THIRD DAY AT HAMILTON

Four Favorites Bowled Over, Three of Them Getting Second Money.

FALLELA WAS LONG SHOT TO LAND.

Sidney Lucas, Tyrian, Frank Jaubert, Sir Christopher and Dick Warren Won.

Hamilton, June 1.—(Special.)—The racing was good on the third day. The usual crowd with the money came from Toronto on the special. They looked in a pleasant mood on arriving shortly after 2.30. The G.T.R. played a trick on them at the Union Station—charged full fare $2—good joke, everyone enjoyed it, the railway people most. Four favorites lost, three of them, Cynthia H., Rotterdam and King Carnival finishing second, while Robert, backed from 2 to 5 to 6 to 5, was in the bunch. Sidney Lucas and Tyrian were the first choices to land the coin. Mike Daly's Fallela, at 12 to 1, was the long shot to score to-day. Frank Jaubert, at 4 to 1, Sir Christopher, at 7 to 5, and Dick Warren, at 5 to 1, were the other winners.

Cynthia H. was touted as the good thing in the opening race and should have won. Ode made the running till the stretch was reached, when Fallela, Cynthia H. and Wenlock fought it out in a very hot finish, the former getting her nose in front at the wire.

The maiden 2-year-olds were hard to get away, Grumble running away with his jockey and delaying the start. When they got off, Grumble led to the turn, when Kitchener passed him like a shot and led to within 50 feet of the wire. Sidney Lucas challenged Kitchener at this point and in a very exciting finish the heavily-played favorite won out by a nose.

There were an even dozen starters in the five furlong event for selling platers and Tyrian, the favorite, delayed the start by breaking away ahead of the field on several occasions. This did not tire him, however, and he won the race as he pleased, with Ninety Cents a couple of lengths back for the place.

The long distance event was started on the first break, Lizzie Kelly and Rotterdam, the favorite, made the pace in turns till the stretch, when Jaubert came on like the wind and won over Rotterdam by half a length, with Lizzie Kelly lapped for third money.

King Carnival was the favorite for the fifth race, with Sir Christopher well played at 3 to 2. Sir Christopher had the race well in hand all the way, winning easily by three lengths. Nimrod finished strong and beat Diva out for third.

Robert, at 7 to 5, was the much touted favorite for the six furlongs event, but was never in it. Dick Warren winning handily over Salvado, with Dumbarton half a length ahead of Robert for third place.

Don d'Oro Won the Parkway.

New York, June 1.—The fairly good card drew a large crowd to the Gravesend track to-day. For the Bedford Stakes Affect was the choice, and she justified it, for she led from start to finish, and won very easily. Half a dozen finished heads apart in the contest for the place. In spite of the fact that Don d'Oro was giving away weight, in the Parkway Handicap, he was made an odds-on favorite. He took the lead at the lower turn, even under a double wrap, until rounding into the stretch, when he shot away and won as he pleased. Jeannot got the place in a rush at the end. Two favorites were beaten. Summaries:

RIFLE ASSOCIATIONS SHOOT.

Torontos Beat Victorias by One Point in a Score of 1399 to 1398.

Exceedingly close was the result of the first match of the 4th years' contest between the Toronto Rifle Association and Victoria Rifle Association, shot yesterday at Hamilton. The visitors won by a single point—1399 to 1398. Thirty-five was the possible at each distance, as will be seen by the score.

TWO GAMES IN THE EASTERN

Worcester Won From Providence and Springfield Scored at Hartford.

TORONTOS PRACTICE AT THE ISLAND.

Ready for the Series With Buckenberger's Spikers Beginning This Afternoon.

The ball team returned by boat yesterday, practised in the afternoon, and will be thoroughly fit for business at a winning clip this afternoon at the Island. The new men seemed to satisfy the bunch of fans who went over to watch the work-out. Pitcher Brown is lively, Second Baseman Roat looks promising, and Tony Mullane has a reputation behind him. Wagner's wing was all right, and he will likely go back to shortstop and let Bannon out to right field. Your friend Buckenberger will be along this morning, with his spiked brigade, that includes several reclaimed scapegoats, and the Islanders will put their armor on. Alloway or Best will pitch for Toronto. To-day the game starts at 4, to-morrow at 3.30, and on Monday, when Rochester plays its final game, at 4 o'clock. Only two games were played yesterday, Worcester and Springfield being the winners, and they are now up near the .500 mark. The record.
