O.L.C. COMMENCEMENT HAS PLEASING FEATURES

Large Number of Guests Entertained at Whitby—Young Ladies in the Honor List

WHITBY, June 21.—(Special.)—The picturesque old Trafalgar Castle and its adjoining buildings was the scene of a gala day for the students of the Ontario Ladies' College when the commencement was held to-day. A special train brought about 100 from Toronto.

The guests were welcomed by Dr. Hare, the principal, at the entrance of the college grounds, and they were received by Miss Burkenholder, the lady principal, at the entrance to the concert hall. The choral class of the college, all gowned in white, were seated upon the platform. As the guests entered, the class, under the conductorship of Mr. Arthur Blight of Toronto, rose and sang a welcome song. A splendid program was then given by the pupils, including vocal selections by Miss C. Aherns, Miss Alice Gott, Miss Carscallen, Miss J. O'Hara, Miss A. Robertson, Miss Irene McDougall, and violin by Miss K. Archer, Miss E. Kains, Miss D. Alps, Miss Hazel Van Ornam, and piano selections were given by Misses Dobson, Mutton, Binns and Code. Miss K. Wright was the organist, Miss Lillian Smith, the accompnist, while J. W. F. Harrison was the musical director.

An enjoyable garden party was held on the lawn, after which the guests were conducted thru the charming rooms, where specimens of the students' work were on exhibition.

The evening was devoted to presentation of prizes won by the scholars. The graduates, Miss Georgie B. Abbott, Miss Mary B. Chambers, Miss Geraldine Merritt, Miss Emily N. Attempt to Dynamite Church.

NEWARK, N.J., June 21.—With tomato cans converted into bombs by means of dynamite filling, with wire wrappings and fuses, an attempt was made to blow up the Church of St. Rocco and the adjoining rectory. One of the bombs exploded, wrecking the entire front of the rectory.

A severe earthquake occurred Sunday in the Canary Islands.

OBITUARY.

T. W. H. Leavitt.

Thaddeus W. H. Leavitt, provincial inspector of public libraries, died on Monday at the home of his brother, Dr. A. F. Leavitt, in Bancroft, Ont. He had been in poor health for some time and went to Bancroft in the hope that the change of air would effect his recovery.

Mr. Leavitt was well known in political circles in Ontario, having been for years associated with A. W. Wright in the organizing work of the Conservative party in this province. A couple of years ago he was appointed inspector of libraries in succession to Dr. May. He was also well known as a writer, having published a history of the County of Leeds, where he was born, in addition to several other works. At one time he was the editor of The Brantford Expositor, and founded The Brantford Times.

W. H. Leavitt of Toronto is a brother. His wife died about three years ago.

The remains arrived in Toronto last night and the funeral will take place from Millard's undertaking parlors at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon.

At Mount Forest—William Gruer, ex-mayor and a resident for 46 years; aged 76.

At Baltimore, Ohio—David Yulie of Montreal, president of the Dominion Textile Co.

At Galt—Elizabeth Gordon, aged 50, of Ayr, who died suddenly after attending evening church service.

At Walgerton—Malcolm Maclean, postmaster since 1852; aged 92. He was a Scotchman, was one of Walkerton's first mayors, and was a county magistrate. Alex. Smith of Ottawa is a nephew.

Rabies in Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, June 21.—There is an epidemic of rabies in Alleghany County and thirty-seven persons are undergoing the Pasteur treatment at the Magee Pathological Hospital here.

Runaway Engine Kills Two.

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 21.—The engine of a G.T.R. construction train on the Corbett and Floesch contract, ran away on a down grade. Three cars were thrown from the rails and a number of workmen on board thrown off. Two men were killed.

Knox Church, Paisley, has called Rev. G. C. Little, B.A., of Flesherton.
