Social Notes of the Week

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Jan. 3.—The annual Christmas tree and entertainment for St. Paul's Sunday school was held in the church hall on Friday evening and greatly enjoyed. A number of friends of the children were present. The "tree" was a very pretty one, lighted with candles, and trimmed with many bright "Christmasy" things. Favorite games were played, the superintendent, Miss Mabel Gilbert, and the teachers taking part with the scholars. The rector, Rev. Canon Daniel, made a short address, several carols were sung by the school and each child was presented with a gift and a bag of candy and fruit. At the close cake and cocoa was served to all present, after which a hymn for our soldiers and sailors and the National Anthem were sung.

Next week, on Tuesday, the Sunday school teachers of Kingston Deanery are to meet on College Hill and on Wednesday the clergymen of the Deanery are to hold a conference there. Rev. Canon Vernon of Halifax is expected to be present. A service will be held in St. Paul's church on Tuesday evening.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mackay, Coburg street, St. John, who on New Year's day welcomed a baby daughter to their home.

On Friday evening members of the Field Ambulance Corps and friends enjoyed a sleigh drive from St. John to Fair Vale, where they were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson and family.

To spend the cold months Mr. J. H. Emery and sisters, Misses Ada and Laura Emery, of Fair Vale, have taken rooms in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Rothwell this week received the announcement of the marriage of their son, Mr. Hubert Rothwell, who is doing his bit in France and Flanders. It was during his stay at a convalescent home that the happy young couple met, and the wedding took place at Hastings, Eng., home of the parents of the bride, who is a V.A.D. Best of good wishes are extended the happy pair.

The splendid news of the safe arrival of the 9th Siege Battery and Mrs. Kuhring's party of V.A.D. nurses, was received here with joy, for Rothesay had on board the ship at least two soldiers of the battery, Gunners Elmer Puddington and Gordon Clark, and two V.A.D. nurses Miss Dorothy Purdy and Miss Dorothea MacKeen. That they are safe in England is fine.

The Red Cross met on Wednesday, this week, instead of Tuesday. Hostesses at the tea hour were Mrs. Harry Frink and Mrs. Royden Thomson.

The snow storm did not prevent the coming of Mrs. George F. Matthew from St. John this afternoon and she expects this evening to attend the entertainment and Christmas tree at Gondola Point for the Sunday school of St. Luke's church. Mrs. Matthew is guest here of Rev. Canon Daniel and Mrs. Daniel.

His Honor Lieut. Gov. Pugsley and Mrs. Pugslay left on Monday afternoon for Montreal where they went to spend the New Year day with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pugsley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Banks, their son and daughter, Mr. Walter and Miss Norah Banks, were on Tuesday at Renforth, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths.

On Wednesday Mrs. Will Foster and her little daughter Frances were here from St. John, guests of Mrs. Fred Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilbert, Master Rauleigh and Misses Frances and Elsie Gilbert of St. John, spent New Year's day in Rothesay with the Misses Gilbert.

Miss Hazel McArthur, who is attending Miss McClintock's school in Boston, came home to Riverside for the Christmas holidays accompanied by a school friend, Miss Marjory Hall of Portland, Oregan.

Mr. Regiald Cooper is leaving today to visit friends in Boston.

Miss Edith Magee of St. John is this week guest of her aunt, Mrs. Allan W. Daniel.

Guests of Mrs. L. R. Morton and family at Renforth on Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lamoreaux, Miss Zela Lamoreaux and Miss Louise Estey of St. John. Miss Ethel Barnes of St John spent Saturday with Mrs. Morton.

Having spent a week in St. John with Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington and Miss Florence Puddington, returned home on Friday.

Mrs. Thomas Carvell of Hampton is in Rothesay this week on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. D. D. Currie.

On January 1st Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myers entertained at their home at Riverside Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fleming, Mr. Herbert Green and his two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pugsley were New Year day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert.

Miss Hooper spent Tuesday in the city with her sister, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Carleton street.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Hevenor left for Hartford, Conn., accompanied by their daughter, Miss Sue Hevenor, who is to study nursing at a hospital there. Mr. and Mrs. Hevenor will spend a short time in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Flewelling on New Year's day celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. Hosts of friends will unite in the best of good wishes for many happy returns of the day.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Garrett, of Renforth, and their two children spent the day in St. John with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Richards.

Widespread and sincere sympathy is felt for Mr. Archie Morton and family in the death of Mrs. Morton on Saturday night. The funeral took place on Tuesday from St. Paul's church to Fernhill.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton Jan. 4—The New Year was ushered in with an exceptionally cold wave, which seemed to prevent many from paying their usual visits.

The day was quietly spent, but lovers of horse racing, despite the cold weather, enjoyed the sport for a couple of hours on the afternoon.

New Years evening Mr. Peter MacDonald was host at a delightful gentlemen's dinner. Covers were laid for eight.

The same evening, the Ladies Aid of the European War Veteran's Association, entertained the returned soldiers at their rooms on Queen St. Mrs. Robert Fitz Randolph, the president, addressed the men, in a few happy words, after which the president replied, thanking the ladies for the kindly interest taken in them. Lord Ashburnham, then addressed the men, congratulating them on the splendid work they had accomplished for us all, and giving them kindly words of good cheer and encouragement. Gunner Fred Boyd, who was a prisoner of war for two years, gave a most interesting account of his life while a prisoner, and his wonderful escape.

A musical programme was carried out. Among those taking part were Miss Eva Beaver, who sang several selections, in her usual good form, as did Mr. Frank Cooper, (whose singing is always enjoyed) was very generous with his nembers.

Mr. J. W. Smith organist of the Cathedral, rendered several selections on the piano and sang a couple of comic songs. Miss Katherine Lynch also played the piano, and accompanied some of the singers. About ten thirty refreshments were served, and the happy gathering concluded the evening by singing the National Anthem.

Among those present were Lord and Lady Ashburnham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitz Randolph, Major and Mrs. Osborne, Lieut. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooper. Mrs. Lee Babbitt, Miss McLaughlin, Miss Grace Winslow, Mrs. Godenrath, Mrs, Harvey, Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. H. G. McLeod.

On New Year's day, Mrs. John Black, was honored by receiving an overseas badge from the Sir Howard Douglas Chapter of the I. O. D. E. This badge is given to members who have husbands or sons in the overseas forces. Captain Douglas Black who is with the 236th McLean Kilties in England, is the son of Mrs. Black. This lady has the honor of being the first president of the order in New Brunswick, when it was established at the time of the South African war.

Mrs. C. P. Holden invited a few friends into the last Friday for her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Taylor of St. John, who are spending the holiday season here.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Peter MacDonald entertained a number of friends at a musical.

Miss Mabel Sterling of Washington, is home for a month's visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alcorn of Andover were week-end guests of Mr. and J. Alexander Thompson.

Mrs. Fred Baird of Minto, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Albert Edgecombe.

Mrs. Whitehead spent Friday in town, on her way to Boston, where she will proceed to California to spend the winter months.

Captain William Duncan of Chatham, who recently returned home on leave, spent a few days in town, and received a warm welcome from his many friends here.

Mrs. Ketcham, accompanied by her niece Mrs. Hopford, went to Moncton on Saturday to spend ten days.

Cadet Wilfred Richardson is home from Halifax, where he is a student at the Naval College there.

Miss Kitchtn, who is a student at the Powers School of Oratory Boston, returned to her studies on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George Taylor, invited a few friends into Sunday afternoon tea. Among thost present were the Misses Thompson, Miss Marion Crocket, Major Loggie, Lieutnant Bennett, and Lt. Crokshank.

Mayor Loggie of Calgary is spending a few days with his parents Col. and Mrs. Loggie.

The Monday afternoon Bridge Club had its meeting this week with Mrs. Robert McLellan when Miss Sterling was the prize winner.

ST. STEPHEN

St. Stephen, Jan. 3—New Year's day passed quetly in the Border towns, with, as usual, a number of family dinner parties. There was splendid sleighing but the mercury was too low to allow much enjoyment of that pastime. Quite a large party of young people enjoyed the skating with the Band in the Curling Rink.

The Christmas tree given on Friday evening last in the Town Hall for the Soldier's Children was a most enjoyable affair. The Tree was given by the G. W. V. A. assisted by a committee of ladies from the different Patriotic Associations, and the business men of the town were most generous in their contributions.

The Hall was decorated with flags and the two large trees garlanded with tinsel and pop-corn, lit with electric lights, and laden with gifts for the children were a beautiful sight to look upon. The evening was stormy and the guests were not as many in number as was hoped for but nearly one hundred children were present with the mothers, wifes, and sisters of soldiers overseas. Dr. E. V. Sullivan, president of the G. W. V. A., acted as chairman and asked for a short speech from mayor Grimmer of St. Stephen, and Mayor Miner of Calais. Miss Georgie Grimmer sang two delightful solos and Miss Myrtle Ganong gave two very enjoyable readings. After the programme ice cream and cake was served and then came the crowning event of the evening, the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus and the distribution of the gifts. Mr. Santa Claus though a bit chilled from his long ride, was in the best of spirits, and was was ably ably seconded by Mrs. Santa in his efforts to make the children enjoy themselves. Each boy and girl got a gift from the tree and then on going home were presented with an orange and a bag of candy by Mrs. Santa Clause. There was also a guessing contest during the evening for which a number of the older guests drew prizes. Altogethr the evening was a huge success and the boys of the G. W. V. A. deserve hearty congratulations for the way in which they planned and carried out this splendid work for the children of their comrades overseas.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Styles on Duke street, when their daughter, Edith McKinney, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Bishop of Eastport, Me. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Goucher. Miss Annie Porter, organist of Christ Church, played the wedding march and played soft music through the ceremony. The bride wore a travelling costume of navy blue broadcloth with white georgette blouse and black picture hat and a bouquet of brides' roses. They were unattended. After the ceremony a delicious wedding dinner was served. Among the guests were Mrs. Styles, Mrs. Smythe, Dr. and Mrs. Goucher, Miss Annie Porter and Mrs. Cross of Oakland, Me. The happy couple left on the Washington Co. R. R. for a wedding trip to Portland, Boston, and other cities. On their return they will reside in Eastport, where they will be followed by the good wishes of many St. Stephen friends.

The Misses Dorothy and Florence Heustis have returned to Mt. Allison after spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Heustis.

Judge and Mrs. M. N. Cockburn gave a delightful dinner party at the Queen Hotel, St. Stephen, on New Year's night. Covers were laid for nine and a most delicious dinner was served. The table was decorated with American beauty roses and very dainty place cards indicated where each guest should sit. Among the guests were Mrs. E. A. Cockburn, St. Andrews; Mrs. Wm. J. Harper, Calais; Mrs. E. R. Smith, Mrs. M. Burton, Miss Bessie Dinsmore and Miss E. Theodora Stevens. After the table had been considerably lightened of its load of good things and the nuts and coffee were served Mrs. E. R. Smith proposed a toast to "Our Hostess and Host," which was followed by an original and appropriate toast to each guest by our host. After dinner the guests indulged in a most jolly and unscientific game of auction and at a late hour the party broke up, each guest wishing for her host and hostess as much joy through the year as they had given her on its first day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy E. Russell of Grand Harbor, Grand Manan, are registered at the Queen Hotel.
