Poetry.

A WIFE WANTED

Ye fair ones attend, I've an offer to make you,
In Hymen's soft bands I am anxious to live,
For better, for worse, a companion I'll take me,
Provided she fills the description I give.

I never expect nor can hope for perfection,
For that never yet was a bachelor's lot,
But choosing a wife, I would make a selection,
Which many in my situation would not.

I'd have—let me see—I'd not have a beauty—
For beautiful women are apt to be vain;
Yet with a small share, I would think it a duty,
To take her—be thankful, and never complain.

Her form must be good—without art to constrain it,
And rather above than below middle-size;
And something (it puzzles my brain to explain it,)
Like eloquent language must flow from her eyes

She must be well bred, or I cannot respect her,
Good natured and modest, but not very coy,
Her mind well informed—'tis the principal nectar
That sweetens the cup of Hymeneal joy.

Her home she must love, and domestic employment,
Have practical knowledge of household affairs;
And make it a part of her highest enjoyment,
To soften my troubles and lighten my cares:

Her age, I would have it at least to be twenty,
But not to exceed twenty-five, at the most—
The girls of that age being ev'ry where plenty,
I hope to get one of that numerous host.

No fortune I ask, for I've no predilection,
For glitter, or show, or the pomp of high life:
I wish to be bound by the cords of affection;
And now I have drawn up the sketch of a wife.

If any possess the above requisition,
And wish to be bound by the conjugal band,
They will please to step forward, they know the condition—
Enquire for the writer—I'm always at hand.

OCCUPATION.—Edward Flatwell, was sent to the workhouse by the Recorder yesterday, for retaining forcible possession of a shanty in Girod street:

"Well, I'm blamed," said Ned, as he was going, "If this ain't contrary to the constitution—it must be—it's worse than martial law. There's General Scott and old Zack; they may occupy as much of Mexico as they please—at least as much of it as they can, and the newspapers say, Bravo, Scott!—Go it Zack! Well done, old 'un—that's the ticket. Oh! it's all right—of course it is; but let Ned Flatwell only squat down for a single night in a shanty in Girod street, and he is poked off to the workhouse—nothin shorter, Squire," and Ned, particularly addressed his Honor: "this is a great country and growing."—N. O. Delta.

LOVE.—"Weep on," said a sage to one who was weeping her life away for the loss of her beloved. "tears are the best comforters; they were made from the Lemnos river, which makes men forget that they have loved!" "Can tears do this?" asked the mourner in alarm:—and thus she dried her eyes, and raised them serenely to heaven; nor ceased to do so until they were closed and dried for ever.

SLEEP.—Holy sleep! for this men have likened thee to death. In one minute thou pourest more oblivion on the memory tablet of the lacerated heart than the waking of the longest day! And then, thou coolest the throbbing, burning bosom; and we arise again once more worthy of the morning sun. Be thou ever welcome, till thy dreamless brother comes, whose consolation is still more beautiful and lasting!

Women that are the least bashful are not unfrequently the most modest; and we are never more deceived than when we would infer any laxity of principle from that ignorance of vice. Prudery, on the contrary, is often assumed to keep off the suspicion of criminality.

HEAD QUARTERS,
Foster's Corner, St. John, N. B.

W. F. Brook's—Ornamental Hair Cutting and Curling Saloon.

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the Public in general, that he still continues business in the New Shop lately erected on the old spot, FOSTER'S CORNER; and, ever grateful for past favors, hopes, by the strictest attention to business, to merit a continuance of the patronage he has heretofore received. This establishment has been fitted up in superior style for the accommodation of gentlemen, where every attention will be paid to all who may favour him with their patronage. Those who wish their hair cut in the most fashionable style,

Are invited to call on Brooks,
And take his easy chair,
While he displays his perfect skill
In chopping off your hair.
If any doubt should still remain
Of his mechanic hand,
Let customers but call again,
And he's at their command.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A CASE
ABANDONED BY
Guy's, the Metropolitan, King's College, and Charing Cross Hospitals.

SUMMARY OF AFFIDAVIT.

Wm. BROOKE, Messenger, of 2, Union street, Southwark, London, maketh oath and saith, that he (this deponent) was afflicted with FIFTEEN RUNNING ULCERS on his left arm, and ulcerated sores and wounds on both legs, for which deponent was admitted an out-door patient at the Metropolitan Hospital, in April 1841, where he continued for nearly four weeks. Unable to receive a cure here, the deponent sought relief at the three following Hospitals:—King's College Hospital, in May, for five weeks; at Guy's Hospital in July, for six weeks; and at Charing Cross Hospital, at the end of August, for some weeks more; which deponent left, being in a far worse condition than when he had quitted Guy's, where Sir BARNSBY COOPER, and other medical officers of the establishment, had told deponent that the only chance of saving his life was to LOSE HIS ARM! The deponent thereupon called upon Dr. Bright, chief physician, of Guy's, who, on viewing deponent's condition, kindly and liberally said, "I am utterly at a loss what to do for you! but here is half a sovereign; go to Mr. HOLLOWAY, and try what effect his Pills and Ointment will have, as I have frequently witnessed the wonderful effects they have in desperate cases. You can let me see you again." This unprejudiced advice was followed by the deponent, and a perfect cure effected in three weeks, by the use alone of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT, after four Hospitals had failed!!! When Dr. Bright was shown by the deponent, the result of his advice and charity, he said, "I am both astounded and delighted, for I thought that if I ever saw you again alive, it would be without your arm. I can only compare this cure to a charm!!!"

Sworn at the Mansion house of the city of London, this 8th day of March, 1842. } WM. BROOKE.
Before me, JOHN PIRIE, Mayor.

IN ALL DISEASES of the Skin, Bad Legs, Old Wounds, and Ulcers, Bad Breasts, Sore Nipples, Stony and Ulcerated Cancers, Tumours, Swellings, Gout, Rheumatism, and Lumbago, likewise in cases of Piles, the Pills, in all the above cases, ought to be used with the Ointment; as by this means cures will be effected with a much greater certainty, and in half the time that it would require by using the Ointment alone. The Ointment is proved to be a certain remedy for the bites of Musquitoes, Sand-flies, Chiego-foot, Yawns and Coco-bay.

Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Chapped Hands and Lips also Bunions and Soft Corns, will be immediately cured by the use of the Ointment.

THE PILLS are not only the finest remedy known when used with the Ointment, but, as a General Medicine there is nothing equal to them. In Nervous Affections they will be found of the greatest service. These Pills are, without exception, the finest purifier of the Blood ever discovered, and ought to be used by all!!!

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of Patients are affixed to each Pot.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great English Remedy."

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced, to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate cough, Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is unrivaled. But the Proprietors so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipien, consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid:—the agent or proprietors of other medicines dare not claim for their preparations a power like this: they know that in no case have such effects been produced:—the grand object and purpose of the common 'remedies' is simply give relief—not to cure: this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggist; but while relying with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declines, and every day places him farther and farther beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—it is not a panacea—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain.
