P. DESCHANELS IS PRESIDENT OF FRENCH NATION

Gets Largest Majority Since First Executive Was Chosen.

SHOW OF PATRIOTISM

Formal Proceedings End in Hurrahs of New Official and Demonstration.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 17. — Paul Deschanels was elected president of the French Republic today by 734 votes of the 889 members of the National Assembly voting. His majority was the largest since the election of Louis Adolphe Tiers, the first president after the fall of the empire, who was chosen unanimously.

The result was certain since the caucus of yesterday, at which M. Deschanel was chosen the candidate of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, comprising all the various parties.

Holiday Character.

The election took on, besides a holiday character, the atmosphere of a patriotic manifestation. The feeling among the senators and deputies was that after the retirement of Premier Clemenceau from the cabinet, to whom the parliament was disposed to give evidence of the nation's gratitude, it was fitting that the new president should come into power with a vote that would give him the necessary authority to speak impressively for France. The general sentiment is that while M. Deschanel has not won the presidency by such outstanding services as those rendered by Premier Clemenceau, he is a man admirably adapted for the position, which requires careful tact and is above all a safe man.

Proceedings Formal.

The proceedings, as provided by the constitution, were formal, giving little occasion for enthusiasm. When the vote was announced, however, the members of parliament on the floor and the visitors in the galleries joined in a great outburst of acclamation, while former Premier Briand, who is generally credited with a large share in the election of M. Deschanel, declared to a group of friends: "France and the republic continue."

Madame Deschanel and her children witnessed the demonstration from the gallery, and returned to Paris with the president-elect in a motor car. On the return trip M. Deschanel was followed by a long cortege of parliamentarians. The procession was watched by thousands along the route through the park of St. Cloud and the Bois du Bologne, who cheered each car, crying "Long live Deschanel" and "Long live the republic."

LIVER TROUBLE AND HEARTBURN

All liver diseases of whatever character are diseases of the highest importance and demand close attention.

The liver is the largest and one of the most important organs of the body. Its duty is to prepare and secrete bile and serves as one of the filters of the body, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons. Therefore when the liver gets out of order it is the starting of trouble in nearly every part of the body.

Keep the liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and you will have no heartburn, constipation, biliousness, sick or bilious headaches, dull, yellow eyes, brown blotches, sallow complexion, coated tongue, jaundice, catarrh of the stomach, or the painful protruding internal or bleeding piles.

Mrs. John Kadey, Chipman, N. B. writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for some time and can recommend them to anyone suffering from heartburn and liver trouble. I tried other remedies, but they only relieved me for a short time. I always recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to all sufferers, as I think they are a valuable remedy."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FIVE SINN FEIN CHOICES SCORE WIN IN BELFAST

First Time City Hall Scene of Speech in Irish.

MANY FREAK RESULTS

Socialist Tops Poll in Shank Hill, Stronghold of Orangeism.

BELFAST, Jan. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Up to January 15, the Belfast corporation consisted of 92 Unionists an 8 Nationalists, but as a result of the elections which ended Saturday, in which the Laborites, Devlinites and Sinn Feiners skillfully bunched votes, it has 37 Unionists, 5 Nationalists, 5 Sinn Feiners and 13 Laborites.

The results of the elections generally were of a freak order. In the Shank Hill district, a stronghold of Orangeism, a Socialist topped the poll, and of the remaining seven members, one is a Socialists and another a Sinn Feiner. In Victoria, which is a safe Unionist parliamentary seat, a Nationalist headed the poll and a Sinn Feiner and a Laborite also were elected.

Change Not Restricted.

The change was not restricted to the Unionists, as in Joseph Devlin's constituency in the Falls division of Belfast, the Constitutional Nationalists polled two seats and a Nationalist has been returned, together with two Sinn Feiners and a Sinn Fein-Laborite.

For the first time in history the Belfast city hall was the scene of a speech in Irish, in which the Sinn Feiner, Mc. Carolan of Shank Hill returned thanks for his election. For the first time also, the city hall heard the strains of "The Red Flag" which was chorused by exulta't Socialists outside.

The alteration in the voting power of the city was brought about largely by the Southern Irish invasion of the shipyards to replace men who had joined the colors early in the war before the Government placed an embargo on recruiting from such establishments.

Centres on Derry.

Interest now centres on Derry, where the final result in the election will be made known Tuesday. The Unionists previously have had a majority of five there, but the utmost they have hoped for in this election is equality in membership, and to insure this they limited the number of candidates in order to concentrate the votes. The totals in two wards are still to be announced. Both sides voted every available man and woman, but the Nationalists are professing the greater confidence. The object of the struggle is by one side to insure Derry's inclusion in Premier Lloyd George's Ulster scheme, and by the other, to be left out of it.

DUBLIN, Jan. 18.—The election results in Dublin show the return of 42 Sinn Feiners, 9 Municipal Reformers, 14 Laborites, 14 Nationalists and one Unionist.

Of the 56 seats in Cork the Sinn Fein and transport workers combined ticket captured thirty, the Nationalists getting 16.

At Galway out of 23 Sinn Fein candidates, only ten secured seats, and no Sinn Feiner headed the poll.

DRURY REGARDS OFFER OF DEWART AS JOKE

TORONTO, Jan. 17.—If H. Hartley Dewart intended his offer to open up a Toronto Liberal riding in which Premier Drury could "test his strength" in an election against a Liberal to be taken seriously, the prime minister himself seems to regard the whole matter as a joke. He intimated laughingly today that he would give it "serious consideration," but refuses to state whether or not he used the expression ironically.

The premier made it plain that it was his opinion that if the offer had been intended seriously it could well have been made otherwise than through the newspapers. He also drew attention humorously to the fact that Mr. Dewart's proposal lacked considerably in definiteness.

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

Frederick S. Kolle, M.D., Editor of New York Physicians' "Who's Who," says that weak, nervous people who want increased weight, strength and nerve-force, should take a 5-grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate just before or during each meal.

This particular phosphate is the discovery of a famous French scientist, and reports of remarkable results from its use have recently appeared in many medical journals.

If you do not feel well; if you tire easily; do not sleep well, or are too thin; go to any good druggist and get enough Bitro-Phosphate for a two weeks' supply—it costs only fifty cents a week.

Eat less; chew your food thoroughly and if at the end of a few weeks you do not feel stronger and better than you have for months; if your nerves are not steadier; if you do not sleep better and have more vim, endurance and vitality; your money will be returned, and the Bitro-Phosphate will cost you nothing.
