HER MAJESTY'S JUBILEE.

The publisher, at an immense expense, has succeeded in producing a Fac-simile Copy of the Coronation Number of THE SUN Newspaper as printed fifty years ago, in commemoration of Her Majesty's Jubilee. It contains a beautifully executed medallion portrait of Queen Victoria, a graphic narration of incidents connected with the Coronation Ceremony and the State Procession from the Queen's Palace to Westminster Abbey; a description of the Royal Robes, Regalia and Jewels, together with interesting anecdotes connected with the Coronation of the English Kings and Queens from the time of William the Conqueror to King William the Fourth.

Send in orders early, as they will be filled in rotation as received. Thousands will buy it to mail to their friends. In order that it may be within the reach of everyone, the retail price has been placed at the low figure of 5 cents.
