OUT-SIDE SPORTS.

The Beltimore nine completely white-washed the Mayland team in their and geme on Friday. The latter couldn't hit Cammings' pitching at all, and it was with the greatest dicioulty they made a base bit. Score 20 to 0.

The Mutuals and Bostons played on Saturday. Score on Wednesday.— no paper to morrow.

THE GAME ON SATURDAY. — " WHO'S OUB FIRST NINE NOW ?"

The 1st nine sustained another defeat at the hands of the 2nd nine on Saturday, though to the credit of the latter we must say that Maddock and Smith, of the 1st nine, added very materially, whilst perhaps, on the other hand, Grooks and Nichols were a source of weakness to the champions. But then we can't hear exchampions. But then we can't hear exchampions. But there we can't hear exchampions are these things musn't be, or we cuses, as these things musn't be, or we shall have some trouble to find out which is our 1st nine. The following is

If it don't rain to-morrow, there will be lots of base ball; but then don't complain, boys. Somebody says, "Whatever is, is right"; the sun gets up early now, and if he only gets a chance, it will soon get dry. Meanwhile—let's have rain.

The Eurekas of Elora (juniors) are coming to town by the morning train to whip the Atlantics—if they can. They are to play near the Great Western Station. The Atlantics will give them some trouble if they are their size.

The Regulators have now got a chance to show the racelyes. The Independent have challenged tham, and they will have to work to beat them. The match is on the Reg's, ground to morrow.

The Unions had a good turn out on saturday night. Some of the old mem-ers were on the ground.

Day keeps open purposely to morrow from 10 to 12 a. m. and from 1 to 2 p. m. to deliver papers, and you can get either base balls, clubs, or score sheets during that time if you want them.
