LOCAL MARKET.

Tuesday, April 10.

To the bad roads may be attributed the small attendance of farmers at the market today. The high prices which are being paid at present for hay and oats would seem to be sufficient inducement for the farmers to bring in their surplus stock, but as one farmer put it, I would rather take less when the roads are in better shape.

There was not much doing in the smallware section of the market, as the supply was exceedingly light. Prices were firm in every line.

Hay and Straw—The highest price since last spring was paid for the dozen or so loads of hay offered today, viz.: $9 50 and $10 per ton. The buyers have quite a few orders, which they could not fill owing to the light supply, therefore there should be a brisk demand the rest of the week. Friday will be a holiday, and as there is a bylaw prohibiting the bringing of hay to the market on Saturday, unless previously bargained for, the farmers and buyers should take this into consideration, and do their buying and selling at Wednesday's and Thursday's markets.

Butter and Eggs—There was not a great deal of butter offered; sales were made at 21c to 23c for pound rolls, and 20c to 22c for crocks. Eggs were firmer in price, at 15½c to 16c per dozen.

Dressed Hogs—The few that were offered sold quickly at $9 25 per cwt.

Poultry—All the offerings in this line were held by the hucksters; prices were unchanged.

Butchers' Meats—Not much offered; sales were slow; there was no change in prices.

Vegetables and Roots—Very little doing in this line; the supply was below the average; prices were steady.

Apples—The supply of apples is pretty nearly exhausted, especially the best classes; one barrel sold today at $4.

Maple Syrup—Quite a few cans offered; sales were fair, at $1 15 to $1 25 per gallon.

There were about a dozen loads of oats on sale; the demand was brisk, at $1 13 to $1 15 per cwt.

EASTER OUTFIT

This store offers the advantages of selection from the finest lines of Suits and Topcoats this age has produced, and begs to say in connection therewith that quality rules supreme, no matter what the price.

STYLES ABOVE CRITICISM
VALUES UNAPPROACHED

Men's and Young Men's Stylish Spring Suits

All the wanted styles in single and double breasted, in Fancy Worsteds, Tweeds and Cassimeres, also blue and black Serges, Worsteds, Vicunas, etc., for Sunday or daily wear. They are wholly devoid of the sameness and machinelike stiffness which characterizes the usual ready-made garments.

STYLES—The Swell Sack, $6 50 to $12 00; The Strand, $8 50 to $15 00; The Sovereign Brand, that rival the custom-made in every detail of workmanship, as well as in appearance, $12 00 to $25 00.

Our Coats are chuck full of style, longer than last season, form fitting side or center vents; trousers, loose hips, slightly peg-top.

The list of merchant tailor advocates that we are fitting and pleasing with Sovereign Brand grows larger each day. Try one for Easter. It's money back, you know, if you're not pleased.
