FALLING PHONE IS BURGLAR ALARM

"Central" Listens, Hears Tap of Tools on Safe Door and Calls For Assistance.

EAST GRAND FORKS, N.D. June 9.—A crash heard over the telephone by the exchange operator gave the alarm which prevented bandits from robbing the safe at the Northern Pacific station here early to-day.

The hold-up men entered the station at 4 a.m., and covering Guy Clements, the night agent, with a gun, they began robbing the till. Clements boldly reached out for the telephone to call for assistance and had the receiver off the hook when one of the robbers sandbagged him from behind, the telephone clattering to the ground as he fell.

"Central" already had plugged in on the line and hearing the crash suspected that something was wrong. Presently she heard the tapping of the tools the bandits were using on the lock of the safe. She notified Mr Charles McGowan, freight agent. He reached the station just as the outlaws, hearing his approach, made their get-away in an automobile.

When he entered, Clements was lying on the floor unconscious, but he is expected to recover.

Organizing posses are searching the country and the surrounding towns have been notified. The robbers escaped with $25 stolen from the cash drawer.

FLAME REKINDLED BY PHOTOGRAPH

Sweathearts of 32 Years Ago, Twice Married Since, Are Brought Together.

DULUTH, Minn., June 9—A photograph of his sweetheart of thirty-two years ago, which recently fell into the hands of Simon Poirier, mayor of Bonaventure, Quebec, Can., rekindled the love which he cherished as a youth for Miss Louise Brotherton, now Mrs. Louise Morris, No. 217 South Sixtieth avenue, west.

When the two were sweethearts, back in theState of Maine, Mr. Poirier was studing for the priesthood. He gave up the idea when the two became engaged. A quarrel resulted in the young woman urging the young man to continue his studies for the clergy, and their separation. He, however, did not go into the work of the church, but became a business man.

Both married twice during the intervening years. Mrs. Morris is the widow of Joseph Morris, who died two years ago, and with whom she lived for eighteen years. Her first husband's name was Blanchard.

The photograph was sent to Mr. Poirier by his sister, who learned that Mrs. Morris was living in Duluth. Mr. Poirier came here three weeks ago. He wil return to Quebec, and with him will go his sweetheart of his youth They will be married in Quebec immediately after their arrival there. Mrs. Morris' sons, Alden and Basil Morris and her daughters, Miss Rena Blanchard and Miss Artense Morris, will accompany them, and act as attendants at the wedding.

Mrs. Morris lived in Duluth nearly twenty years and has many friends in West Duluth.

Circus Grounds.

It is likely that the big Ringling Bros circus here on Friday will be held on the Holmedale grounds.

Frank Marino of Brooklyn, was sitting at supper with his bride of less than a year when somebody shot him three times fatally. His wife chased the masked assassin but failed to catch him.

With The Regiments At Niagara Camp

[From Our Own Correspondent]

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, June 9—The tattoo that in previous years has always been held on Thursday evening in camp is to come off on Tuesday evening this year. Nine bands will take part, one of the features being that the full pipe band of the 91st Highlanders of Hamilton is to represent that regiment.

In marking out the grounds, space is to be made for each regiment. Heretofore space was only allotted to each brigade. This will necessitate a very much increased area. Another new feature this year is that each band will render a selection in addition to the numbers played by the massed bands.

The advent of the trolley from St. Catharines and neighboring villages will no doubt largely add to the numbers that in the past have gathered from all quarters in autos, some coming from Buffalo.

While the cavalry brigade were performing a night operation on Friday night in the vicinity of Thorold one of the troopers of the second Dragoons was taken suddenly ill. He was conveyed to the nearest hospital, which was Niagara Falls, at midnight, Upon arrival it was discovered to be appendicitis. Being an aggravated case, the medical men in charge decided to operate, but the patient refused. However when morning came he consented and the operation was performed successfully and his condition reported favorably.

19 Cases in Hospital.

There are 19 cases in the hospital in camp, most of them being from accidents occasioned by being either thrown from or kicked by their horses, none of them being serious. No Brantford men are laid up. One man of the XI. Field Ambulance has a magnificent black eye as the result of being thrown and striking the saddle in his fall.

The subordinate staff in camp is doing splendid work from the camp sergt.-major (Sergt-Major Ritton, R. C.R.) down, and especially is this true of the C.M.S. clerks, who are kept busy from early morning till late at night, for in addition to performing all the duties connected with the camp the correspondence of the whole division has to be kept up.

Complete Pay Sheets.

The paymaster, having mustered all the units in camp, has to begin over again today and count those of the city corps who arrived on Saturday. In the short space of five days all pay sheets must be completed and the cheques made out, so that all units may receive their pay on Friday by noon at the latest, as some of the troops will leave for home by noon that day. The advent of the city troops will increase the work considerably.

Major John Fitz Madden commanding Fort Niagara, and Lt. James Garfield McIlroy of the 29th U. S. Infantry, called on General Lessard and staff on Friday afternoon. It being ladies' day quite a few of the fair sex were present, five nursing sisters being among the number.

Ladies' Day.

Among the women who wil be present on Tuesday are expected representatives from the W. C. T. U., Woman's Institute, National Council Daughters of the Empire, University ress, Woman's Club and others. About 30 are expected. Secretaries of women's societies have been informed that the presence of ladies is desired who have never attended camp and who may be opposed to military service; such will be made welcome. From 11 a.m. till luncheon the time will be spent in visiting the comp, seeing the work being done in kitchens, hospital and rations. Then historic points, such as Fort George and Butler's Baracks, will be visited, after which luncheon will be served in the compound. In the afternoon a review and march past will take place.

IS NOW A SCOUT

T. F. Best Was Here Yesterday in Behalf of Hamilton's Big Exposition.

Mr Thos. F. Best, secretary of the Hamilton Y. M. C. A., and for years secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, is in the city with a view to interesting Brantford manufacturers in the industrial exhibition at Hamilton in July. There will be a Brantford day at the exposition, and the 38th band will play. Last night Mr. Best conferred with the directors of the local Y. M. C. A. The Hamilton exposition takes place July 6-18 and promises to be an affair of many attractions.

CHURCH UNION

and the matter should have been dropped. The following resolution was prepared by the committee on church union at that time: "Owing to strong opposition union is not feasible at the present time."

This resolution never saw the assembly. At the next assembly in Edmonton a resolution was presented, which pressed toward organic union. It has been said that the minority should submit. Speaking of survey of church conditions in Canada presented in printed form to the assembly, Dr. Scott said, "the survey is a misleading document. It was declared at the outset to be in favor of organic union. Reading the document, one would infer that there were thirty-five places in urgent need of a change. I went over each of these places and found only nine often in need of a change. On the whole the survey does not represent conditions as they are. I freely admit that the union would make some readjustments which are impossible now.

Dr. Scott advocated that all negotiations be discontinued for the present. It may be three years and it may be ten years before it should come up. Speaking of the statement made by Dr Clark that if the church went back and did not proceed with union, that ill-feeling would be aroused between Presbyterians and Methodists. "I have a beetter opinion of the Methodists than that,'" said the speaker. Dr. Scott presented the minority resolution that negotiations for organic union be discontinued as an amendment, to the motion presented by the majority of the committee on church union.

The discussion will be continued this afternoon.

Dr T. Wilbur Chapman was welcomed by the moderator this morning, and will address the commissioners this afternoon.

Principal McKay of Vancouver emphatically protested against reports of a misleading character, contained in certain morning newspapers in regard to his stand on church union. He asserted that it was not true, as stated in the papers, that he favored the present movement, or that he had changed his mind.

Came Through Storm

R. T. Stillman, Frank Bone and party of five other Brantfordites came through the big storm at Woodstock on Sunday in a Ford car. They report the experience as a thrilling one.
