Poetry.

TRUTH.

Oh, seek for Truth!
Win thou a home within her halls;
In age of youth
Seek her still whate'er befalls;
Rich is the feast her beauty spreads,
And round her board, time-honoured heads,
Who sought her long and won her well,
In peace and joy for ever dwell.

Heed not the scorn
Of worldly men who dwell around;
But night or morn
Worship the truth where'er 'tis found.
Truth-seekers ever were reviled;
But honest heart and accent mild
Prevail against ignob'e pride,
And turn the venom'd shaft aside.

Swerve not aside!
Thy rule of duty sketch aright,
Then truth abide,
Inquiring still, with virtuous might.
Like clondlets' shadow on the stream,
Like passing grief in childhood's dream,
Shall be the ills and woes of earth
To him who knows of Truth the worth.

Horse and Cattle Medicines.

Don't permit your Horses or cattle to die, when the means of cure are within the reach of all!
The undersigned has spent several years in the study of Veterinary practice in "London and Edinboro'," he has also availed himself of the researches of Leibig, and other celebrated men, who have contributed so much towards a judicious treatment of animals; the principles of our practice consists of the rejection of general bleeding and the total rejection of all medicines that experience has shown is be of a dangerous tendancy. These remedies are in harmony with the vital principle, and when given according to the directions which accompany each article they are capable of exciting and increasing the natural functions, without diminishing or destroying their power, hence are safe in the hands of every one.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great Eastern Remedy."
It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike astonishing and triumphant.
As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable, as a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs, inflammation of the lungs, croup, &c. it is unrivaled. But the Proprietor is to confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening in the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid;—the agent or proprietors of other and farther beyond the reach of hope.
Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy, a grand healing and curative compound: the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!
[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]
There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
