The Right Rev. Father in God,
John, Lord Bishop of Fredericton.

THE CHOLERA IN PERSIA.—The New York Observer publishes a letter from Rev. Justin Perkins, dated at Oroomiah, Sep. 12, which gives an interesting account of the recent ravages of the Cholera in Persia. It prevailed to some extent in the eastern part of Persia, in the previous autumn and winter. Its progress subsequently is thus described by Mr. Perkins:

During the Spring and the first part of the Summer the malady seemed to be disappearing, and we hoped that the destroying angel had passed over Persia for this time; but on the 21st of July, it suddenly made its appearance in Tehran and the immediate vicinity, where it raged about a month with appalling violence. Though not more than one third of the population of Tehran (which contains about 60,000 inhabitants) remained in town—the rest, terror-stricken, fleeing from it in all directions on the first appearance of the disease there—still from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and sixty deaths were officially reported as occurring there daily for some time.

It is said that nearly twelve thousand were carried off, in and about Tehran, in the course of a month; but this estimate is probably an exaggeration.—Among the victims were a son of the king—a child seven years old—two of his daughters, and two of his wives, and several adult princes more remotely related to his majesty; also Abd-ul-Hassan Khan, the minister for foreign affairs, a very intelligent Persian, who was once sent as ambassador to England, and who spoke our language. The only European who has yet fallen is Robert R. Glen, Esq., an attache of the English embassy, son of the venerable Scottish missionary, the Rev. William Glen, who has translated the Old Testament into Persian and recently printed his translation at Edinburgh. This son of the Rev. Mr. Glen was a young man of great promise as an oriental scholar.

The cholera has appeared to be of a peculiarly malignant character, it its prevalence at Tehran this season, almost entirely baffling the varied and vigorous treatment of the able physicians of the European embassies. It has assumed several different aspects. In some cases the patient was suddenly attacked with violent vomiting and relaxation of the bowels, which continued for an hour or two, and were then followed by drowsiness and lethargy, with great sinking of the eyes, and after lying in this state apparently quite unconscious and with little suffering, for 20 or 24 hours, he died. Others were attacked with the first named symptoms and with spasms in the lower extremities, which were followed by intense heat in the stomach and extreme pain in the head,—and some of these died within six or eight hours after their attack. Others still were seized with vomiting, &c., but had no spasms and lingered several days before death.

This fearful scourge is said now to have disappeared entirely at Tehran, but it is moving from that point in several directions. On the route toward Ispahan its ravages are reported as terrible; on that toward Bagdad they are also very considerable, and a few cases are reported as having occurred at Zenjan, the town midway between Tehran and Tabreez.

New York, Dec. 30, evening.—Flour heavy: Genesee offered at $ 5 56, and o 50 bbls. 150 bbls. Mess Pork sold at $10 25.

Passengers in the ship California, Capt. Lawson, on Thursday last, for Liverpool,—Messrs. John Fotherby, Thomas Gilchrist, William Thomson, Alex. Gilchrist, John Vassie, J. W. Beard, Thomas S. Tracy, and John Marsh.

In the steamer 'Saxe Gotha,' for Annapolis, on 26th ult. on their way to Halifax to embark in the steamer 'Cambria,' for Liverpool,—James Carson, Esq. of Dublin, and lady; Miss Thompson, of this City; Miss Simpson, of Fredericton.

In the steamer 'Maid of Erin,' for Annapolis, on Tuesday sligh, on their way to England, per steamer 'Cambria'—Messrs. John Gillis, George Young, Jas. Alexander, J. DeW. Spurr, James McDonnell, of this City, and Mr. Colpas, of England.

To the Members of the Legislature for the City and County of Saint John.

GENTLEMEN,—

I beg leave to call your attention to the fact, that large quantities of saw dust, slabs, edgings, &c., are constantly thrown into the harbour, from nearly all the saw mills in the neighbourhood of this City. It is well known that so soon as saw dust becomes mixed with the mud, that it will not float, hence the great injury which our noble harbour is daily receiving, and which is leading very fast to the destruction of the anchorage. I am told that the channel of the Saint Croix, near St. Stephen, is entirely choked up at low water, with slabs and other rubbish, although the current of that river is far more rapid than that of the Saint John. The trade of this port is increasing, and so are the steam saw mills, and if some mode is not adopted to prevent the nuisance, which I now bring under your notice, depend upon it, gentlemen, the result will be disastrous.—The sinking of Birch timber is another evil; it should always be conveyed to the ship, when floted, either on a raft of soft wood, or in scows. Hoping that you, gentlemen, will devise the means of protecting the Harbour of New-Brunswick.

I remain your obdt. servant, NAUTICUS.
St. John, January 4th, 1847.

A NEW AND COMPLETE HISTORY OF THE HOLY BIBLE, as contained in the Old and New Testaments, from the Creation of the World to the full establishment of Christianity. Containing a clear and comprehensive account of every remarkable transaction recorded in the Sacred Scriptures during a period of upward of four thousand years. With copious Notes, critical and explanatory, forming an Illustrated Commentary of the Sacred Text. With numerous Engravings. Part 1, Old Testament: Part 2, New Testament. By ROBERT SEARS—aided by the Writings of our most celebrated Biblical Scholars, and other Learned Persons, who have made the Scriptures their study. Two volumes in one. Fourth edition. New York: R. Sears, 128, Nassau street. [Royal octavo; pp. 672; beautifully bound and gilt.]

Who is there that has for years and years pored in silent awe over the grandeurs and mysteries of the Bible, that would not love to read its wondrous history; to decipher the unwritten or hieroglyphic romance of its "Truth that is more strange than fiction?" We confidently answer—No one. With such a conviction has the indomitable author of the work before us—at once the Columbus and Napoleon of the Pictorial World—bodied and given it to the public. It is a literary and artistic monument to his industry, skill, taste, and devotion to religion, that will continue to disseminate its beneficent influences long after the hand, head and heart that made it shall be cold and still.

We shall be most happy to show our copy of the work to any one who will favour us with a call.—[Philadelphia Courier.

☞ The above Work is for sale in St. John, at the Store of Messrs. G. & E. SEARS, King Street.

A VALUABLE TESTIMONY.

We like, at all times, to give credit when credit is due, and if at the same time we can relieve the distressed, we are doubly gratified; we, therefore, give the following voluntary testimony as to the beneficial effects of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, by the editor of the Columbia South Carolinian, who appears to have obtained great relief from its use. Old Dominion, Portsmouth, Va.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

We seldom resort to patent medicines, having a great respect for the skill of the medical profession, but chance threw into our way the above named medicine, immediately after the close of the late session of the Legislature, when our lungs were almost dried up by the highly rarified atmosphere of our stove warmed State House. The Balsam immediately relieved us of a most harassing cough, which threatened our health in a serious degree. We feel that we are indebted to it for some fifteen pounds of animal weight—which addition being once FELT, cannot be forgotten.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

☞ Sold by PETERS & TILLEY, St. John.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

This is undoubtedly the most valuable, (as it is decidedly the most popular) medicine of its kind, ever introduced in this State. The demand for it has been constant and increasing from the time it was first offered for sale to the present time, numerous testimonials of its real worth and usefulness, from very many of our citizens, might be produced, but a trial will satisfy all, that it is a speedy cure for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, and all kinds of Pulmonary Affections.—[Bangor (Maine) Daily Whig.

TO MY PERSONAL FRIENDS

I would say that I am well acquainted with DAVID JAYNE, M. D., and know him to be a respectable Physician and Druggist of this city—a gentleman in whom entire confidence may be placed. I have tested in my own case the beneficial effects of his CARMINATIVE BALSAM, and have greater confidence in it than all other Medicines of the kind. His EXPECTORANT is equally celebrated and efficacious. IRA M. ALLEN,
Agent of the American and Foreign Bible Society.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT has proved itself to be, that it has been recommended by those who have given it a fair test, and the demand for it increases daily.
