PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

A New English Play.

"A Grip of Steel," which will be the attraction at the Toronto Opera House next week, comes to us with the prestige of success achieved not only in America but in England and Australia as well. It has a record of over 1200 performances in the Old World to its credit. The play is heralded as a worthy successor of those old-time favorites of the melodramatic stage, "The Lights of London," "The Romany Rye," "The Silver King," etc. Altho it differs materially from any of these, it achieved, as it was presented last season, the greatest popularity. Applause was frequent and curtain calls were numerous. Judged from a melodramatic point of view, it has in it much that deserved the reception it met with. The playwrights have evidently utilized every opportunity for successful stage play, and the actors and actresses who make up this season's company will not allow any of these opportunities to escape them. The setting of the piece, it is promised, will be thoro and consistent.

Last Times of "Sapho."

Only three more opportunities remain to see "Sapho" at the Toronto Opera House, performances being scheduled for to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening.

"Delmonico's at Six."

At the Princess Theatre last night Miss Helen Byron was greeted by a large audience, which thoroly enjoyed her production of Marie Jansen's great comedy, "Delmonico's at 6." Miss Byron has changed very little since she left Toronto, and as Trixie Hazelmere, in "Delmonico's at 6," she has a role which she fills with vivacity and makes it the essence of the piece. It allows her scope to prove her abilities as a vocalist, and in a sweet voice she sings several pretty songs, which called forth much appreciation last night.

Miss Byron's company includes some clever artists, among them being Cecil Kingstone, who appears as Hamilton Clark, M.D., "one of the elderly boys"; W. H. Tooker, as Capt. Holland, does some neat comedy work, particularly in the scene with Pearl Seward, as Jessie Clark, when the lover's presents are being returned. Julia Hanchette is entertaining as Mrs. Dr. Clark, and Frank Nelson gives an exceptionally good character impersonation as the fake French Count. Marie Van Tassel, as Estelle, is the pearl of parlor maids. The balance of the cast is good support, and "Delmonico's at 6" will doubtless entertain large audiences for a week. There will be a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

BELLEVILLE'S CELEBRATION.

Baseball, Football, Bicycle Races, Foot Races and Horse Races Were All in It.

Belleville, May 24.—The celebration of the Queen's Birthday to-day was the most successful that has been held here in many years. At noon the 15th Regiment fired a feu-de-joie at Island Park. The day was largely devoted to sport, all in connection with which passed off satisfactorily. In the forenoon the first game in the City Baseball League was played between the Bellevilles and the Stations, which the former won by 14 to 7.

In the afternoon 3000 people witnessed a fine program of sports at the Fair Grounds, the results of which were as follows:

A football match between the Strathconns of Deseronto and the 15th Batt., Belleville, for a silver trophy, resulted in no score, after an hour and ten minutes' play.

Horse races followed, but the events did not fill well:

HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE.

Over Five Thousand People Attended the Queen's Birthday Picnic Yesterday—A Successful Sale.

The spacious grounds surrounding the House of Providence on Power-street were taxed to their utmost yesterday afternoon and evening, to accommodate the large crowd which attended the picnic held annually on the Queen's Birthday, in aid of this very worthy institution. Nearly 5000 persons passed thru the gates, and each contributed his share to make the affair a success by patronizing the various booths. The 10 city parishes established refreshment stands on the grounds, and did a land office business. These were conducted by the following ladies:

St. Peter's—Miss O'Connell and Miss Jacobs.

St. Joseph's—Mrs. Moffatt and Miss McDonald.

Our Lady of Lourdes—Mrs. Thompson, Miss McCarthy and Mrs. Lynch.

St. Helen's—Miss English and Miss Ross.

St. Basil's—Miss Fleming and Miss Long.

St. Paul's—Mrs. Rosar and Miss Delaney.

St. Patrick's—Miss Phelan.

St. Michael's—Mrs. Frances, Mrs. Merrick and Miss Winterbury.

Sacred Heart—Mrs. Pilon and Mrs. St. Dennis.

St. Mary's—Mrs. Devine and Miss Carten.

During the afternoon and evening an excellent program was carried out. The Gardiner children contributed a double dance; Prof. Clark, feats of sword swallowing; the Sunnyside Orphanage boys and girls, Maypole and flag drill. There was also plenty of amusement provided for the young in a Punch and Judy show and by a ventriloquist. The picnic was brought to a close at 10 p.m. by a grand display of fireworks.

The management committee which arranged for the picnic was constituted as follows: C. McCabe, P. McCabe, J. Hanrahan, J. W. Morgan, M. Doherty, J. Delaney, M. P. Ryan, William Kelly, Edward Rosar, J. F. Ferguson and P. F. Callahan.

The committee rendered excellent services to the picnickers by showing them thru the institution, where so much is done for the inmates who are unable to help themselves. Among the guests present were many of the Catholic clergy and Controller Spence and Ald. J. J. Graham.

LIVE HAMILTON NEWS.

HAMILTON'S PUBLIC PARK GRANDLY INAUGURATED.

Thousands Upon Thousands of Visitors Poured Into the City From All Directions, and a Big Crowd Came Over From Buffalo.

A Thousand School Children Sang Patriotic Songs, the Bands Played and the Youngsters Gave Fancy Drills—Sir John Bourinot and Others Made Speeches—A Great Day.

Hamilton, May 24.—(Special.)—Hamilton entered into the holiday celebrations with the greatest enthusiasm, the general jubilation being added to by the pent-up feeling which, thru belated War Office reports, did not find a vent at the relief of Mafeking. The city's walls were never so gaily decorated before, and the crowds that swept thru the streets, overlooked at every roof and window by brilliantly-attired and handkerchief-waving women and children, cheered everything. A great shout went up when Mrs. Teetzel, while the S.O.E. band played "God Save the Queen," unfurled the Canadian ensign at the top of the flagstaff in the Gore Park extension, and there was another demonstration of cordiality when, to fife music, the line of parade was joined by the blue-coated G.A.R. contingent from Buffalo, headed by a huge banner, bearing the greeting of Chapin Post, G.A.R., to the veterans of Canada.

The Great Crowds.

With the G.A.R. must have come a host of Americans, and that the city had the help of the rural districts in entertaining them was evidenced by the vast array of well-filled buggies that passed up and down the streets, each with a bundle of hay dangling behind.

Transfer of the Flagstaff.

The undirected enthusiasm floated here and there until focused at Gore Park at 9.30 with the ceremony connected with the transfer of the lofty flagstaff from the Canadian Club to the city. The leading parts were here played by Mayor Teetzel, Mrs. Teetzel, A. E. Manning, K. Martin, Adam Brown, J. H. Long, F. W. Fearman, Sec. McCullough, etc.

President A. E. Manning of the Canadian Club, in a neat speech, explained that the policy of the club in giving the flagstaff was "to pluck from oblivion and hand down to posterity the brave deeds that had made the Dominion."

Ex-President Kirwan Martin, amid much cheering, then mounted the chair and read the details of the blue deed of gift in his hand. It provided that none but the Canadian ensign was ever to float from the flagpole, and was then to be hoisted on the following anniversaries:

Montgomery's defeat at Quebec, Jan 1, 1776.
Union of the Canadas, Feb. 5, 1841.
Constitutional Act, March 14, 1791.
Daulac at the Long Sault, May 10, 1660.

Battle of Queenston Heights, Oct. 13, 1812.
Battle of Chateauguay, Oct. 26, 1813.
Battle of Chrysler's Farm, Nov. 11, 1813.

Next Came the Flag.

Mayor Teetzel, following, accepted the flag staff on behalf of the city, and then J. H. Long read a spirited ode of his entitled "Our Flag." It contained such lines as "That guards the portals of the world and triumphs o'er the seas," and was heartily cheered.

Mrs. Teetzel now gracefully unfurled the ensign, and, as its fold swelled out in the breeze, the far-stretching crowd that pressed heavily around testified its delight by a lusty chorus of hurrahs.

The Big Parade.

The big parade, despite its immensity, was admirably planned and managed. It left the armouries at 11 o'clock and after parading the principal streets found its way to Dundurn Park. At the head rode Chief of Police Smith, with the mounted police, and after them the following line:

Military Demonstration.

The procession moved from Dundurn Park to Victoria Park, where the military exercises took place, a large section of the park was roped off, and fully 15,000 people viewed the manoeuvres. The troops taking part in the review in honor of Her Majesty's Birthday were: The 13th regiment, Hamilton, Major Stoneman commanding, 445 strong.

The 19th regiment, St. Catharines, Lieut.-Col. Thaires commanding, 206 strong.

The 77th regiment, Wentworth Co., Lieut.-Col. Bertram commanding, 189 strong.

The 4th Field Battery, Hamilton, Major Hendrie commanding, 67 strong.

High School Cadets, Brantford, 52 strong.
High School Cadets, Hamilton, 51 strong.
Lieut.-Col. McLaren was brigadier.
Brevet Major Moore was brigade major.
Corp. R. Thompson, Royal Canadian Dragoons, was orderly to the brigadier.

Cheers for Veterans.

The brigade lined up and gave three cheers for the Grand Army of the Republic Veterans from Buffalo and H. M. Army and Navy Veterans of Hamilton, who were headed by Chapin Post's Old Continental Fife and Drum Corps. The veterans took a position on the north side of the park and were interested spectators of the review.

The feu-de-joie and royal salute were then fired and this was followed by the march past, all the troops taking part. Finally trooping of the color and battalion movements by the St. Catharines Regiment brought the military part of the day's proceedings to a close at 1.30 o'clock.

The 13th Regiment marched back to the Armouries and the visiting soldiers were escorted to the different hotels. The officers of the visiting regiments were entertained by the 13th officers' mess.

At Dundurn Park.

The afternoon was given up to Dundurn Park and the celebration of its opening and dedication to the city was participated in by thousands of people. All Hamilton and most of the residents of the vicinity seemed to be congregated in the park, so vast was the assemblage, and yet there was no unnecessary crowding, Dundurn being of such an immense size.

The weather was perfect for an afternoon's outing and the men, women and children, everybody, enjoyed themselves to their heart's content.

The Baseball Fans.

Over in the baseball grounds was a tremendous crowd of strong-lunged enthusiasts, who made their voices heard at intervals in the other parts of the park, which were thronged with school children, adults, school cadets, bands, pipers, drill corps and militiamen.

Visitors to the Castle.

The castle was closely inspected by thousands, and in fact all Dundurn, which is undoubtedly the finest public park in Canada, underwent a rigorous examination by its new owners, the people. The verdict was altogether satisfactory.

The Children Sang.

The afternoon's proceedings began with singing by a children's choir of 1600 voices, conducted by Prof. James Johnson, and assisted by the Sons of England Band. The young choristers stood on the rising slope, just east of the battery building, and their singing was heartily applauded. They sang "Land of Britons," "Rule Britannia," "The Maple Leaf Forever," "Soldiers of the Queen," "When Johnny Canuck Comes Marching Home" and the National Anthem. All the patriotic music was given with lots of spirit.

Exhibition Drills.

Next came exhibition drills by the Brantford Cadets and Sergt.-Major Oxtaby and the Hamilton Cadets, under Sergt. Parkhill, on the lawn at the rear of the castle. Their clever marching and evolutions were witnessed by an immense crowd.

THE ORATORY.

Sir John Bourinot Delved Into History—Buffalo Gentleman Made a Happy Address.

The oratory for the day was untapped on a large platform, erected near the battery, where the children sang. On the platform were a number of visitors from Buffalo and various parts of Canada.

H. G. Wright, chairman of the Parks Commissioners, was chairman of the meeting. After Mayor Teetzel had spoken briefly, Sir John Bourinot of Ottawa was called on. Sir John's address was chiefly historical. He traced the beginning of Canada, and told of the settlement of this portion of the country, especially referring to the late Robert Laird, in the history of the war of 1812. Burlington Heights took a conspicuous part. As he proceeded, Sir John referred to Laura Secord, Fitzgibbon, Harvey and others, whose names were associated with the history of the Gore District. The speaker paid a warm tribute to the memory of the first owner of Dundurn, Sir Allan Napier Macnab, and also spoke highly of the recent owner, Senator McInnes. The address was frequently applauded, and closed with a beautiful peroration, in which Sir John referred to the voices of the past, which appealed to him thru the pages of history.

A Speaker From Buffalo.

Hon. Joseph E. Ewell of Buffalo, representing Chapin Post, G.A.R., was the next speaker. After making known in his inimitable way the fact that the city of Buffalo would have a Pan-American Exposition, to which he invited all Hamilton, Mr. Ewell went on to speak of Queen Victoria, paying her the highest tribute as a woman and a sagacious ruler, and closed with expressing Buffalo's good feeling towards the citizens, and congratulating them on the beautiful park acquired by them and dedicated to-day, and generations to come would bless them for having secured so magnificent a property.

Speaker Bain's Speech.

Hon. Thomas Bain, in his address, said for the past 60 years he had seen Dundurn Park thrive and become more beautiful. He advised the young people to see that the heritage of a grand confederation handed to them was made the best use of.

Dr. Montague's Address.

Hon. Dr. Montague, the next speaker, after referring to the grand civic demonstration in which they were participating, said he reciprocated the warm expressions of goodwill from the Americans. After all, the two countries were called on to carry out the same purpose, and the disputes of the past had, however, shown that Canadians held in their hearts the same pluck and determination possessed by British soldiers. Canada had never as this year celebrated the anniversary of the Queen's birth, for Canada was now, as a part of the Empire, helping to fight her battles. During the Queen's reign there had been no sign of waning power or dismemberment, as many of Britain's enemies had declared. On the contrary, there was expansion and increase of power.

Postmaster Adam Brown.

Adam Brown followed with a pleasing speech, in which he referred to the installation of Hamilton's famed waterworks, and closed with a eulogy of the brave Canadians fighting in Africa.

On motion of the Hon. Mr. Montague and Sir John Bourinot, a vote of thanks was given to the Parks Commissioners, and the meeting ended.

The Band Concert.

The combined band concert by the 13th and 19th Regiments' bands, in the Armoury to-night, attracted an audience of about 1000. Each band played four selections. The principal numbers of the 19th Band were the Overture to William Tell and a selection of Tosti's songs. The 13th Regiment's were the Sancho Panza Overture and Bandmaster Robinson's arrangement of De Koven's setting of Kipling's Recessional. The playing of the St. Catharines Band met with unstinted praise, and it was enthusiastically applauded. Its selections were encored. The 13th Band played in its best form, and was also given much applause, being encored after each number. The combined bands played "Jerusalem The Golden" and Robinson's "Nearer My God to Thee," in splendid style.

Closed by Fireworks.

The Dundurn Park demonstration was brought to a close by a fireworks show by Hand & Co., and a concert by the Sons of England Band.

Fully 15,000 persons were present to-night. Down town the crowd was enormous, and there were all kinds of expressions of loyalty. The electric display was magnificent.

James Carter, who would not give his address, was arrested to-night on a charge of attempting to pick the pocket of a woman. Detective Bleakley and P. C. Bleakley effected the arrest.

There was a small fire at A. R. Kerr & Co.'s store to-night. It was caused by an electric light wire.

To Whom Credit is Due.

The committee which had charge of the day's demonstration was composed of the Parks Board and the Finance Committee of the City Council. On account of his position as chairman of the Parks Board, H. Wright was chairman of the committee. The proceedings were carried out without a hitch, and the success of the affair was due largely to Mayor Teetzel, Ald. TenEyck, Ald. Evans, Ald. Walker and John H. Tilden.

Messrs. J. McMenemy and Charles Stewart rendered the committee valuable assistance in the absence of the secretary. All mentioned are worthy of great praise.

To Mr. Harry Morris, chief marshal of the procession, is considerable credit due. He discharged his duties in an admirable way, with the assistance of the following deputies: Sergt. P. Kenny, Rance Wilson, George Shambrook and H. Goodnough.

Persons Hurt.

There were two bad accidents on West King-street while the procession was moving. Henry Carson, 415 West Main-street, was kicked by an artilleryman's horse on the corner of Ray-street and seriously injured. He was taken home in the ambulance.

Mrs. Billington, 27 Blyth-street, was run down by a bicyclist at the intersection of Bay-street and had her hip dislocated.

Police Points.

Detective Bleakley arrested a young man, who said he was Charles Russell, Toronto, on a charge of attempting to pick a woman's pocket.

Herbert Williams of Ingersoll and James Nolan, Cobourg, were arrested by P. C. Canary for fighting on the street.

The International League.

Hamilton, May 24.—(Special.)—Hamilton and Grand Rapids ball teams played three games here to-day, one in the morning and two in the afternoon. By letting four runs in in the second inning First Baseman Crall lost the morning game for Hamilton. In the first afternoon game Grand Rapids could not hit Bradford, making only two hits, both scratchy. King, who pitched both afternoon games for the visitors, was hit hard in the second, and Gettinger pitched the last inning. Hamilton got a lead of four runs early in the second game, but the team went to pieces at the end and Grand Rapids won out. Fully 4000 people were present. Score, morning game:

Your Doctor.

We wish you would ask your doctor what he thinks of Vapo-Cresolene. He will say "It's certainly the best way of reaching the throat and lungs, this inhaling method." You see, it brings the medicine right in contact with the weak places. If it's asthma, bronchitis, whooping-cough, croup, or any such trouble, the Cresolene vapor touches every inflamed place. Relief is quick, certain.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Vapo-Cresolene complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Vapo-Cresolene 25 cents, 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. VAPO-CRESOLENE CO., 69 Wall St., New York, U.S.A.
