DYKEMAN'S

CHRISTMAS

is coming and you are sure to want presents for friends. Why not buy them now, when you can get the cream of the stock at a great saving.

Here are a lot of Japanese handworked Table Linens which are marked at about half their usual price. They came into our possession in a most unusual way. About 300 pieces altogether, consisting of small doilies, medium and large centre-pieces, table covers, bureau and sideboard scarfs.

The Doilies are from 3 cents to 50 cents each.

Centre pieces from 15 cents to 75 cents each.

Table Covers from 45 cents to $1.50. When you can buy a handsome drawn thread and hand-embroidered Table Cover at $1.00 that usually sells for $1.75, such a saving is worth looking after.

Over 800 Sample Handkerchiefs. The entire set of samples of one of the largest Swiss manufacturers. These handkerchiefs are of the better grades, many of them mounted on cardboard, are perfectly fresh and clean. They make delightful gifts at very small cost. Many of these handkerchiefs are pure linen and are priced from 15 cents to 35 cents.

Some of the finest Irish Point Edged Handkerchiefs are priced 35, 45, and up to 90 cents each. The regular prices of these would be from 60 cents to $1.50.

A lot of Swiss Embroidered edge Handkerchiefs of the superior makes are now priced from 15 cents to 50c. Regular prices would be from 25 to 75 cents each.

ALPS FLIGHT AGAIN DELAYED

King George Greets President Elect of Berlin --- Cable News of the Old World Capitals.

Brig, Switzerland, Sept. 20—Today's weather was unfavorable for flying and the cross-Alps aviation competition was again delayed. Snow fell in the mountains during the night and this morning a strong wind was blowing through the Simplon Pass and rain fell. George Shavez the Peruvian and Weymann, the American, who were forced to give up after struggles with adverse air currents yesterday, demonstrated, however that death to the aviator is not, as has been freely declared, the only alternative of a successful flight after the start has once been made and both remain on the field prepared to set out for Italy at the first favorable opportunity.

London Sept. 20—King George has sent out a cordial message of welcome to Marshal Hermes De Fonseca, the president-elect of Brazil, who arrived in London from Paris last night. The King expressed regret that his absence in Scotland would prevent him from having the pleasure of meeting the president. It is understood, however, that the latter may visit the King a Balmoral.

Paris, Sept. 20—General Brun, Minister of War, announces that the Aeronauts who took part in the army manoeuvres will receive special recompensation for their services. Those on the active list will be promoted, while the reservists Label and Breuet will be given the Legion of Honor.

Vienna, Sept. 20—Emperor William arrived here today and for two days will be the guest of Emperor Francis Joseph at Schoenbrunn.

Madrid, Sept. 20.— Violent storms accompanied by rain, have done inestimable damage to the vineyards and other orchards in Southern Spain. Eight villages, including Lorea and Gieza are under water from three to six feet deep.

The lower section of Barcelona is flooded and the tramway service in that part of the city is interrupted. The waters have reached the altars of St. Paul's Church.

Lisbon, Sept. 20.—One hundred persons were injured today in a railroad train wreck near Oporto. The accident occurred on the Povoa railway at the little station of Senhora Da Wora.

CHINESE DIPLOMATS TO ATTEND CONGRESS

San Francisco, Sept. 20. — Enroute to Washington, D.C., to represent the Chinese government at the prison prison congress next month, A. L.Ahlo and Ky King, arrived here yesterday from Pekin. Both commissioners are on the bench of the Chinese Supreme Court and were selected to attend the congress because of their knowledge of English.

According to Commissioner Ahlo, China is rapidly modernizing her prison system and now has four up-to-date penitentiaries.

LOOK NOW FOR ELECTIONS IN GREAT BRITAIN

Anticipated That January Will be Longest That Government Will Last—Foreign Issues Being Introduced.

New York, Sept. 20.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables: An eminent Unionist organizer has expressed the conviction that general elections will be held in January, in consequence of the failure of the veto conference. His main ground for this opinion is the effect of the coronation pageantry in stimulating loyalty. The Republican movement in England has collapsed, since Queen Victoria's jubilees, and King Edward's coronation pageants have popularized monarchy and impaired the resources of democracy, and this tendency will be strengthened by the spectacles and revels of next year.

So well is this truth understood on the Liberal side that the best organizers agree that the veto question must be taken up early in the year or dropped altogether. If the government attempts to continue the present armistice to defer an appeal to the country until the autumn of next year it will find itself without an issue of paramount importance, and will be overwhelmed by the swelling tide of loyal enthusiasm for the Crown and the Empire. This is the opinion of an expert politician, and it is confirmed by evidences of the anxiety of both Nationalist and Labor leaders to hasten the elections. The departure of John Redmond and three associates for American and Canadian bases of supplies indicates an urgent necessity for filling the war chest and being prepared for a crisis at the end of the year.

Labor Leaders Advise Coalition.

The labor leaders at the Trade Union Congress have been even more explicit in forecasting a general election in January and a close coalition with Radicalism for legalizing political levies. The pressure of the extremists is increasing for fighting out the constitutional issue instead of compromising it, by secret bargaining, and the Free Traders have persuaded themselves that it will be easier to beat the Tariff Reformers before than after the coronation. The Unionists are expecting a failure of the conference and have already begun to canvass in the small towns, where vans are covered with posters, heavily stocked with leaflets and equipped with gramophones and magic lanterns.

Lord Rosebery is expected to play an important part in the political crisis, since his resolutions dealing with the reform of the Lords will have precedence over the veto resolutions. If the conference breaks down, the veto resolutions cannot be blocked and if the Prime Minister favors an early appeal to the country he may obtain in this way a release from an intolerable situation in which Messrs. O'Connor and Shackleton are constantly threatening the ministry with desertion and defeat unless their demands are complied with.

While the Labor party is organizing an active autumn campaign against the Osborne judgment, by which the energies of trade unionism are paralyzed, Liberal editors are exerting themselves to carry the country on a select assortment of foreign issues, such as American discontent with the Payne tariff and the German revolt against the high cost of living. They are paying more attention to these remote subjects than to the veto question or to anything directly affecting the fortunes of the English workingman.

TROLLY ACCIDENT CAUSES FATALITY

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 20—Leonard Manning of 660 Foot Avenue was instantly killed and Lewis Houghton 601 Marshall St. was seriously injured in a trolley accident at Central Park and Portland Avenue early today, when an eastbound car running from Central Park into Portland Avenue left the tracks at an open switch and ran for a few feet over the pavement before it could be stopped by the application of the brakes.

The two men, both employed as trolley conductors, were waiting at the Central Park corner for a car to take them to their homes, when the car struck them. Manning was caught beneath the wheels and crushed to death, but Houghton managed to roll clear of the wheels. At the hospital it was said he was suffering from a gashed head, broken nose and internal injuries.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Sept. 20.—For the greater part of today's session the stock market showed little or no variation from the dullness and all-around uninterest which characterized Monday's dealings. In the afternoon however, prices declined rather sharply from an early moderate advance under the leadership of United States Steel. There have been rumors for several days that cuts in the price of several products would be announced and heavy selling today by a house whose operations in Steel stocks are usually associated with inside interests gave emphasis to these stories. While, therefore, these rumors could not be termed new or surprising, they received wider credence today. Professional interests followed the leadership already alluded to and also sold other lines of stocks on a liberal scale. Considering, however, the entire absence of outside buying power, the market showed a rather impressive ability to absorb offerings. The reaction lent some color to the theory that has been evolved from the action of the market over the past few weeks, that the larger interests are averse to any great speculative activity in either direction just now and are leading their efforts to prevent any decisive movement either way.
