Money to loan on mortgage security. Apply to E. S. Crawley, Wolfville.

A good all-round printer is wanted at this office. Apply at once. Good wages.

The R. A. E. Club will meet at the home of Mrs. B. O. Davidson next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Prof. Perry and family are moving this week to their new home, just completed, on University avenue.

The communion of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed at St. Andrew's church next Sunday, at the morning service.

TO LET --Tenement on Main street, ix rooms, bath-room, hot and cold water. Possession April 15th. Apply to L. W. SLEEP.

The members of the 219th will parade to the Methodist church on Sunday morning when the sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. DeWolfe.

Mrs. Harlow and family, who have been living in Wolfville for the past few months, left on Wednesday for Boston, where they will make their home.

The annual meeting of the proprietors of the Grand Pre Dyke, which was to have been held on Saturday last, was postponed until next Saturday at the same time and place.

On Monday evening Mrs. Richmond and her pupils presented 'Pinafore' at Kentville, to a large and very appreciative audience in the Pastime Theatre. Those taking part went by special train.

TO LET.—Eight room dwelling over my store, all conveniences.—J. F HERBIN.

A fire in a building on Pleasant street, Halifax, on Sunday morning, caused the loss of six lives. The building was a lodging house for Italian and Russian laborers. It had upwards of sixty occupants.

The editor of THE ACADIAN received from Mrs. Adelaide Angus on Wednesday a full blown dandelion. This is certainly a novelty for this season of the year, especially such a season as this has been.

A convention of the Liberal Conservative party is to be held at Kentville on Saturday of next week, for the nomination of candidates to represent the party in the approaching elections for members of the local legislature.

Among Acadia men enlisting in the 219th battalion, appears the name of Philip S. Beals, in training with the company at Berwick. Mr. Beals graduated with the class of '09 and is a son of Rev. F. H. Beals, of Wolfville.

Money to loan on Real Estate security. Apply to Owen & Owen, Barristers, Annapolis Royal.

Mrs. Richmond is preparing, as a next attraction, to present a society minstrel show at the Opera House about the first of May, in which her pupils will take part. Wolfville people will look forward to this interesting entertainment.

The members of Wolfville Division paid a fraternal visit to 'Evangeline' Division at Grand Pre on Tuesday evening. The roads were in a very bad condition but a goodly number participated and a very pleasant time was had. An excellent program was given and elaborate refreshments served, and the party arrived home at a late hour.

J. F. HERBIN has just received a new lot of Military Wrist Watches with luminous dial, a fine gift for the man enlisting.

Mr. D. A. Rickards, who for the past two years or so has been in charge of the telephone exchange here, has been transferred to Sydney and will leave for his new post in the course of a few weeks. He will be succeeded by Mr. Brown of Middleton. While the Wolfville exchange is the largest in the Valley the change came to Mr. Rickards in the way of promotion and we congratulate him, while regretting his departure from Wolfville.

Spring is at last with us and ladies are making plans for new gowns. The undersigned is organizing a class at which instruction will be given in up-to-date dressmaking and at the same time pupils will have an opportunity of doing their own work. You can also learn how to make over your old gowns equal to new. This kind of instruction is given in many cities with very satisfactory results and it is especialy useful in these times when every dollar counts, and is for young and old. All information given on request. Find out about it whether you wish to join the class or not.

MRS. B. O. DAVIDSON.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles?

Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the rare curative powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows.

Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat.

Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

The annual convention of the Kings County Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in the Presbyterian church, Kentville, March 22nd, opening at 10 30 a. m., with devotional exercises led by Mrs. Purves Smith of Wolfville, who gave fitting and inspiring thoughts from her subject—"God's Call to Women in There Present Dark Days."

The morning and afternoon sessions were principally taken up with business. Reports from the officers and superintendents of departments showed good work by the Unions. All Unions and "Y's" doing special work this year for Red Cross, Wolfville "Y's" being in the front ranks of work accomplished. The noontide hour prayer service was led by Mrs. Carroll, of Kentville. The annual address of the president, Mrs. Mitchel, was, as usual, an interesting number on the afternoon program.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

Pres.—Mrs. Walter Mitchel, Wolfville.

First Vice-Pres. — Mrs. Purves Smith, Wolfville.

Second Vice-Pres. — Mrs. N. B. Morton, Berwick.

Rec. Secy.—Mrs. W. O. Taylor, Wolfville.

Cor. Secy.—Mrs. T. Hutchinson, Wolfville.

Treas.—Mrs. N. B. Morton, Berwick.

"Y" Supt —Mrs. T. Weaver, Kentville.

Auditor—Mrs. S. Rainfoth, Berwick.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Mr. Prosser, of Canard, who held the close attention of his hearers by his humorous and pointed truths in his address on 'Temperance' and 'Patriotism.' Members of Kentville "L. T. L." added much pleasure to the meeting by a program of songs and recitations regdered in a very creditable manner and was much enjoyed by all. Miss Evelyn Spidell, Kentville, was also heard with much pleasure in a solo.

Resolutions re the following were passed:—

1. The appreciation of this Convention of Mr. Corning's faithful efforts in the House of Assembly, Halifax, towards placing the 'Prohibition Bill' for Halifax on the statute books of our Province.

2. The disapproval of the numerous liquor advertisements in many of the newspapers.

3. The thanks of the Convention to the Kentville "Y's" for their kind hospitality, and to the trustees and choir of the Presbyterian church.

Annual Alliance Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Kings County Temperance Alliance will be held at Foresters' Hall, Berwick, on Friday, April 7th. Executive meeting at 12 20 o'clock, p. m. Members of the Berwick W.C.T.U. will provide a fifty cent dinner for twenty-five cents. A large and representative attendance is requested. F. H. Beals, Secretary.

The Boy Scouts.

In order to meet a much felt need the Boy Scouts have decided to give up their building for the use of the "Overseas" men while they are stationed in Wolfville. The College Y. M. C. A. will have charge.

Magazines and other suitable reading matter, as well as games, are much desired and if the people of Wollville, who have such to spare, will telephone 148 the Scouts will call for them to-morrow (Saturday.)

This evening (Friday) the Scout meeting will be held at the Town Hall at 7 30. when Rev. Mr. Armitage will give a talk, and examinations in Ambulance and other Scout tests will be held.

While those in charge of the Scout work are glad to be able to provide such a suitable building for the use of the military, yet the people of the town should not forget that there is a debt of about $900 on this building and should respond liberally when an effort is made not only to pay up the interest but to reduce the principal.

FOR SALE — Good Sleigh s, $5.00 to $10.00, and one at $12.00.
F. J PORTER, Salesman.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that under the first part of chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as The Companies Act, letters patent have been issued under the seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 24th day of February, 1916, incorporation George Barton Cutten, president of Acadia University, Ralph Preston Clarkson, professor of engineering, William Laid Archibald, principal of Acadia Collegiate Academy, Minnie Warren Cutten, married woman, and John Tremaine Roach, dentist, all of the Town of Wolfville, in the Province of Nova Scotia, for the following purposes, viz:—

(a) To carry on the business of an electric light, heat and power company in all its branches; provided that the sale, transmission and distribution of electric, or other power or force shall be subject to local or municipal regulations;

(b) To provide, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and to construct, lay down, erect, establish, operate, maintain and carry out all necessary works, stations, pumbs, water motors, machinery, plant, cables, wires, lines, generators, accumulators, lamps, meters, transformers, appurtenances and appliances connected with the generation, transmission, supply, sale, use and employment of electricity, and to generate, accumulate, transmit, distribute, supply and sell electricity for the purpose of electric lighting, heating, traction and motive power, and for industrial and other purposes; and to undertake and to enter into contracts and agreements for the lighting of cities, towns, streets, buildings and other places, and for the supply of electric light, heat and motive power for any or all public or private purposes;

(c) To make, build, construct, erect, lay down and maintain and operate reservoirs, water-works, cisterns, dams, canals, tunnels, culverts, flumes, conduits, main and other pipes and appliances and to execute and do all other works and things necessary or convenient for obtaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring and distributing water for the creation, maintenance and development of hydraulic, electrical or other mechanical power, or for irrigating lands or for any other purpose of the company;

(d) To construct, improve, work, maintain, manage, carry out or control and to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and to hold, use, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any lands, works, mains, machinery, or any roads, ways, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electricrl works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem capable of being used or operated in connection with any part of the company's undertaking for the time being, or calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the company and to equip, maintain and operate by electric, hydraulic or other mechanical power all works belonging to the company or in which the company may be interested, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof;

(e) To apply for and receive or to acquire by enactment, grant, assignment, transfer, lease or otherwise and to exercise, carry out, and enjoy any statute, ordinance or concession, license, power, authority, franchise right or privilege, relating to the generation, accumulation, development, distribution, supply, sale, use and employment of electric energy, water-powers or water which any corporation or other public body may be empowered to enact, make or grant, and to pay for, aid in and contribute towards carrying the same into effect, and to appropriate any of the company's shares, bonds and assets to defray the necessary costs, charges and expenses thereof;

(f) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the company capable of being carried on in connection with the business or objects of the company, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or to render profitable any of the company's property or rights;

(g) To apply for purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, grants, licenses, leases, concessions and the like conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this company and to use, exercise, develop or grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, interests or information so acquired;

(h) To purchase or otherwise acquire the shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of any other company or corporation, notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the said Act, and to pay for the same in the shares or other securities of this company and to hold, sell, vote or otherwise deal in the shares or other securities so purchased and to guarantee payment of the principal of, or dividends and interests on said shares or other securities, and to promote any company or corporation having objects altogether or in any business capable of being carried on so as directly or indirectly to benefit this company;

(i) To sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the property, rights, franchises and undertakings of the company or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this company;

(j) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this company;

(k) To enter into any agreement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person, firm or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this company is authorized to engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this company and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company and to sell, hold, issue or reissue the same with or without guarantee of principal and interest, or otherwise to deal in the same;

(l) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold and enjoy all or any of the property, franchises, good-will, rights and privileges held or enjoyed by any person or firm or by any company or companies carrying on or formed for carrying on any business similar to that which this company is authorized to carry on and to pay for the same wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in paid-up shares of the company or otherwise, and to undertake the liabilities of any such person, firm or company;

(m) To procure the company to be registered, licensed, or otherwise recognized in any foreign country and to designate and appoint persons therein as attorneys or representatives of this company, with full power to represent this company in all matters according to the laws of such foreign country, and to accept service for and on behalf of this company of any process or suit;

(n) To do all things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects;

(o) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, or attorneys;

(p) To draw, make, accept, endorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants and all other negotiable and transferable instruments;

(q) To make cash advances to customers and others having dealings with the company and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons;

(r) And the powers granted in any paragraph hereof shall not be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

The operations of the company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere by the name of 'Bay of Fundy Tide-Power, Limited,' with a capital stock of fifty thousand dollars, divided into 500 shares of one hundred dollars each, and the chief place of business of the said company to be at the Town of Wolfville, in the Province of Nova Scotia.

Dated at the office of the Secretary of State of Canada, the 24th day of February, 1916.

THOMAS MULVEY,
Under-Secretary of State.
