identified with each other throughout the Province but also deeply integral with the highest interests of the British Throne.

We are thankful to you, Sir Howard, for your continued expressions for our welfare, amid the arduous toils of the high stations which you have filled since you have left us; but think not that our congratulations on the present occasion are confined to you alone: They are not so:—for there are others near and dear to you whom we beg you will make our sentiments acceptable,—It is to Lady Douglas and Family to whom we now also tender them.—For, if your government of this Province gave confidence and satisfaction to the country; rest ye well assured, that Lady Douglas and family diffused relief and gladness to many afflicted ones within its precincts; whilst their domestic intercourse with others remains an affectionate tie towards her Ladyship, your family and yourself.

That you therefore, Sir, and they may long possess health and happiness to enjoy and witness your progressive honours in the service of our Country and our Queen is the ardent hope and desire of this Community.

WOODSTOCK, May 7.—FIRE.—Yesterday about 11 o'clock A. M. a cry of fire resounded through our streets; we hurried immediatly to the spot, and found the shop occupied by Mr. William Camber, Blacksmith, in flames, which communicated to the establishment of Messrs. Newhall & Moore, Cabinet-makers, who had but a short time ago established themselves in this village. From thence the fire caught the Barn and office houses, and finally the dwelling House of W. T. Wilmot, Esquire, immediately adjoining; and also a Barn belonging to the Misses Smith. The Fire Engine was promptly on the spot, but such was the situation of the buildings that nothing could be done to arrest the progress of the devouring element.

The Engine was kept playing on the houses across the street, and proved the means of their safety as they caught several times, and were only preserved by the energy and activity of our inhabitants. The bridge caught several times but was happily saved. The large buildings of Mr. Tuck and those of Messrs McCann and McDonough were several times in danger—having caught in various places—they were only saved by the constant playing of the Engine. Had it not been for the Engine—the perseverance of the people at large, who repaired to the scene from all directions—and the Military who displayed a great deal of activity—there can be no doubt but our village would have been in ashes. Had the fire once got a footing on the North side of the bridge, from the direction in which the wind was blowing, there could have been no possibility in saving it.

The thanks of the community are certainly due to the Officers and men of the 69th Regt. in this Garrison for their valuable services; as well as to the Fire Company for the promptness with which they had the Engine on the spot.—The loss is estimated £1000.

LIVERPOOL, April 19.

QUEBEC OAK.—The stock of this article has accumulated so much that it has become dull of sale, and some parcels, having been forced upon the market by auction, were sold at miserably low prices. One lot brought 18¼d and 18¾ per foot. Elm and Ash sell at 14d to 15d per foot.

PINE.—The postponement, till the 10th October, of the period when the reduction of the duties takes place, will give an opportunity for the disposal of a large portion of the duty paid stock in the market; and any arrivals in the mean time will doubtless be bonded. The present prices are, however, so very low, that very little reduction can be expected, even when the nominal duty only is paid. Good St John pine for board logs is becoming very scarce, and will command advanced rates.

RED PINE.—Quebec Red Pine has been sold at auction at 21d per foot; good parcels are worth 22 to 23. per foot; and St. John Red Pine 15d to 16d.

BIRCH.—St. John Birch is worth 16d. to 18d per foot, and Pictou Birch in cargo, 13d to 13½ pr foot.

St. John Deals quoted in London at 19 to £22.

QUEBEC, May 3.—The barque Kingston, W. Robson, Master, from Gibraltar, 50 days, in ballast, arrived at Quebec on the evening of the 2d May, at 8 o'clock.—Captain Robson reports the Great Britain shore on the West Reef off Green Island. She went ashore on the morning of the 2d instant, at 6 o'clock.—the weather was exceedingly foggy. Captain Robson thinks her situation very bad; he did not see any other vessels. There was a vast quantity of ice near the Magdalen Islands. It is expected that the steamboat British America will go to the assistance of the Great Britain to-morrow. I have not been able to ascertain what passengers the Britain has on board. She has also a valuable cargo, and consigned to Montreal. The steamer Canada and the Lord Sydenham arrived this morning; the former 20 minutes past 8 o'clock, and the latter half past 10 o'clock. We expect the Unicorn in the course of this week.—Further particulars will be communicated as early as possible of the Great Britain.

BERMUDA, April 26th.—The Transport Prince Regent, will we understand, sail on the 1st proximo, for England.

Arrived on Tuesday last, H. M. S. Comus, Commander Davis, from Jamacia. The Comus sailed again on Thursday for England, her time of service on this station having expired. She has round dollars and gold dust to the value of 300 000 dollars on board on freight, and Invalids from the Squadron.—Passengers, Captain Napean, and Commander G. Hand, R. N.

The Admiral had sailed for Belize, and it was reported, that he was about to visit other Ports in that neighbourhood, to settle some claims on the Central American Government.—The Vestal, Captain Parker, was about to proceed to England with Sir Charles Metcalfe.

Arrived on Saturday last, H. M. Ship Warspite, Captain Lord John Hay, from Anapolis, U. S., in 13 days.

EASTPORT, May 4.—Governor Fairfield has issued a proclamation for convening the Legislature on the 13th inst., for the purpose of taking into consideration the subject of the settlement of the North Eastern Boundary. The terms which the British Minister is authorised to offer, will not, of course, be made public, till agreed to or rejected by the American commissioners; but that Great Britain has made some important concession, is warranted by the fact of its being deemed of sufficient consequence to justify the Governor in convoking an extra session of the Legislature. It is to be hoped, therefore, that the Senators and Repretatives of this state will meet with a due sense of the importance of this object in view,—in the spirit of peace, and with an earnest desire to put an end to the controversy upon amicable and mutually advantageous terms. We doubt not such a settlement may be made,—and we have strong hopes that such an one will be made, and that in the course of a few months this question will be put at rest forever. The subject is one which concerns no political party, but is of equal interest to all, and the rancour of party feeling, the bickerings of party strife, should not be suffered to creep into their deliberations, but it should be the aim of the members to render it as short as possible. The session will be attended with considerable expense, and it is hoped it will be devoted exclusively to the object for which it is called. Should it result in measures which will lead to the settlement of the Boundary question, however, it will be a cheap one, even if it consume the time of a regular session.—Sentinel.

PURCHASE OF THE CALIFORNIAS BY ENGLAND.

A late arrival from Vera Cruz brings a report that Mexico has mortgaged the Californias to England, as security for the payment of a fresh loan, to a large amount, recently negotiated. The rumor is not at all improbable. The country is represented to be the finest in North America; having a fertile soil and salubrious climate. The Pacific shore is indented with many bays and seaports, some of which furnish the best anchorage in the world. To Englishmen this feature of the country makes it particularly desirable. The territory extends through many degrees of latitude, having a seacoast of a thousand miles, counting both shores of the peninsula and running far into the interior, where the boundaries have never been accurately defined. The area of the two Californias must be fully equal in extent to the twenty-six states of our Union.

Here is room for a large kingdom, which would soon grow to be flourishing and populous if it were in the hands of the English or the Americans. In the hands of the Mexicans, it will ever remain stationary, or relapse into the state of nature, in which the Jesuits found the country, two hundred years ago. At present the region can be of little or no value to Mexico. It is very remote from the seat of Government, and being thinly inhabited, by a people poor, indolent, and destitute of enterprise, can yield little or no revenue, to compensate the expense of keeping up a form of civil and military organization. Another motive that doubtless induces the Mexican authorities to part with the domain, is, the conviction, every day growing stronger, that they cannot hold possession much longer. The American settlements on the Oregon, and the Texans on the Rio Grande, will ere long be making encroachment, and between them must swallow up the whole region stretching across the Del Norte to the Pacific Ocean. Under the circumstances, it is not to be wondered at, if an arrangement of the kind, has been concluded between Mexico and England.—New Orleans Bulletin, April 19.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.—If there is a dereliction to which man is prone, that is too modest to intrude itself upon, or in the slightest degree to gall the conscience, we believe it to be that of non-fulfilment of engagements made with the Printer. Most men in viewing their liabilities take into account the butcher's, the grocer's, the tailor's, the shoemaker's bills, in short the bills of almost every grade of mechanic, but some how or other, the printer's bill is never thought of. We would remind our patrons that it requires something more than mere "patronage" to support a printing establishment; that we have first to make a very serious outlay for types, presses, &c. &c., that we have office rent to pay; workmen to pay: paper and ink to purchase, &c. &c. &c., the whole of which costs money, and for ourselves, not being a Cossack's horse, we cannot live on birch bark, nor being a Chamelion can we live on air; nor can we pay our liabilities as too many of our subscribers pay us, with promises. The subscription of an individual, is in itself, so trifling, that many think, "surely the printer cannot be so poor but he can wait for such a small sum;" but it must be remembered, that "many mickles, make a mockle" and that it is with those trifles that we are obliged to meet all the demands against us. To such of our subscribers as have both patronized and paid, we beg to tender our best thanks; and to such as have taken the paper for a series of years, and not paid anything, we can assure them that the respective amounts due by them could never have come more acceptable than at the present time. It is our intention to send an Agent forthwith to collect all outstanding debts, when we trust those for whom we have toiled for years will remunerate us for our labours.

"The hope of reward sweeteneth labour,
But that hope deferred, maketh the heart sick"
