Amusements.

DRAWING THE CROWDS.

The audience which crowded the London Opera House last night waxed enthusiastic over the fine presentation of the stirring drama, "Woman Against Woman," by the Sullivan Repertoire Company. The company's work, as a whole, shows a decided and surprising improvement over their form of the opening plays, and their presentations are now first-class in every respect. The members of the company worked together perfectly, and the play went off without a hitch. The specialties took well, and received several encores, an especially good one being that of Baby Rossie, a clever child artist. The bill for tonight is "A Parisian Princess," in which a previous production and repeated rehearsals have made the company perfect. Visitors and citizens alike can find no better place for an evening's amusement than the London Opera House.

SUPERBA THIS WEEK.

One of the new acts in Superba this year represents a scene at a race course. The Fairy Queen Superba changes Pierrot into a jockey, for some trifling act of disobedience, and whilst appearing in this guise he has some hair-raising experiences. First a scene is unfolded to his gaze of a poor old man and woman, the former a trainer of horses, who has spent his last dollar to fit his only remaining horse for a race that means life or death to him—the horn of plenty if he wins, starvation if he loses. The horse is a particularly vicious one, and it is a difficult matter to get a jockey to ride him, but Pierrot, with his magic aid puts a nickel in the slot, and an individual named Broncho Pete appears. Pete fails to keep on the back of the unruly animal, so Pierrot again invokes the aid of the machine, and five cowboys appear. They environ poor Pierrot, who has attempted to ride the horse himself. The cowboys, riding their own fiery mustangs, try to put Pierrot in a pocket so that he cannot win, and even go so far as to dismember the horse, but Pierrot, equal to the occasion, remains on the animal, or rather what is left of him, and finally lands him a winner and replenishes the couple's larder. Superba will be seen at the New Grand the last three nights of this week, with a special matinee on Saturday.

"QUO VADIS" IN DEMAND.

An item was recently published among theatrical jottings of the metropolitan press, to the effect that before the routing of "Quo Vadis" was commenced for the coming season there were, by actual count, in the office of Whitney & Knowles 479 letters requesting a return of this phenomenally successful attraction. These letters were from local managers, who voiced the wishes of their patrons. "Quo Vadis" appears at the New Grand on Tuesday and Wednesday next, with special price matinee on Wednesday.

"WAY DOWN EAST" TONIGHT.

A large and delighted audience witnessed last night's performance of "Way Down East," at the New Grand. The play received and deserved the encomiums of all as a pure and healthful presentation of real life scenes. A special matinee is being given this afternoon, and tonight's performance closes the engagement of this sweetest of pastoral dramas. Those who have not seen it should not miss the opportunity; those who have will witness it again, if possible. The theater draping and carpeting is almost completed, and the house presents a finished appearance.

Child Murder.

When a child comes to its death by the willful act of a second person, the law takes cognizance of the crime, but it fails to do so when little ones are exposed to danger, and often death, by the negligence of parents, who do not take care that the food furnished their family is of the kind best suited to nourish the growing bodies and expanding frames of the boys and girls. Granose is an ideal food for children, enabling them to begin mature life unhandicapped by the affliction of indigestion or constipation, the result of eating injurious foods. The children should not be allowed to drink tea and coffee, whose properties of thein and caffein are so destructive to the nervous system and digestive organs, but should be given instead, Caramel Cereal, a true health drink. See that you get the genuine.

MELBOURNE.

Melbourne, Sept. 10.—Rev. Mr. Endicot, a Chinese missionary, gave a very interesting address in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening last.

Rev. W. H. Geddes, B.D., of Ailsa Craig, will conduct anniversary services in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, 15th inst. Service will be conducted at 11 a.m. and 3 and 7:30 p.m. The Presbyterians have discontinued the practice of having entertainments in connection with their anniversary, and make a free-will offering, which in past years has been more profitable from a financial standpoint than the average entertainment.

A quiet wedding took place at the manse on Wednesday, the 4th inst., when Alex. Duncanson and Effie McMullen, of Dunwich, were married by Rev. R. Stewart.

CAUGHT BY KITCHENER'S COHORTS!

Methuen Defeated Vautonder and Delarey.

Boers Leave Eighteen of Their Dead on the Field—A Week's Roundup Reaches 681.

London, Sept. 11.—Lord Kitchener reports to the war office from Pretoria as follows:

"Methuen engaged Vautonder and Delarey in Great Maries Valley, Sept. 6 and Sept. 8, driving them from a strong position Sept. 8. The Boers left six dead Sept. 6 and twelve Sept. 8. Forty-one prisoners were captured."

London, Sept. 10.—The following dispatch was received from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, today:

"Since Sept. 2 the columns have again got good results, the total bag being 681, composed of 67 killed, 67 wounded, 384 made prisoners and 163 surrenders; also 179 rifles, 65,211 rounds of ammunition, 3,400 horses and 19,000 head of cattle."

Lord Kitchener further says that the situation in Cape Colony is unchanged, excepting the capture of Lotter's command, reported last week.

Pretoria, Sept. 10.—Kekewich, Allenby and Featherstonehaugh have made further captures of Boers in the Western Magaliesberg district, mostly of men belonging to Kemp's commando, who were hiding in kloofs. Kemp escaped northward. Within five days about 150 Boers have been captured in this district and smaller captures have been made elsewhere.

Gen. Kitchener has ordered that tools and materials be supplied to the men in the burgher camps, to enable them to work at such trades as tanning, cabinetmaking, etc. The articles made by them will be sold for their benefit.

THE CHARGE AGAINST DR. KRAUSE

Treason Trial Postponed Pending Arrival of Papers.

Sovereigns of Britain and Russia at Copenhagen—Women in Degradation in Egypt.

London, Sept. 11.—Dr. Krause, former governor of Johannesburg, who was arrested last week and was arraigned in the Bow street police court and remanded on a charge of treason, was brought up again in the Bow street court yesterday. Dr. Krause was informed that a warrant, charging him with incitement to murder, was issued in the Transvaal.

Sir George Lewis, on behalf of the prisoner, said it semed strange, since Dr. Krause had been in England fourteen months as a paroled prisoner of war, warrants should be issued in Transvaal because of acts committed in England, and he asked how could a gentleman not an English subject be charged with high treason.

The case was adjourned to await the arrival of papers from the Transvaal.

MEETING OF MONARCHS.

The czar and czarina and their children, the King and Queen of England, the King of Denmark, the King of Greece and 28 royal princes and princesses, all on one train, arrived at Copenhagen on Tuesday from Fredensborg, and were present at a farewell luncheon on board the Russian imperial yacht Standart. Then all the party with the exception of the czar, went on board the imperial yacht Pole Star to take leave of the czarina. The Standart soon afterwards weighed anchor and started for Dantzic, the Danish forts and the men-of-war in the harbor saluting.

QUEEN MARGHERITA KNOWS.

Queen Margherita, hearing the news of the attack on the life of President McKinley, with tears in her eyes, said: "These things come hardest on women, and poor Mrs. McKinley should, in her state of health, have been spared."

Pope Leo displayed deep emotion, exclaiming: "Oh, how earnestly I pray that he may escape with his life! These violent crimes are the curse of our days. I can only offer the afflicted victim and his poor wife my humble prayers."

RESERVISTS AND GENDARMES.

A special dispatch from Paris says: At Montecau les Mines, some hundreds of reservists, returning in uniform today from the army maneuvers, entered the town singing the "Internationale" and other revolutionary songs. A force of gendarmes attempted to disperse the reservists, but the latter fixed bayonets and charged on the police with cheers for anarchy and a social revolution. The gendarmes were scattered. The soldiers then held a mass meeting, and passed a resolution in favor of a revolution.

IN AWFUL FILTH.

Mrs. Leland Stanford, who has just returned to New York from a trip of fifteen months through Europe, Egypt and Palestine, has been studying the religious side of life in the east. In an interview last she said:

"The degradation of women in Egypt who are kept down in abject slavery, living in horrible filth, shadowed for me the natural beauties of that wonderful land. Only Christianity, I believe, will save that country and elevate its womanhood, as it has other nations of the world."

GREAT NUMBER WERE KILLED.

A dispatch from Ersteeroum says that according to the Turkish authorities, the Mussulman quarter of Moush was attacked and burned by 500 Armenians. The resolutionists retired on Sausoun after a serious engagement with the regulars. A great number were killed and wounded.

CABLE NOTES.

The Peruvian Cabinet has resigned.

Pope Leo intends to take the initiative in joint action by Christian powers against anarchism. He is writing an important encyclical on the subject, which will be published next month.

DETAILS OF PRINCETON DISASTER!

Three Trainmen Lost Their Lives in the Wreck.

The Victims Pinned Fast by the Burning Cars—How the Accident Happened.

Woodstock, Sept. 11. — The wreck which occurred on the main line of the G. T. R. early yesterday morning was attended with three fatalities and the loss of thousands of dollars' worth of property. The accident happened about a mile and a half east of Princeton station. There were three trains in the wreck.

THE DEAD.

The dead are: Conductor Harmon, of Toronto; Engineer Fred Denning, of Sarnia; Fireman Rennie, of Sarnia.

Freight train No. 319, in charge of Conductor Rich, passed Princeton station at 12:29 Monday night. She had through running orders. A few moments later a train of empty passenger coaches in charge of Conductor Harmon, of Toronto, came in and was sent after the freight at what was considered a safe distance. Following the passenger train, and anticipated by a danger signal on the rear car of the second train, came a through freight from Chicago.

The train was in charge of Conductor Low, and in the engine were Fred Denning, of Sarnia, and Fireman Rennie, also of Sarnia.

CAUSE OF THE DISASTER.

The trains had safely passed the station and the semaphores had been dropped after them, when the men on the first train made the discovery that one of the boxes was burning. The brakes were applied, and the train was stopped. The passenger train coming behind was signaled, and its engineer brought his train to a standstill a few yards from the caboose of the freight ahead. Anticipating some delay, Conductor Harmon, of the passenger train, knowing that he was being followed by the through freight, decided to back up, and signaled. Engineer Denning, of the through freight, seems, however, to have been unaware of the passenger train ahead of him, for he came on at full speed. The result was

A TERRIFIC COLLISION.

The engine of the freight completely telescoped three of the passenger coaches, dragging four freight cars after it. The engine landed on the south side of the track, and the tender was thrown off on the other side.

Almost immediately after the collision took place, the steam pipes burst and the fire-box of the engine was shattered, scattering burning coals over the wreck. In an instant the mass of battered wood and twisted iron was lost in flames. The two rear passenger coaches over which the engine of the freight had bounded took fire first, and the flames were fed by the four freight cars, which were piled up by the force of the impact.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Engineer Denning and Conductor Harmon were caught in the wreckage and were burned to death. Fireman Rennie was also caught before he could get clear of the wreck. He jumped, but was pinned down beneath the shattered freight cars which came over the tender. When released he was unconscious and terribly injured and he expired a few minutes afterwards.

THE INJURED

Brakeman R. Oliver was injured about the head and Brakeman R. Peacock's right leg was broken above the ankle and had to be amputed.

Conductor Harmon was for many years a resident of Windsor. He was a man of fine physique, good hearted and very popular. He was 34 years of age, and unmarried. His funeral will be held at Bothwell, where his father and mother are buried. He left three brothers—John, of Windsor; Peter, of Chicago, and Edward, of Pittsburg.

MR. ATWOOD'S SUCCESS.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

With this I send you a sample of a Bartlett pear which I have grown on a graft I put in an apple tree. When you sample it I think you will find it excellent in flavor and firmer in the center than Bartletts usually are. I have sold all the apples in my orchard as a lump lot to Mr. D. Cantlon, of Clinton, for $1,100. I pick and draw to station; he packs and furnishes the barrels. My pears and grapes will pan up towards another 100, which will make over $4,000 I have cleared on my orchard in the last five years, after having suffered a loss of $500 in shipping to England myself during that time, caused, as I believe, by the fruit having been stored in a hot place on board the steamer, which, as I believe, is the chief cause of apples arriving in bad condition, as is often the case. I think it would have been better if our government had spent the money they wasted (as I think) in trying to destroy the Boers, in providing cold storage at reasonable rates for all kinds of fruit. Yours truly,

A. C. ATWOOD.

CRUSHED BY FALLING IRON.

Watertown, Sept. 11.—Erastus Barker, aged 43, was killed on Monday, and Daniel Orr and Martin McAndrews were injured by the fall of the iron framework of the Taggart Paper Company's paper mill in Felt's Mills.

BURIED UNDER TONS OF COAL.

Glace Bay, C. B., Sept. 11.—Michael McKinnon was killed in the Dominion Coal Company's yards yesterday morning by 30 tons of coal falling on him. He was aged 30, and a native of Frenchvale, C.B.

OLD COUPLE TOOK GAS.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Peter Jackson and wife, both past 60, were found dead in their flat at 540 Belmont avenue. The gas jets in the parlor, dining room and bedroom were wide open. The stove connection in the kitchen was also broken. It is the belief of the police that the aged couple died together by agreement.

SUICIDE THROUGH WORRY.

Erie, Pa., Sept. 10.—Grief over the shooting of President McKinley, and subsequent worry over his condition and prospects of recovery, were the causes which led Ordando D. Van Camp, one of Erie county's most prominent men, to kill himself last night. He blew off his head with a shotgun. He was interested in Chicago opera houses.

WOODSTOCK MAN KILLED.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 11.—James J. Robinson, an omnibus driver, was thrown from his seat to the pavement by the collision of his bus with a street car yesterday morning and killed. His home was in Woodstock, Ont.

TOOK A SMOKE.

Moscow, Idaho, Sept. 11.—The 12-year-old son of C. A. Gummer, a village farmer, living near Moscow, was instantly killed by a powder explosion. The boy was noticed to have a powder horn in his hand, and called to his sister: "I'm going to take a smoke." A moment afterward there was a report and the young lady turned in time to see the boy fall on the floor dead. Examination showed that the boy had put the horn in his mouth, lighted a match and applied it to the powder.

FELL FROM FOURTH STORY.

Toronto, Sept. 11.—At the noon hour yesterday, John Anderson, aged 17, who resided at 85 Lindsay avenue, and who was engaged as a decorator at the Pottery warehouse of Gowans, Kent & Co., attempted to cross the window sills from one window of the fourth story, in the rear, to another. He missed his footing and fell to the ground. His head struck a projecting iron in his fall, and his skull was terribly crushed. Anderson was alive when picked up, but died a few minutes afterwards.

MAUD WILLARD'S DEATH.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Sept. 11.—Coroner Dr. Emes yesterday empanelled a jury and held an inquest into the death of Maud Willard, which took place in the whirlpool on Saturday evening, after she navigated the rapids in a barrel. The evidence of the witnesses, the principal one being Carlisle D. Graham, when to show that the woman had entered the barrel of her own free will, and that her object was to obtain the remuneration promised her by the New York Mutuscope Company, which made moving pictures of the wild ride through the rapids, as well as Graham's swim through the Devil's Hole Rapids to Lewiston on the same afternoon. The jury returned a verdict of death by suffocation, holding no one responsible, but censured the United States authorities for permitting such foolhardy performances.
