Cobb and Roush Standing Out.

Chicago, Aug. 17—Ty Cobb's batting average now is 15 points from the .400 mark, according to averages published today which include Wednesday's game. Cobb is hitting .350 for 105 games. He has made 155 hits, including thirty doubles, twenty-one triples and five home runs. This slugging had given him the American League lead in total bases, his total being 242. He also is leading the league in runs scored with 80, and is creeping up on Chapman and Roth, of Cleveland, for stolen base honors. Cobb has pilfered 32 bases, while the Cleveland pair have stolen 34 and 33 respectively. Chapman with 55 is far in front of other sacrifice hitters. Pipp, of New York, went into a tie with Veach, of Detroit, for home run honors, each having seven.

Detroit continued to lead in team batting with .259. Leading batters who have participated in half of their club's games: Cobb, Detroit, .385; Speaker, Cleveland, .351; Sisler, St. Louis, .342; Veach, Detroit, .311; McInnis, Philadelphia, .306; Felsch, Chicago, .304; Chapman, Cleveland, .295; Rice, Washington, .294; Roth, Cleveland, .294; Rumler, St. Louis, .294; Baker, New York, .293.

In the National League, Roush, of Cincinnati, is hitting .341 and has pulled away from Hornsby, of St. Louis, who was pushing him for the lead last week. The shortstop, however, increased his lead in total bases. His 109 hits in 95 games have been stretched into 176 bases because of 19 doubles, 12 triples and eight home runs. The last item earned him a tie with Cravath, of Philadelphia, for circuit drive home honors, and the number remains unchanged. Carey, of Pittsburg, with a mark of 29, continued to top the base stealers. The triple tie at 21 for sacrifice hit honors, held by the Chicago trio, Doyle, Deal and Williams, remains unbroken. New York has batted itself into a tie with Cincinnati for team batting, with .264.

Leading batters who have played in half of their club's games: Roush, Cincinnati, .341; Hornsby, St. Louis, .325; Cruise, St. Louis, .318; Kauff, New York, .315; Groh, Cincinnati, .311; Fischer, Pittsburg, .311; Griffith, Cincinnati, .308; Zimmerman, New York, .304; Wilhot, New York, .299; Neale, Cincinnati, .298.

Yanks' Star Breaks Leg

Armando Marsans, the Cuban outfielder, recently procured by the New York Americans from St. Louis in a trade for Lee Magee, broke his right leg in the first inning of the game between New York and Cleveland. Marsans met with the injury while sliding home. His spikes caught in the plate and snapped the bone just above the ankle.

Duffy Lewis Enlists

John (Duffy) Lewis, outfielder of the world champion Boston Americans, enrolled on Saturday as a yoeman in the naval reserve. When called into service Lewis will report for duty at the Mare Island navy yard on the Pacific coast, having registered from his home in Alameda, Cal.

Buck Weaver Breaks Finger

Washington, Aug. 11.—Buck Weaver, star third basemen of the Chicago Americans, suffered a broken finger in the game here with Washington today, and will probably be out of the game for the next three or four weeks, a critical period in the pennant race. The accident was in the third inning when Ainsmith, sliding into third, spiked Weaver's left hand as the latter tried to touch him out. The extent of the injury was not determined until tonight, when a surgeon's examination revealed a broken index finger.

A New One in Baseball

During one of the recent games between the Yankees and Indians at Cleveland Ray Chapman "put one over" on Umpire Connolly, and it must rank as entirely novel in baseball. Chapman reached first on a pass and went to second when Speaker bunted safely. Then he asked Connolly to call time. Tommy obliged thinking the player had been injured.

Chapman then ran back to first base and held a conference with Speaker. Connolly was so dumbfounded at this strange performance that he made no attempt to chase Chapman back, though the rules do not allow a player to hold up the game in this way.

After the game Connolly admitted that he had been the victim of an unfair request and said he would not have permitted it had he known why Chapman asked for time. It was a new one on Bill Donovan after he had spent more than 20 years in the game.

KENNEL

Crack Dogs for Canada

Sam Bamford, the well-known proprietor of the Walnut Kennels at Lambton Mills, Ont., has just imported from England the famous wire-haired fox-terrier bitch Oldcliffe Chick. This one had a show career nothing short of phenomenal. She beat every bitch she met, winning her championship at Dublin, Ireland. She was bred to the famous Round Up before sailing, and the genial Sam is likely to have an extra fine litter soon. Another interesting importation made by the Walnut Kennels is the crack Airedale Rebound Marquis, a big winner in England, sired by champion Rebound Oorang. The latter dog was shown by Mr. Bamford at the recent big Montreal show, and cleaned up among the Airedales. The Walnut Kennels are surely putting in a fine foundation for their fox-terrier and Airedale lines.

Breaks American Record

Miss Charlotte Boyle, the eighteen-year-old swimmer of the National Women's Life Saving League, established a new American record for the distance plunge for women in the tank of the East Twenty-eighth street baths, New York, where the fourth night of the city's "splash week" was celebrated. Miss Boyle plunged a distance of 62 feet. This performance eclipses the best previous record made last year by Miss Helen Aufderheida of the Indianapolis Turn Verein, who plunged 60 feet 3 inches.

In making her record Miss Boyle, a comparative newcomer in women's swimming competition, was under water exactly 51 seconds on her second trial in the event.
