Poetry.

"Labor Omnia Vincit."

BY WILLIAM C. LODGE.

Labor! io, from plain and mountain,
City-world and wildwood free,
Ocean, river, lake, and fountain,
Rise the choral strains for thee:
Thou that spreadest richest treasures,
With a full and liberal hand,
Scatt'ring forth the choicest pleasures,
Broadcast o'er this happy land.

In thy train are Joy and Gladness,
Virtue, Truth, and rosy Health,
But no slave of sluggish sadness
Gathers up thy boundless wealth.
Those who in thy cause are banded,
Rend the rock and till the soil;
Men of iron-nerves, hard-handed,
Stalwart sons of honest toil.

To their work thy votaries springing,
With the lark, at dawn of day,
Hear the tramping, clattering, singing—
Busy music—labor's lay.
Summer, Autumn, Winter dreary,
Spring time with its notes of glee,
Find us ready, never weary,
Weaving garlands bright for thee.

Thou can'st, by thy touch of power,
Change the sterile desert's gloom,
'Till it smile with fruits and flowers,
Gardens of the sweetest bloom,
And in far off lands benighted,
Kindle bright the glorious flame,
'Till the heathen world, delighted,
Learn to lisp Jehovah's name.

Earth, before thy tread discloses
Hidden secrets of her womb,
Where the precious ore reposes,
Buried in the depths of gloom.
Mountains, where the wild storm rages,
Till it shake the upper world;
Giant rocks, of countless ages,
Low beneath thy arm are hurl'd.

Thou, the ocean depths o'erleaping;
Space, no barrier builds for thee;
Time, from thee, holds not in keeping
One unravelled mystery.
Polar regions, drear and icy,
Climes of summer's burning sun,
All proclaim thy veni vici,
Glorious meet so nobly won.

Cold, complaining, man of leisure,
Beggar clothed in wretchedness,
Disappointed child of pleasure,
Labor can your woes redress;
In his store-house there are treasures,
Safe specifics for each pain,
Antidotes and stingless pleasures—
Work, and you will sure obtain.

PAPER.—Paper is now manufactured in all its stages by machinery, and thus, instead of a single sheet being made by hands, as in the olden times, a stream of paper which would form a roll large enough to extend round the globe, if such length were desirable. The proprietors of one of these improved machines in England, it is said, spent the enormous sum of £40,000 in vain attempts to render it capable of determining the exact length of the roll, and at least accomplished the object at the suggestion of a bystander, by a strap revolving on an axis, at a cost of three shillings and six pence.

A SECRET FOR BACHELORS.—All the Arabs are astonished when I tell them the British sovereign is a lady. They have enough to do to believe it; indeed, some of them do not, and think I am trifling with their credulity. It goes against the grain especially, to be ruled over by a woman, though many them from my own knowledge, are entirely under the influence of their wives, in private, as all or most men are.—RICHARDSON'S Travels in the Sahara.

UNKIND.—An Oswetry lady, who took offence at something in the newspaper of the day, sent it home in a huff, declaring that she would "never borrow that paper again."

"I am glad this coffee don't owe me anything," said an accountant at his breakfast. "Why so?" inquired his wife. "Cause I don't believe it would ever settle," he replied.

A gentleman late one evening met his servant, "Halloo, where are you going to at this time o' night; on no good, I'll warrant?"—"I was going to look for you, sir."

Some sensible fellow, who has never been either loved or kissed, perpetrates the following:—"The best way to get along with women is, to keep them well loved all the time. Woman can never be satisfied until she is loved to death. Keep her mouth stopped with kisses, and she cannot scold.

The undersigned has spent several years in the study of Veterinary practice in "London and Edinboro'," he has also availed himself of the researches of Leibig, and other celebrated men, who have contributed so much towards a judicious treatment of animals; the principles of our practice consists of the rejection of general bleeding and the total rejection of all medicines that experience has shown is be of a dangerous tendancy. TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great Eastern Remedy."
It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING and TRIUMPHANT.
As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs, Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is unrevaled. But the Proprietor is to confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening in the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid;—the agent or proprietors of other and farther beyond the reach of hope.
Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy, a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!
[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]
There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
