COMMITTED FOR TRIAL. — Samuel Beattie, livery stable keeper, Brussels, and Wm. Hunter, blacksmith, of the same place, were on Wednesday committed to stand their trial for receiving stolen goods knowing them to be stolen, and were brought to jail on Thursday morning by constables Scott and Ainley. It appears from the evidence that they had induced a young lad who was clerking in Adam Good's store to give them articles without entering them on the books. The nefarious transactions had been going on for some time and were detected by Mr Good on Wednesday morning, when proceedings were at once taken against the accused.

A BIG STOCK SALE.—One of the largest sales of thoroughbred stock, and implements will be held on the premises of Mr Thos. Beaty, lot 12, con. 4, Goderich township, on Thursday, Oct. 25th, commencing at 10 o'clock a.m. Amongst the thoroughbreds will be one 4-year-old bull, with pedigree; 3 registered cows in calf; two 2-year-old thoroughbred heifers in calf; two thoroughbred heifers calves; and the number of high-grade is also exceptionally large. Five mares and two fine spring colts will also be offered, together with a number of the latest and best articles of agricultural machinery. Luncheon will be served during the sale and conveyances will meet all parties coming by train to attend the sale. Mr Beaty has rented his farm for a term of years, and is retiring from business in that line. The hammer will be wielded by the people's auctioneer, John Knox.

LOST AT THE STRATFORD CAMP.—The Stratford camp broke up on June 30th, and the various companies returned to the points from whence they set out for the camp. The goods and chattels which they took with them were also packed up and forwarded to their destinations, but one lot of goods, the property of Quartermaster Jordan and staff-sergeant Seager, never reached its destination. Several attempts have been made by Mr Jordan and others to recover the missing goods, but up to the present all attempts have proved unavailing. The mislaid goods comprise 1 large box, rope handles, 1 small box, 1 bundle, 3 camp chairs with mattrasses wrapped around them, 1 table—belonging to Mr Jordan; and 1 trunk and 1 green striped folding camp bed—the property of Mr Seager. The goods are known to have been loaded on to a waggon at the camp grounds, but were never seen afterwards. A mystery enshrouds the whole affair, and as battalions from Essex, Kent, Lambton, Waterloo, as well as Huron and Bruce were represented, it is hoped that the papers throughout the sections named will make a note of the matter so that the widest possible publicity be given to the loss sustained by Messrs Jordan and Seager, in the hope that thereby some trace of the missing half waggon load of stuff may be received.

SAYING GOODBYE.—There was a large turnout at the meeting in Knox church lecture room on Tuesday evening last to bid a formal farewell to Rev Donald McGillivray, previous to his departure for China. The chair was taken by Mr Spence Allan, who called upon Rev J. A. Anderson to read a chapter and open with prayer. Addresses were then given by Capt. Gibson, Capt. Baxter, Mr. Allan, Mr Strang Rev Mr Anderson and others, and Rev D. McGillivray also gave a farewell address, in which he showed how he had been led step by step to prepare himself for missionary labor in the far East. Rev John McGillivray, of Montreal, brother of the young missionary, was also present, and will remain with him until his departure from Toronto per C. P. R. A pleasing feature of the gathering was the fact that a monetary donation from his many friends in this section was tendered the missionary, more than sufficient to defray his expenses to his new sphere of labor. At the close of the meeting those present pressed forward to shake Mr McGillivray by the hand, and wish him Godspeed on his Journey.

GONE TO HIS MISSIONARY WORK.—Rev Donald McGillivray, an old Goderich boy, who has accepted service as a missionary to China, occupied Knox church pulpit on Sunday evening. There was a large attendance. Placed before the pulpit was a chart showing the relative populations of Canada, Great Britain, the United States, France, Germany, the old Roman Empire, and China. The preacher did not preach a sermon, in the ordinary acceptance of the term, but delivered a strong missionary discourse that was very effective. He gave some ten or twelve reasons which had actuated him in becoming a missionary to the Chinese, and then went on to say, in reference to himself, that he sought no particular sympathy from his audience. He was going out to the healthiest part of China, without any incumbrances, to do the work of the best of Masters. Living was very cheap. His limited salary would enable him to live in good working condition, just as hundreds of young men had done in that part before. Missionaries in other parts were not receiving too high salaries. Health demanded these in other climates, and besides a missionary could make as good use of money as any other man. He did not believe in begging his living from the heathen. That was not the Scriptural plan. They who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel and not of the heathen. All the reasons the speaker gave for sending the Gospel to China were reasons impelling him to go. God had opened up his way in a remarkable way. He trusted that this same God would be with and bless him to do His work. In closing the speaker asked the prayers of the people, not for himself but for the Chinese, urging especially prayer for two more missionaries needed sorely in Honan.

HE WANTS TO GET OUT.—The Mail of Saturday thus refers to a person named Jenkins, who is now incarcerated in Goderich jail: "The editor of the Brussels Budget, has apparently grown weary of the dull monotony of life in gaol, and is seeking to be released. He was committed to prison for contempt of court by Mr Justice MacMahon on the 19th September last for thirty days. The offence for which he was subjected to this penalty consisted in his disregarding an order of the court prohibiting the publication of certain libellous matter referred to in a suit of Grant v. Jenkins. Mr Jenkins took no notice of the order of the court, and each weekly issue of his paper contained fresh attacks upon Mr Grant, with the result mentioned, that Mr Jenkens has spent the last two weeks in solitude and confinement. The trial of this action comes off on the 16th instant, and Mr Jenkins desires his release, amongst other reasons, in order to prepare his defence. The motion to shorten the time of his confinement came on yesterday before Chief Justice Armour, and was by him adjourned until today to be heard by Mr Justice MacMahon, who made the original order for committal." On Monday the Mail had the following:—Grant v. Jenkins.—R. P. Echlin, for the defendant in an action of libel, moved for an order for the release of the defendant from custody under an order for his committal for thirty days for disobedience to an injunction order prohibiting the publication of libellous matter concerning the plaintiff. D. Armour, for the plaintiff, contra, Motion dismissed with costs." The court is evidently of opinion that Jenkins' place is in jail.

THE BIG FAIR

A Big Turnout on School Children's Day.

A Most Successful Pyrotechnic Display.

An Earlier Date Should be Set for Holding the Show.

Some of the Special Features of the Fair.

The Full List of Prize Takers at the Fair.

The Great Northwestern Exhibition closed at Goderich on Friday afternoon, and was beyond all question the greatest fall show ever held in the county of Huron. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather the Fair was a success from every standpoint, and it has now been demonstrated that Goderich can outstrip all other towns in this district as a place for the holding of a large exhibition. The directors will need to see to it next year that the Fair is held earlier in the season so as to avoid the unfavorable weather which has been experienced for the two exhibitions now past. This is a matter which we have every reason to believe will be attended to next year, and with the advent of good weather, phenomenal success must result.

Thursday, school children's day, was undoubtedly the big day of the fair. 1301 little ones took part in the procession, and it was a grand sight to see the "rising generation" stepping lightly and joyfully to the band music. Independently of the children over 3000 adults attended the Fair on that day. Fireworks in the evening, exhibited by Prof. Hand, were exceedingly fine and gave great satisfaction. Our space will not allow of a more extended introduction.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

THE I. O. O. F. PHOTOGRAPH

was a collection of pictures of 92 members of the I. O. O. F., Goderich, and was much admired by everyone who saw it. It was one of the contributions of Mr R. R. Sallows, and reflected credit alike on the photographer and the lodge that could number so many good looking representatives.

WM. ACHESON'S TRUNK DISPLAY and show of harness was also a good one, and proved that Mr Acheson lets no opportunity pass of letting the public know that he has a first-class stock.

WHITE BRONZE MONUMENT.

Mr W. M. Griffin of Clinton, representing the St Thomas W. B. Monument Co., showed a very handsome white bronze monument which is to be erected in Maitland cemetery to the memory of the late Peter Murray of the firm of Williams & Murray, of this town. It is 4 ft square at the base, about 17 ft high, weighs nearly two tons, and presents a very fine appearance. The monument is made of pure zinc, which Dr Baker Edwards, of Montreal, and B. F. Craig of Washington, U.S., the Government anylists for the two countries, say is far more durable than stone. The emblems are very appropriate and the lettering is very pla in and neat.

G. W. THOMSON'S DISPLAY.

On entering the main building the first object that to catch the eye on the centre platform, was the fine display by Geo W Thomson of pianos, organs and sewing machines, which would have done credit to any city exhibit. Here was the Stevenson piano, a perfect gem of beauty, which for excellence of workmanship, delicacy of touch, brilliancy and purity of tone is represented to be an instrument to be desired by all lovers of good music the organs were from the manufactory of Messrs Wm Doherty & Co., which for artistic finish and variety of tone require to be seen and heard to be appreciated. The display of sewing machines are from three manufactories the White, the Wanzer and the Williams. These machines are said to have taken the highest award ever bestowed on any sewing machines. Mr Thomson being a practical man in the business, having an experiance of twenty-two years gives all his customers the benefit af such experience, and thousands of families are now the happy possessors of these beautiful machines, which will last a lifetime. Here also was a fine display of Wanzer lamps which made a good showing against the more powerful luminary, the electric light. These lamps are coming more and more into use every day and can be turned to 20 different uses.

CAMPAIGNE & PRICE

had a pleasing feature on the ground, in the shape of a first-class restaurant, where good meals were served at all hours, to all who wanted them. This was particularly a convenience to the stockmen and others who were compelled to stay on the grounds during the time of the fair, and it is needless to say they gave the institution a hearty support.
