SECRET AND OTHER SOCIETIES.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

This society may be classed as one of the very strongest, since the latest evidence that it is so is the fact that the first call since June 6, 1890, has only now been received. Wm. Warner, Niles, Mich., was drowned June 14, 1891, so that more than a year has passed without a death in a society 10 years old, and with nearly 100,000 members. Mr. Warner joined April 16, 1891, and had paid only a few dollars. His mother gets $2,500.

Deputy Sovereign Ramplin returned yesterday from Chatham, where he has completed the organization of a camp of 44 members, many of whom are the leading men in the place. Next!

ROYAL TEMPLARS OF TEMPERANCE.

At the meeting on Tuesday evening of London Council, No. 193, the following officers were installed: E. W. Scott, S. C.; E. A. Cunningham, V. C.; J. G. Shuff, P. C.; D. G. Blair, Chap.; J. L. Goodburne, R. S.; Miss E. Marriott, assistant R. S.; W. G. Bell, F. S.; Miss A. McKellar, Treas.; H. Lewis, herald; Miss J. Mitchell, deputy herald; W. Pring, guard; W. Cummer, sentinel; Mrs. (Dr.) Jarvis, organist.

London Council have thoroughly discussed the advisability of forming a branch of the Cadet Templars—a movement similar to Bands of Hope, but more thorough in its work. In addition to the weekly meetings of the Cadets, a drill corps will be formed. It was announced at the last meeting of the Council that several of the members of the W. C. T. U. desired to unite with the Templars in this work, and the Council gave the committee full power to organize the Cadets, with the help of the W. C. T. U. if desired.

London Royal Templars are arranging for a joint picnic at some point of the Thames in the near future.

INDEPENDENT ORDER ODDFELLOWS

The present membership of benevolent beneficiary orders in the United States and Canada is estimated at 1,250,000, paying out annually in claims $2,400,000, of which the Oddfellows alone paid $1,500,000.

The Grand Lodge of Ohio passed a resolution at its last session in favor of granting a jewel for Daughters of Rebekah who have held membership fifteen years, and requested their grand representatives to present the matter to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

A lodge was recently instituted in Connecticut that, after the officers were installed, initiated 176 candidates before the closing of its first session.

The net gain of the Order of Oddfellows in the past year was 37,000. The estimate of membership up to July 1, including the Rebekah branch, is not less than 770,000.

Cincinnati, Ohio, is putting up a temple. Cost, $400,000.

St. Thomas Lodge, No. 76, elected E. W. Honsberger, W. J. Keiffer and Frank Rowland as representatives to Grand Lodge, while Elgin Lodge, of the same place, chose W. E. Cox, W. Cross and W. A. Miner. The Encampment representatives are W. W. Stringer and G. A. Boughner.

LODGE NOTES.

The Canadian Home Circles have no beneficiary fund assessment in July.

The grand regent of Ontario, Royal Arcanum, will appoint an organizer for this district.

The P. E. Y. B. O. has now nearly 20,000 members. A big push will be made next fall to secure more.

The Royal Arcanumites of this city will hold their annual picnic at Port Stanley on July 31. The councils from Strathroy and St. Thomas will be invited.

The Order of the Iron Hall has 58,000 members, with nearly $5,000,000 benefits paid and $1,800,000 surplus. It has added a life department, writing policies up to $3,000, with graded assessments.

Tickets for the Chosen Friends' excursion to Detroit via the G. T. R. to Sarnia, thence by boat, are selling like hot cakes. The C. F. excursion is always one of the most enjoyable events of the year.

What the supreme director has to say with regard to alcoholism is deserving of thoughtful consideration. His remarks, however, deal with the best way of curing the evil. It is therefore pertinent to suggest that prevention is better than cure. In other words, if the officers of lodges took greater care in the acceptance of candidates there would be fewer drunkards in the order, and therefore fewer deaths by alcoholism.—[Knights of Honor Reporter.

At Monday night's meeting of Tuscan Lodge, No. 195, A. F. and A. M., the attendance being large, Bro. Cameron Brown, night editor of the Toronto Globe, who recently left this city, was present. The W. M., W. Bro. Broderick, took occasion to refer to the regret felt by all the members at Bro. Brown's removal from the city, and spoke of the proportionate gain which Toronto had made, as well as extending hearty well wishes. Bro. Brown feelingly replied, thanking the worshipful master and all the brethren for the uniform courtesy and kindness which had been shown him during his connection with the lodge.

The Mythological Fates.

"Somewhere upon the unknown shore,
Where the streams of life their waters pour,
There sit three sisters, evermore
Weaving a silken thread."

Lovers of classic paintings are familiar with that famous group, called the "Three Gates." Fate seems cruel when it deprives women and girls of health. But in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they find a cure of untold value for nervous prostration, sick headache, bearing-down pains, bloating, weak stomach, anteversion, retroversion, and all those excruciating complaints that make their lives miserable. All who use it praise it. It contains no hurtful ingredients, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or its price ($1) will be refunded.

Too Deliberate. — "Jimson is very deliberate in his movements." "Yes; it takes him about an hour to get a ten-minute walk."

"Three years ago my nerves troubled me and I lost the power of my hands and feet, but one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters made me well." Herbert W. Morrisey, Foster's Croft P.O., N. B.

One of the bridesmaids was softly crying during the ceremony, and her escort, nudging her, whispered "What are you crying for? It isn't your wedding." "That's why I'm crying," she said.

Merit wins, as the marvelous success of Hood's Sarsaparilla shows. It possesses true medicinal merit. Sold by all druggists.

She knew his weakness.—She—Whom do you care most for, Jack? He—Is it possible you do not know whom I love best in all this world? She—Yes I know; but next to him?

Mr. J. W. Graham, of St. Marys Ont., says "three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters entirely cured him of Chronic Kidney Complaint"
