huelsman was out at first, Massey walked and stole second, Wagner being caught at the plate on the double steal, Massey scored on G. Bannon's three-bagger to left field. Hartman flew out to Meek. One more was recorded in the ninth. J. Bannon was out at first, Wagner singled and stole second, Huelsman was out, Massey reached first on Meek's error, and stole second, Wagner coming home on McGovern's wild throw to third. G. Bannon was out at first.

Toronto had a chance to score in the first. Thoney was safe on Joyce's error, Weidensaul sacrificed, Thoney stole third, but Yancey struck out and Meek was out at first. After this not a man reached third and in the last five innings they were retired in order. The score:
