Pittsburg Has Little Difficulty in Whitewashing St. Louis 5 to 0.

CY. YOUNG IS BEATEN

Alexander Has Better of Veteran in Duel—Cubs Defeat Reds Twice.

St. Louis, Sept. 7.—Hendrix pitched remarkably good ball today, and Pittsburg had little trouble defeating St. Louis, score 5 to 0. Up to the seventh inning the locals put up a strong defence, and Geyer had kept the hits well scattered. Smith in the seventh cut loose with a wild throw, Simon was hit and Hendrix doubled, scoring McCarthy. In the ninth there were three on when Leach hit a homer to centre. Score:

ALEXANDER BEATS CY. YOUNG IN DUEL

Youngster Has Better of Veteran in Tight Game at Boston.

Boston, Sept. 7.—Although they secured 19 hits off two Philadelphia pitchers in the first game today, the home team lost 13 to 5. Alexander held them to one hit in the second game, which Philadelphia won 1 to 0. Alexander almost achieved a "no-hit, no-man-reaching-first" game, allowing no base on balls. The single hit off him was a scratch one. Cy Young opposed Alexander, and the veteran's undoing came in the eighth, when Paskert singled, stole second and scored on Lobert's hit. The scores:

Chicago, Sept. 7. — Outfielder Frank Schulte's 21st home run of the season today was largely responsible for Chicago winning the first game from Cincinnati, 3 to 0. A batting rally in the eighth inning of the second game, in which Schulte's single put Chicago two runs ahead, resulted in a 7 to 2 victory for the locals. Scores:

New York, Sept. 7.—Brooklyn defeated the Giants today in the first game of the series, errors behind Mathewson being mainly responsible for his defeat. In the ninth Tooley walked with two out, and scored the winning run when Snodgrass dropped Daubert's long fly in deep right centre after getting under it by a great run. Barger pitched a fine game for Brooklyn, although his wildness came near being his undoing. Score:

HIGHLANDERS CAPTURE OPENER OF FINAL SERIES

Chase's New Yorkers Beat Washington Senators by 5 to 2 Score.

Washington, Sept. 7. — Russell Ford's first appearance in the capital came at the psychological moment. Ford was ordered for box duty in the Nationals' eighth, when the Highlanders were one run to the good and the home team had the bases full with two out. A feeble tap by Walker ended the game from a Washington standpoint. The Hillmen pulled down the big end of a 5 to 2 score. Score:

CANADIAN LEAGUE ITEMS

Hamilton Herald. Yesterday Hamilton played at Guelph and had the services of Groh once more. Groh had a week to ponder over an assault upon Umpire Alf Strowger. The suspension expired Wednesday when Guelph and Hamilton met at Britannia Park in a one-inning session. The score for that single inning was 3 to 2 in favor of Hamilton, but the game was called and does not count.

* * *

Hamilton Spectator: At the conclusion of the regular season, the team will go on a two weeks' barnstorming tour, which is being arranged for at the present time, and which embraces many eastern towns, with a Sunday game in Hull, Quebec. This trip will be for the benefit of the players themselves, as all the profits, if there are any, will be divided equally among the boys.

* * *

Considerable attention has been given to various players in the league during the past few weeks, and many selections have been made in connection with all-star teams, and in every case one or two good men have been overlooked by the dopesters. To our way of it, one of those overlooked is Swartzmeyer, the Guelph outfielder, at present subbing on first base. Swartz is a pretty good fielder, and certainly some class with the stick. He is entitled to consideration by those who would attempt to select an all-star outfit.

* * *

President Mahoney, of the Guelph club, was a visitor to Hamilton on the holiday and he was just as enthusiastic as ever, even though his club will not finish any better than fifth position this season. "I have learned a lot this summer," Mr. Mahoney remarked. "I figure that our experience this year will help us a lot next season. I am already after a good manager, one whom I can say to at the beginning of the season, 'There's the team, run it.' If I land the right man I will guarantee that the Leafs will be up there in the first division." In addition to his plans for a new manager and an improved team, Mr. Mahoney is also looking around for a site for a new ball park.

* * *

There is a good chance that George Needham, the Buffalo player, who has been in the Eastern League for a number of years, will have charge of the Guelph club next season. Needham is eager to land a managerial berth and is being strongly boosted for the Guelph job. He should prove the right man in the right place.

* * *

Speaking of managers, it might be said that Lee, of Hamilton; Keenan, of London; Kane, of Brantford; Dencau, of Berlin, and Elliott, of St. Thomas, will all be back on the job again. They have proven their worth this year, and with all winter and spring in which to build up their teams, they should start the season with some pretty shifty ball teams, especially when it is considered that the teams last spring were all gathered together in less than two weeks' time, in fact, Berlin did not have a ball team three days before the season opened, while several of the other teams were not built up until long after the season had opened.

* * *

As things stand now, each club has a good foundation to work upon, but one club, Berlin, standing to lose heavily by reason of the draft and the optional agreement business, the Dutchmen losing Teed, Dunn and Mueller by recall, and Chaput and Cameron by draft.

ST. PAUL BUYS KARKER.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 7.—Manager Kelly, of the St. Paul American Association Baseball Club, announced today that Eddie Karger, a former St. Paul pitcher, but now of the Boston American League team, had been purchased outright and would return to St. Paul in time to pitch in the game with Milwaukee next Sunday.

Toronto Forces Three Runs in Fourth, and Seven Score in That Period.

ORIOLES BEAT SKEETERS

Bisons Trim Royals 2 to 1—Providence and Newark Tie Up in Ten Rounds.

Toronto, Sept. 8.—One large and juicy inning—the fourth—saw the downfall of the Leafs yesterday in the first game with the Hustlers, the latter annexing seven counters in this spasm, and three of these were gifts by the two Toronto heavers, who forced in the trio of runs with the bases full. Ten to three was the final verdict and the story of the slaughter of the afternoon. Two games were supposed to have been played, but the Bluebell got stranded on the way over with a majority of the players on board, and the first contest did not get started till near 3 o'clock, and as it was not over till after 5 o'clock, the second contest was postponed until tomorrow. RAIN INTERFERES WITH LONDON GAME AT GALT

Tecumsehs Were To Have Clashed With Berlin There Yesterday—Galt May Get a Franchise.

Galt, Sept. 7.—The Canadian League game between London and Berlin, transferred from Berlin, and which was to have been played here this afternoon, had to be called off owing to rain.

Manager Pop Williams, of the Berlin team, made arrangements to have three of the London games with Berlin transferred here.

A double-header will be played on Monday and a single on Tuesday. If local fans show by their presence at these games that they would like to have a team in the Cnadian League there is a possibility that one of the franchises will be transferred here. At one time Galt was a great baseball town, and no doubt interest in the game could be revived here.

REFEREE EDDIE SMITH IS DEAD.

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 8. — Eddie Smith, a well-known sporting writer and fight referee, died here Wednesday. He had been ill with brain trouble for several weeks. Smith was 33 years old. The last important fight which he refereed was the Wolgast-Nelson battle at Point Richmond for the lightweight championship of the world.

HILDRETH SELLS ONLY FOUR HORSES

Rest of the Missouri Turfman's String Will Be Disposed of in England.

New York, Sept. 7.—The race horse is not now so valuable an asset here as in the days when the Metropolitan tracks were running and anti-betting laws were not in force at the race courses, judging from developments today at the Sheepshead Bay track, when Sam Hildreth endeavored to auction off his string of good campaigners. Four horses were knocked down at what Mr. Hildreth declared were "miserable sums," and he ended the sale forthwith, and announced that he would take the stable to England and there dispose of it.

The animals sold today and the prices they brought are: Puggins, $2,500; Hampton Court, $2,400; Royal Meteor, $1,800, and Restigouche, $1,600. Among those withdrawn from the block were Fitz Herbert, King James, Novelty, Montgomery, Joe Madden, Firestone, Dinna Ken and Zeus.

Them Was the Days.

Mr. Hildreth was almost tearful as he saw horses bid in for prices that might have been doubled or even trebled were the race tracks flying their banners as of yore, and the courses not grass grown and unharrowed. But he was not alone in his sadness, for near the auction block there stood such men as Phil Dwyer, Jack McGinnis, Dave Gideon, Whitey Langdon, and Jimmy McLaughlin—men who in the heyday of the sport shouted themselves hoarse in boosting bids for good horses, all of whom looked on intently but never permitted their hands to stray toward the pocket where the bank roll is kept.
