JACK SHEEHAN WILL REFEREE.

Boston Official Acceptable to Both Ferns and Bennett—Champion Here To-Day.

Failing to secure the consent of Champion Rube Ferns to Official Referee Bennett acting on May 24, the Crescent Club comprehised on Jack Sheehan of Boston, who is acceptable to the McKeesport welterweight, and there will be no delay or further hitch over the 20-round battle in the Mutual-street Rink next Thursday night. While patrons here believe Mr. Bennett capable and unassailable, they were also favorably impressed with Sheehan's work at the Auditorium three years ago, when he officiated for Mike Leonard and Martin Judge, and theatrically refused to let the spectators decide the bout. It was a draw.

Sheehan, who is the editor of The Police News of Boston, wired the club yesterday that he would be on hand sure, and everyone may rest assured that the correct decision will be reached.

Jack Bennett put in a hard day at Campbell's Gymnasium, boxing six rounds each with Kilty and Champion McCarthy and 10 with Jack Sullivan, weighing 135 pounds after the exercise. Sullivan finds that he will have no trouble in making 135 pounds for Roach. Archie Woods has challenged the winner, and the Philadelphian says for him it must be 133 pounds. J. R. Bennett will referee the 10 and 5-round bouts. The reserved seat plan opened at Wilson's yesterday, with all the old-timers in line. Orders came from Peterboro, Petrolea, Orillia, Guelph and other centres. The usual block was marked off for Hamilton patrons.

Jim Ferns and his trainer will be here this morning, putting up at Scholes' Hotel.

Jim Ferns the Champion.

Buffalo, May 21.—Jim Ferns, who writes welterweight champion after his name, notwithstanding Matty Matthews' claim to the honor, is in the finest of condition for his meeting with Jack Bennett at Toronto on May 24. He is already at the stipulated weight—142 pounds—and, with his trainers, Denny Murray and Kehr, has been working like a beaver at Black Rock. He finished a ten-mile spin yesterday strong in wind and muscle.

Interviewed by The Express representative, the Rube said:

"Altho I am confident that I will put Bennett's away nicely, nevertheless, I am not underestimating his ability and expect to find in him a tough customer. Anyone who can fight Matthews off his feet for seven rounds and close his right eye, while traveling the distance, is worthy of respect beyond question. He has trained faithfully for me, expecting, in case he wins, he will get a return match with Matthews. I'll be fight this time to a certainty.

"I hope my next battle will be with Matthews, who, I see, questions my right to the championship. I'm the champion. In regard to winning it on a foul, I will only say to him that it would be an easy matter for a champion who was getting beat down, like I—was beating Smith, to simply commit a foul and save his reputation. Such a trick is not recognized in the boxing game. If it was boxing would be in a nice state of affairs. My decision over Smith is as bona fide as Matthews' is, and, as I beat him first, I claim the championship.

"Immediately after the Bennett match I will, in company with my manager, leave for New York, and corral Matthews to settle our disputed title. It's the height of my ambition to meet him."

The Pugilistic Situation.

According to recent interviews with prominent pugilists the heavyweight situation this week is as follows:

Jeffries says he'll fight Corbett in two weeks or sooner, winner of Sharkey-McCoy fight before Sept. 1, winner of Fitzsimmons-Ruhlin fight before Sept. 1, and then retire for a year to tour the country with his theatrical company.

Corbett says he'll fight Jeffries for the championship when his injured hand will permit him, which will be in about four months.

Fitz says he'll fight them all—Ruhlin first, then Jeffries, Sharkey and McCoy.

Sharkey says he'll fight McCoy on June 25 (articles signed), winner of Fitzsimmons-Ruhlin fight before July 25, and if successful will then meet Jeffries before Aug. 25.

McCoy says he'll fight Sharkey on June 25, and if he wins he will fight Jeffries for the championship before Sept. 1.

Ruhlin says he'll fight Jeffries after his fight with Fitzsimmons on June 1.

St. Clement's Bicycle Club.

The election of officers for the above club resulted as follows: President, Mr. W. J. Burns; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Chas. J. Shea; captain, Mr. J. A. McNamara. The club held their first run of the season on Sunday last to McCole's farm, Eglinton. There were about 35 members present. Captain J. A. McNamara promises a very successful season for this club, and the turnout on Sunday was beyond the expectation of even the knowing ones. Their next run will be on Sunday, May 27, from the club rooms, 184 William-street, at 8 a.m., to Hoskin's at Dixie, and all prospective members are invited to communicate with the secretary, Mr. Charles V. Shea, at the club rooms.

DALMOOR'S WOODBINE TRIAL

Queen's Plate Favorite Ran the Distance in 2.16 1-2 and Mr. Seagram is Satisfied.

HIS OTHER PLATERS SEEM SLOW

A Record of the Best Work at the Track Three Days Before the Races.

At last the numerous railbirds have had their greatest wish gratified. Yesterday morning they saw the favorite Dalmoor work out the full journey for the Guineas, after watching every morning for a week. Some of them were pleased, while others were dissatisfied, for the time was not as fast as was generally expected.

Shortly after 10 o'clock seven horses were brought down from Newmarket, including the three Platers—Dalmoor, Ottoman and Sardinia. There were also Mr. Jersey, Flag of Truce, Cobourg and Joe Miller. They were breezed a quarter, together, and then worked out in three lots. The first set consisted of Sardinia and Ottoman, with Joe Miller to set the pace. The time for the Plate distance was 2.20¼, with Joe Miller six lengths the best of it, going on finishing the mile and a half in 2.49¼. The fractional times for the journey were: :27, :40½, :54¼, 1.07¾, 1.22, 1.36⅘, 1.51, 2.04, 2.20¼, 2.49¼. Thus it looks as if these Platers will not do, as they were driven out, and failed to show the speed.

Dalmoor and Flag of Truce were the next out. There was a heavy wind blowing down the stretch, which interfered somewhat with the speed. The journey was made in 2.16½, with the favorite well ridden out by Lewis, who was about seven pounds shy. The fractional times for the distance were: :26, :41, :53¾, 1.20½, 1.34½, 1.47¾, 2.16½.

The last pair—Mr. Jersey and Cobourg—only ran the mile. The time was 1.47, Mr. Jersey doing it handily.

It is now a settled fact that if Mr. Seagram is to win the coveted prizes, the big horses must do the work, as the other pair are hardly fast enough to set the pace for Dalmoor.

Work was done by almost every horse at the track, and it kept the men with the watches busy, for the horses were breaking from almost every pole.

The Hendrie lot were worked in two sets, the 2-year-olds first, they only getting stiff gallops. The older horses—Martimas, Lavarock, Dance, Provost, Barley Sugar, White Clover and Play Fun—were galloped a half in :53½.

Martatna was sent a mile in 1.47¼.

Award and Dryden were given a half in :53.

High Tide was galloped a mile in 1.57¼.

Jim Megibben and Erwin were sent five furlongs in 1.09.

Alice Farley was breezed a half in :55.

Sandurango was treated to six furlongs in 1.20¼.

Vint worked a half in :53¾.

Flying Bess went a mile, pulled up, in 1.50.

Rosy Morn worked a half in :53, the quarter in :26¾.

Maid of Erin and Bell of Elkton went a mile and a quarter in 2.33.

Jack Carey reeled off six furlongs in 1.23¼.

Oakville Maid, Daddy and Litigation went five furlongs in 1.09¾.

Ray Salazar and Jack Addy breezed three-quarters in 1.20.

Jesse Jarbo and Athy went five furlongs in 1.07.

Nancy Till went six furlongs in 1.22.

Howard S. went a mile in 1.50 flat.

Bromo, Beguile and Violent went five furlongs in 1.09.

Trainer Ed White of the Hendrie lot said yesterday that if he had six weeks more with The Provost, all the others Platers would tip their hats to him.

Al Songer is back from St. Louis, and says that he has secured no papers of reinstatement, but he was told by the stewards over there that if the O.J.C. would let him ride it would be all right. The O.J.C. meet to-day to consider his case.

Jockey Walter Murray met with a painful accident yesterday. While he was rubbing Laurentian, the horse bit him in the leg above the knee. Dr. D. King Smith attended the boy and found the muscles badly bruised.

Passe Partout got beyond control of his attendant exercising him yesterday, and in trying to check his speed the boy pulled out one of his teeth.

Secretary Fraser is having the steeplechase course put in shape for Thursday.

Advance Guard and Zoroaster were given light work yesterday.

Mr. Joseph Seagram, who saw Dalmoor work yesterday, would say nothing but that he was pleased with the trial.

Good Racing at Morris Park.

New York, May 21.—A card of six overnight events was run off to-day at Morris Park. The track was heavy, and scratches reduced the fields to small proportions. Corrigan's Horses for England.

New York, May 21.—Edward Corrigan's horses, twelve in number, destined to race this season on the English turf, are now safely domiciled at the export stable, foot of Thirty-sixth-street, North River. On Saturday next these horses will begin the ocean stage of the long journey from San Francisco to Newmarket, England, where they will be duly raced, should they land safely and meet with no mishaps.

Up to date the horses show no ill result from what is usually regarded by horsemen as a long and arduous journey for either man or beast. The full list is herewith given: Adolph Spreckels, Sardonic, Golden Rule, Chimura, Orenus, St. Casimir, Sam Tate, Col. Bartlett (hurdler), Geyser, M. F. Tarpey, Tarsney, Father Yorke.

In addition to the foregoing horses a young California trainer and rider named C. E. Durnell will accompany the horses with his own racer, Dr. Sheppard, 6 years, by Buchanan, out of Voltine. A driving mare from California will be one of the party also.

City Whist Championship.

The committee of the Canadian Whist League has decided to hold a progressive pairs contest for the city championship at the Athenaeum Club, Church-street. The game will commence at 8 o'clock, and will be played under the Howell system, which has just arrived in Canada. Altho every member of all whist organizations is expected to be present, the committee wish it distinctly understood that this contest is open to any whist player in the city, irrespective of league membership, and every player will be cordially welcomed. It is advisable that pairs should be formed before the night of the contest, but failure in this respect need keep no one away, as partners will be found on Wednesday evening for all who have been unable to make arrangements.

Its quality and age never vary. The colonial taste as regards flavor has also been carefully considered and given effect to. Adams & Burns, sole agents, 3 Front-street East, Toronto.

To Fly the Old Burgee.

A meeting of the members of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club was held on Saturday night, called at the request of several members for the purpose of rescinding the resolution adopting the new Burgee. The arguments brought forth were of the warmest kind. It was finally decided to use the old Burgee this season and to vote again on the matter of changing at the meeting in November, when the Sailing Committee is elected. A great many of the older members cannot see any harm in having everyone wear the flag, and as it is known almost all over the country they believe in sticking to the old pennant. On the other hand the younger members say that the club flag should be worn only by members.

The Toronto Scots are requested to turn out in force for practice to-night, as on Saturday they meet the Gore Vales in a league match.

TORONTO WON BY 12 TO 9

Hitting Galore Towards the Finish and Hartford Stayed For 10 Innings.

HOME RUNS BY ROTHFUS AND MASSEY

Hartford at the Island Again To-Day and Toronto Will Likely Leave the Bottom.

It looked like old times yesterday when Toronto pounded out the gameat the finish. To make it sure, Catcher Steelman became dopey, and two Toronto runs scored while the ball a few feet away. Some fans wonder why Barnie works a second-rater behind the bat, with Bill Urquhart on the bench. The new infielder arrived too late for the game, but the infusion of Rothfus had the desired effect. Dundon will work at short to-day, while Cockman or Bruce may replace Taylor at second, the captain being under the weather. Foreman will pitch this afternoon, and his southpaw shoots should make it easy for Toronto. The record:

| | Won. | Lost. | P.C. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Rochester | 15 | 5 | .750 |
| Springfield | 10 | 7 | .588 |
| Montreal | 10 | 7 | .588 |

| Worcester | 8 | 10 | .444 |
| Hartford | 6 | 13 | .316 |
| Toronto | 5 | 12 | .294 |

Games to-day: Hartford at Toronto; Providence at Rochester; Springfield at Syracuse.

Toronto Won in 10 Innings.

The game at the Island yesterday had a regular '97 batting finish, and the loyal bunch of fans yelled themselves hoarse in the tenth, when Schaub, after his three-base hit, crossed the plate on Louis Bruce's single that scored the winning run. It was see-saw all the way with the cast-offs from Hartford doing a little slugging on their own account.

Two bases on balls, a sacrifice and Massey's single gave the visitors an early lead that was increased in the third on errors by Schaub and Rothfus and Massey's second hit.

Toronto took them back in the fourth on singles by Grey, Carr, Roach, Taylor and Schaub, Bannon's sacrifice and an error by Gatins. But Hartford went again ahead in their half on a single and two doubles. Another single and a double in the sixth put on a run for Barnie's men.

Toronto was knocking off the three, and the seventh saw another bunch, three doubles in a row and a base on balls doing the trick. Bill Massey was in hitting mood and followed Shindle's single with a plunk over the fence and Toronto was again behind.

Two singles and a home run by Rothfus carried the next trio for the Islanders, but in the last half of the eighth two singles and a stolen base made it again an even break.

After Taylor retired, third to first in the tenth, Schaub struck the ball in the netting for three bags and Bruce hit cleanly between first and second. Just to clinch the thing Grey and Bannon singled, Steelman going in the air on a throw to the plate.

The enemy submitted gracefully in their half, Ward's long fly to Rothfus being difficult, but it ended the game. The clean hitting of Grey and Massey were the features. Donovan wanted to retire with Alloway in the seventh, and thereafter pitched like a loser. The score:

At London—Hamilton lost thru inability to bunch hits at opportune times, aided by very loose fielding at critical moments, while on the other hand London's errors, altho not as numerous, were scattered, while their hitting came at the proper time and was of the heavy order, a clean home run by Hart being a feature. ## NOTES OF THE NATIONAL GAME.

Toronto Lacrosse Team to Meet the Nationals Selected—Over 200 New Members.

Talk about life in lacrosse circles! The Toronto Club can show some life in this respect that is hard to excel. At a meeting of the directors last evening the two-hundred mark in new members was passed. As a matter of fact, the Toronto Club have elected 209 new members this year, so far. This is a good record, and shows vigorous life.

The game Thursday will start at 3 o'clock. President Rutter will face the ball and the game will start promptly on the hour.

The band of the Army and Navy Veterans will play before and during the recess of the game.

A handsomely engrossed address is being prepared by the T.L. & A. Committee for presentation to Mr. Richard Garland.

The Team Committee of the Toronto Lacrosse Club selected the twelve to represent the club for the match with the Nationals on May 24, and the opening game will witness an exceedingly fast team, as follows: Goal, W. Hanley; point, G. Clewes; cover, G. Wheeler; defence, A. Stewart, H. Lambe, A. Iler; centre, Fred Moran; home, Charles Querrie, J. Murray, Frank Moran; outside, W. Lillie; inside, W. Greatrix.

The twelve are in good condition and have been hard at work for some weeks.

The grounds at Rosedale, under Caretaker Oakley, are looking well, and the club house has been improved, and a general air of prosperity hovers about the grounds.

All players of the Walmer Lacrosse Club are urgently requested to be present for practice on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to get into shape for the match with W.E.Y.M.C.A., on May 24. On Wednesday night the team will be picked.
