and the noble edifice preserved to the people of St. John. The claims of the institution on the public were prominently put forth and the realization of the scheme left to the voice of the stockholders.

After a semi-informal discussion of various points Mr. Gordon Livingston arose and objected to the proceedings on the ground of informality. He wished to see the meeting regularly organized and the minutes read.

Mr. J. R. Armstrong, Secretary, stated that it was not usual to read the proceedings of a special meeting until the next annual gathering. This was allowed to pass as an explanation. Mr. Charles McLaughlin, Jr., then arose and inquired as to the amount of tickets to be sold in the city proper. The president answered that St. John might take and that the remaining portion might be sent through Canada and the United States. The lottery at Louisville where $1,000,000, was the amount to be raised had proved a success on 75 per cent. why then should this scheme be a failure?

Mr. John Melick next desired to know the conditions. He was, as a shareholder, desirous of hearing whether the party drawing $10,000 was to pass clear or give a champagne supper "for the crowd." On this no debate was taken.

Dr. Ring was strongly in favor of the scheme, and reported that a million had been raised in Louisville.

Mr. Lanergan: But this was in Louisville. The inference was that the amount could not be raised in St. John city at the present time. Humorous remarks were made by Messrs. Lanergan, Gordon Livingstone and others. Mr. Lanergan moved a vote of thanks to the directors for their action in coming forward to relieve the institution. Mr. Livingston moved an adjournment until Thursday, after which the meeting adjourned.

REDUCED PRICES.—Mr. David Muller has reduced the prices of sewing machines, dress patterns, &c., in order to give his customers a favorable opportunity to secure Christmas presents at low rates. See adv't.

Almost a Casualty.

About ten o'clock this morning the expansion pipe of the tug boat Relief separated, causing severe injuries to Mr. Robt. McKeon, engineer, who was standing by at the time. The injured man, who belongs to Portland, was attended by Dr. Holden and taken to his residence. Capt. Mason and Quigley and Charles Brown, the firemen, narrowly escaped injury.

A Ray of Light.

The Boston Post says that in the fearful prevalence of brutal murders and conviction of parties of the most unnatural and dreadful crimes whom suspicion never rested on before, it is soothing balm to our almost absolute distrust, a gentle check on growing misanthropy, to find the character of anyone charged with one of these deeds of diabolism putting on a purer lustre the more it is examined. Just now that seems to be the case in the trial of Mr. Ernest Allenquist, draughtsman for the Scientific American, whom his wife has brought into court on a charge of attempting to poison herself and their common offspring. The strongest efforts of the prosecution have failed to produce evidence that any man need fear no encounter. The fellow workmen of Mr. Allenquist give him an excellent reputation, and say they believe him to have been a good, true and honorable man. The doctors disagree on the question of whether any signs of poisoning were manifest, and the druggist who sold Mrs. Allenquist the emetic when she came in and claimed to be poisoned, said she asked for it with a smile upon her face. As for the accused, though acting like a grieved man, he has not at all the appearance of a guilty one, and seems much shocked at the character of the charges against him, which he denies in the strongest terms. The lady herself may very likely be sincere in her belief, even though her husband be innocent, as now appears, for ill-health has recently been her portion, tending to produce a morbid, despondent state, which takes a gloomy and distorted view of everything.

While Prof. Tyndall was lecturing one night last week, in New York, his baggage was rifled at the hotel of $300 and valuables.

Disasters.

Schr Ella Amsden, Wixon, from Windsor, NS, for Philadelphia, arrived at Galveston 20th inst, reports—Experienced a heavy gale on the 14th inst, during which one of the seamen, named William Ware, of Baltimore, had his leg broken. On the 16th inst, at midnight, in a thick snow storm, with fresh breze from NW, the mate, Mr Frank Freitus, fell from the jib-boom overboard and was drowned. All efforts to save him proved unavailing. He was a native of Boston, where he leaves a widow and one son.

Schr Nilsson, of Jonesport, Capt Keene, from Boston for St John, NB, to load for Cuba, is reported wrecked on Flagred Island, near Machias—total loss. Crew saved. The S was 287 tons, built at Jonesport, Me, in 1870, and owned there.

Schr North America, Romkey, from Sydney, CB, for Boston, encountered a gale on the 11th inst, off Owls Head, NS, and was struck by a sea which broke the mainboom, striking the captain, breaking three of his ribs, and cutting him severely on the head. U S R venue Cutter Dobbin arrived at Castine, 18 inst, with brig Kate, Archibald, from Maitland, NS, for Portland, with plaster. The bark J T Smith, of Parrsboro, N S, loaded at New York 20th inst, from Antwerp, 5 days, reports—was 10 days in the English Channel with heavy westerly gales; then took the Southern passage and had moderate weather. Nov 10, Richard McDuffey, seaman, native of Parrsboro, N S, aged 19 years, while towing the jib, was washed overboard and drowned.

Freights.

HAVANA, Dec 15th—The proximity of increased receipts of new molasses and sugars has caused the demand and rates for the United States to improve, while for Europe a continued quietness is noticed. The charters are: For New York—Bark Martha A Berry, 750 hhds melado from Matanzas at 50c; schr L W Wheeler, 400 do from do at same rates. For Baltimore—schr Cora Ktis, cargo molasses from do at 53½ per 110 gallons. For North (Cape Hatteras) hence; brig Hattie Ross, 250 hhds sugar at 84; brig Globe, 400 do at same rate, and it ordered to load at Sagua, 84¼. For Mobile and back, bark Earlydon, lumber at $14; brig Alruna, do at $13.

PORTLAND, ME, Dec 12th—The demand for vessels for Cuba is over, and there is now an excess of tonnage. The engagements since last report are bark Elen Stevens hence to Matanzas at round sum of $2,000 out; brig Mattie B Russel hence to Los Tunis and back North of Hatteras at $6 for molasses and $5 50 for sugar; schr Anna Lyon hence to Matanzas, at round sum of $2000 out. Coastwise—The demand for lumber vessels to New York and Boston has fallen off, and there is but little offering just now for those places; there is more of a demand for Savannah and Southern ports: schr Amanda Hale was taken for Savannah at $2 for lump plaster, and 55c for hay, with a return freight from Darien to Portland at $-3 for resawed hard pine; schr Seguin for Savannah at 90c ⅌ bbl for phosphate and ground plaster, and a return cargo to Portland at $13 for resawed hard pine; brig Frontier from Savannah to Damariscotta at $11 40 for hard pine, brig Isa from do to Portland at $12 for do do.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 11th—There were six good ships and three barks disengaged in port this morning. The rates are altogether nominal. We cannot quote Wheat Freights to Liverpool above £4, and it is doubtful whether £3 15s could be obtained. There is over 60,000 tons of tonnage in port under engagement for wheat, and hence no particular anxiety for more at present.
