USELUL RECEIPTS.

LIME LINIMENT FOR BURNS, SCALDS, &c.—Linseed or common olive oil, and lime water equal parts; to be shaken up together every time of use, for a rofula and syphilitic sores, and still more for burns and scalds.

TO CURE HICCOUGH OR HICCUP.—This spasm is caused by flatulency, indigestion, and acidity. It may be relieved generally by a sudden fright or surprise, or any sudden application of cold, also by swallowing two or three mouthfulls of cold water, by eating a small piece of ice, taking a pinch of snuff, or anything that exites coughing.

TO PRESERVE BUTTER WITH HONEY.—Mix together honey and butter in the proportion of 1 oz. of honey to a pound of butter, the butter being a little softened by warmth. This butter has an agreeable taste, will keep for years, and may be useful on long voyages.

Remember, though God promises forgiveness to repentant sinners, he does not promise they shall have to morrow to repent in. Make much of time, especially in the mighty matter of salvation.—Thomas Aquinas.

"What's a clock, Pat?" inquired a traveller, "Next to nothing," answered the Milesian, with great confidence. "What do you mean?" asked the traveller. "Not quite one," replied Pat, "and it follows in course that what isn't one is next to nothing."

"Do you smoke sir?" said a London shaper to a country gentleman, whom he met in a coffee-house, and with whom he wished to scrape an acquaintance. "Yes," said the other, with a cool steady eye, "any one who has a design upon me."

"John," inquired a dominie of a hopeful pupil, "what is a sailor?" "One who makes nails," "Very good. What is a tailor?" "One who makes tails!" "O you stupid fellow," said the dominie, biting his lips, "a man who make tails!" "Yes, master," returned John, "if the tailor did not put tails to the coats he made, they would be all jackets!" Sit down, John; you're an honour to your maternal parent."

Lola Montez, now a countess, and almost prime minister, is constructing a palace where all the marvels of the world are gathered together. But the chimney of the boudoir smokes abominably, and this is, you will allow, for the palace of a favourite, a nuisance perfectly intolerable. In short, the architect and workmen rack their brains and exert their talents in vain, without being able to find a remedy against the evil, and they excused themselves by saying that the thing was impossible; "Well, then," exclaimed the daring countess, "as nothing else has succeeded, put a Jesuit on the chimney-top. You know these people draw everything."—Literary Gazette.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR

Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great Eastern" Remedy.

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Arkansas, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is unrivalled. But the Proprietors so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms for consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INVALUABLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid;—the agent of proprietors of other and farther beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a false security. It is a great remedy, a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
