Baseball Toronto 4 Buffalo 1 ⁂ Lacrosse Tecumsehs And the Cup ⁂ Racing The Eel Wins At Syracuse

NOTE AND COMMENT

Arthur Irwin, whose Toronto club won the Steinert Cup in 1897 by defeating Syracuse in the post season series after the Stars won the Eastern League championship owing to their early lead, is a visitor. He is en route to Detroit as a scout of the New York Americans, who are figuring on doing something next year, being at present a very bad last. His club had an off day yesterday and Mr. Irwin dropped over to renew acquaintances in his native city.

Of the finish in the big leagues Mr. Irwin could not foretell, the fight being too hot in each. No, Detroit has no cinch by any means, as Hughey Jennings' pitchers are not in as good shape as those of Cleveland or Chicago. He thinks these three have equal chances. Detroit and Cleveland each start a long series at home to-day with the same four clubs, while fighting ability makes the Chicago White Sox equally dangerous. Detroit's win yesterday puts St. Louis out of the race.

It looks like New York in the National, principally owing to the present standing, with Pittsburg and the Chicago Cubs in the best of trim and either likely to land the flag.

Ex-Manager Arthur saw the closing scene at Hanlan's Point yesterday when the Bisons were so bad that Toronto almost scored a shutout.

Asked what he thought of the failure of the champions to make good Mr. Irwin stated that the loss of three .300 hitters and Flynn was a considerable factor, tho he admitted that their understudies looked good, but for injuries. No fault could be found on the firing line, because pitchers always look bad when the hitters are not on hand to help them out. Torontos' principal fault, he thought, was the inability of the batsmen to protect the base runners, that is the team failed at the hit and run game and sacrifice hitting.

Vice-President Burges is the most dissatisfied of the Baseball Club directors. He thinks more money should have been spent on the purchase of players or Toronto should figure as the farm of one of the big league clubs like Baltimore and Providence that are such in reality, if not in fact.

President Galt of the Argonaut Rowing Club was a pleased spectator at the Rugby practice last evening on Bayside Park. He is of the belief that the Argos will this year have their best team with a good chance to land the interprovincial championship.

One of the most enjoyable golf competitions of the year is the handicap of the Toronto Lacrosse and Athletic Association for the Garland trophy that opens next Saturday afternoon with about 100 entries. They play over the four hole links, one at each corner of the lacrosse field.

The agitation against the street tipsters inaugurated by The World two years ago will likely result this year in the total suppression of the nuisance that is most pronounced at the entrances to Woodbine Park. With the elimination of these touts and the pari mutuel system of betting in operation horse racing would become as nearly perfect as possible, and the poly unobjectionable to those possessing any particle of sporting instinct.

Those who attended Dufferin Park yesterday were particularly pleased with the racing. The horses were all driven out with the result that three favorites were beaten and there was no laying up of heats, each event being won in straights.

Gravesend shows an improvement over Sheepshead Bay in the matter of permitting speculation at the track. On the day Gov. Hughes was renominated the betting law was strictly enforced according to the law, yet there was plenty of oral betting. The police and Pinkertons were on the alert for violations, such as displaying odds, accepting cash and recording wagers, but there were no arrests. Those who indulged in speculation did so with extreme care, so that a casual observer might have mingled with the crowd on the lawn without finding the slightest evidence that bets were being made. It was evident from the size of the crowd that patrons no longer fear trouble if they indulge in small speculation with old friends. There was a flash of old time enthusiasm on several occasions and everybody appeared to have a good time.

Philadelphia Record: Altho the bowling of King and Vetterlein was very good, the Canadians had themselves to blame rather than the bowling for their poor total. In playing Vetterlein's slows they were especially at fault and instead of either playing back or hitting out they adopted half-hearted measures, and all seven wickets obtained by the Merion slow bowler were by means of catches, many of which were simple ones. The Canadian team is reputed to be stronger than the team that represented the Toronto Tingari here earlier in the season. Yesterday they demonstrated that this was true of the bowling, but the batsmen have yet to prove the statement.

Once more the "grey ghost," The Eel, owned by Mr. Frank Entricken of Tavistock, has demonstrated that he is some pacer. Yesterday at Syracuse he marched off with his race in straight heats, stepping the second in 2.02¾, within a quarter of a second of his record. That this horse is a two minute pacer there is no doubt, and unless all signs fail, he will be in the charmed circle of two minute pacers when he strikes the fast track at Columbus next week. A local horseman recently offered $10,000 for The Eel, but even this handsome figure would not induce Mr. Entricken to sell.

The Canadian record for a half mile on a two lap track by a harness horse was broken last Saturday at Winnipeg, when the bay pacing gelding, Frank Wilson, 2.06¼, paced the first heat of the free-for-all class at the Winnipeg Driving Club's matinee in 1.02¾. The former record was 1.03½, held by Katie B., also a western owned animal.

Hickey Almost Shuts Out Bisons
Last Home Game of the Season

Small Crowd Watch the Champions' Finale at Hanlan's Point—Baltimore Can Hardly Lose Championship.

There were no bombs, no firecrackers, nor any unsung praises to mark the ringing down of the local Eastern League season yesterday, only a few of the faithful fans witnessing the climax to one inglorious season of disaster and misfortune. However, those present saw the Leafs score a win over their hated rivals in years gone by, but alas this season they were both in the same boat—also rans. The score was: Toronto 4, Buffalo 1.

Fred Hickey, the local boy, was called upon to shoot the shoots on the final day, while Allison, a spit ball artist from the Cotton States, delivered the benders for the Bisons. Both twirlers were in good form, Hickey, while being touched up more often than his opponent, kept the hits scattered, and all thru had the visitors guessing, till the fateful ninth, when with two down and two on bases, Hickey made a wild heave, letting in the only Buffalo run of the game.

Allison had the Indian sign on the locals, he retiring the side in order in six innings out of eight, but it was in the other two Schafly's Pets got in their deadly work, two homers and a base on balls in the seventh netting three runs, while Allison's wild heave to first in the second paved the way for the other run.

The game was more of a kidding affair than anything, the players acting like school boys on their last day at school, and if all the pepper shown yesterday could have been distributed thruout the season a few more games might have came our way, for certainly there was enough pepper shown to season Toronto Bay.

The Leafs scored their first in the second, Cockman singling with one down, going to second on Allison's low heave to Clancy. Whitney popped to White, while Keenan singled, scoring Cockman, Keenan stole second only to be forced by Vandy.

No more scoring resulted till the seventh, both teams being retired with clockwork regularity, and incidentally the game was one of the fastest of the season, it only taking one hour and a half. However, in the seventh, that old reliable Fred Mitchell walloped the ball to the left field bleachers for a homer and this was the first homer into those bleachers this season. Phyle was passed and sacrificed, while Whitney poked the pellet into the right field bleachers. Keenan and Vandy failed to get on.

It looked a shutout for the visitors till the ninth, when with one down Clancy singled, likewise Keister. Hill sacrificed to Schafly, Clancy going to third, and with two strikes on McAllister, Hickey made a wild pitch, Clancy scoring. McAllister was out, Phyle to Whitney.

Amateur Baseball.

The final standing of the Senior Amateur League shows a creditable season by the St. Andrews, who have 16 wins and 3 losses to their credit. The St. Andrews are now senior city champions, and challenges have been pouring in fast. The Saints owe their good work to constant practice and the perfect harmony which has prevailed under the able management of "Sandie" Acheson. The Ontarios landed second after a strenuous fight, the Registers third and the Night Owls last. The correct standing is:

St. Andrews	16	3	.842
Ontarios	9	9	.500
Registers	6	12	.333
Night Owls	5	12	.294

BURNS SIGNS ARTICLES TO MEET JOHNSON

Will Meet at Sydney in December—Johnson Sails for Australia on Friday.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Sept. 16.—Jack Johnson, the American colored pugilist, has signed articles for a fight with Tommy Burns, the heavyweight champion, the fight to take place in this city in December and to be for the championship of the world. Burns said to-day that this will be his last fight.

A London cable says: Jack Johnson signed articles for a fight with Burns at the New South Wales office here to-day and booked passage on the steamer Ortona for Sydney, sailing on Friday. The terms of the match provide that the winner shall receive $30,000 and the loser $20,000.

Baseball Notes.

Manager Schafly was the last Leaf to bat, while Whitney made the last out and Phyle the last assist.

George Mullin, the Detroit pitcher, was hit in the stomach by a batted ball Tuesday and was forced to quit.

Wallace Clement is now playing regularly for Philadelphia Nations.

Umpire Sheridan was mobbed by the St. Louis fans Tuesday over calling McIntyre safe, with what proved to be the winning run.

Looks like the Giants in a romp now for the National League pennant.

Jake Thielman will report to Boston after the Eastern League season closes.

Sport McAllister has acted like a two-year-old with the hops.

Phyle was hit by a pitched ball in the seventh, but as it was the fourth ball he is credited with a base on balls.

Hickey will pitch for the Park Nine Saturday in the City Amateur League.

Eugene McCann, manager of the Jersey City team, stated when here last that if they were to turn the Eastern League upside down they would never beat the Skeeters for the pennant. He was about right.

ORIOLES ARE CHAMPIONS.

Providence's inability to win at Jersey City yesterday gave the pennant to Baltimore, as the Orioles have only to win one of the remaining four games or Providence to lose one to land the bunting.

Pittsburg Could Not Do Without Hans

PITTSBURG, Sept. 16.—Hans Wagner's private chauffeur, Earl Kloman, spent all night in a cell at Central Police Station on a charge of violating the city speed ordinance. While driving Hans in his new automobile thru Pittsburg in an endeavor to catch the late train by which the team left for Philadelphia, Kloman struck a carriage and injured a woman.

Wagner had less than four minutes to get the train and five blocks to the depot from where his machine smashed the carriage. Hans never talked so fast—even to an umpire—as he did to the policeman who nailed him. Finally he was allowed to go on proving who he was, having given the promise that he would stand good for all damages that had been done. Kloman was locked up, however, and the machine sent to a garage.

Kloman was arraigned before the magistrate, to whom he said:

"Your honor, I simply had to get Mr. Wagner to that train."

"Couldn't the train go without him?" said the magistrate.

"No, sir. The Pittsburg train could not go without Wagner," replied the faithful chauffeur. He was then set free, the magistrate being informed that Wagner would settle all damages on presentation of a bill.

The Alexandria and Cameron athletic baseball teams played a ten-inning game at the amateur league grounds, Brockavenue, yesterday afternoon, resulting in a score of 6 to 4 in favor of the Cameron. It was a pitchers' battle with little to choose between Connor and Donahue. The batting honors were divided between Colby and Smith of the Cameron, and Mackrel of the Alexandrias. While the game was practically decided by the fast work of the Cameron on the bases, the base running of H. Smith of the Alexandrias deserves special mention. This was to be the deciding game of the season, but the Alexandrias are not altogether satisfied with the result of the game and there is likely to be a further argument on the diamond between these two teams before the snow flies. The Wellingtons of the Amateur League have a line out for First Baseman Sabine of Alexandrias.

INDIANS WILL AWAIT ACTION OF THE N.L.U.

On Cornwall Protest Before Challenging for the Minto Cup—Lacrosse Gossip.

At a meeting of the Tecumsehs last night in the Royal Alexandra reception room, it was decided not to challenge for the Minto Cup till after the N.L.U. meeting in Montreal Saturday, and then if Cornwalls' protest is ruled out to challenge for the mug.

As Rennie and Turnbull of the Westminster team are going to England with the Olympic team, the Tecumsehs, in the event of their challenging, will leave it to the cup trustees as to their time of playing, which means that their will be no Minto cup games this fall.

The games in the Olympic tournament at England between South Africa, England and Canada will be played between Tuesday, Oct. 20, and Saturday, Oct. 24. The Canadian team will reach Liverpool about Ocvt. 10, and go direct to London. The team will stay at the Ivanhoe Hotel, where the Caps stayed, and daily practices will be held at the stadium.

Even if the Canadian team wins the Olympic championship, they will tour Canada next year. The winners in England will be presented with gold medals.

The intermediate C.L.A. final game at the island Saturday between Bradford and Galt will start at 3 o'clock.

There have only beentwo C.L.A. protests this season, and Galt has won both of them.

Saturday's C.L.A. final at the island will see such old stagers as Sox Clark, Bob McKinistry and Lew Campbell in harness. Galt had better bring along Tar Seip.

The N.L.U. League season closes Saturday with Nationals at Montreal.

A prominent Cornwall official has stated that Cornwall will win their protest by a vote of 4 to 3.

It is interesting to compare the record of the leading teams in the National Lacrosse Union this season with that of 1907:

1908.	Won.	Lost.	—Goals— For.	Agt.
Tecumsehs	8	4	75	54
Cornwall	7	5	56	56
1907.
Shamrocks	10	2	86	50
Tecumsehs	9	3	101	57

Thus, tho the Indians last year won nine games and only lost three, Shamrocks winning ten and losing two, this year they were enabled to win out comfortably on eight wins and four losses. Last year, too, they scored 101 goals to this year's 75. Such are the vicissitudes of lacrosse.

HEAVYWEIGHTS IN BOSTON.

Joe Jeanette Defeats Sandy Ferguson in Twelve Rounds.

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—Joe Jeanette beat Sandy Ferguson of Boston all the way in their 12-round bout at the Armory A.A. There was no doubt over the decision, which Jeanette won easily. In the last few rounds Jeanette tried his best to put Ferguson away, but could not quite connect with the vital punch.

It was a waltz to Jeanette in front in every round, and he worked like a Trojan to wear Ferguson out and be in a position to hand over his right, but Ferguson was fortunate in just being able to pull back when Jeanette flashed over his dream wallop.

There was a flash in Ferguson's favor in the sixth round, when he put over a hard right on the jaw and Jeanette appeared groggy. The punch landed with great effect, as it opened a gash on Jeanette's face, but before the round was over he was rushing in, and in the third round put Ferguson flat on his back with a right-hander; but he did not stay down. Before the bell rang he went to his knees from exhaustion and took the full count.

Grand Circuit at Syracuse
The Eel Wins in Fast Time

Major Delmar Beats Sweet Marie in Free-for-all Trot—Margaret O. and Dr. Bonney Also Win.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 16.—With ideal weather conditions and a perfect track, a big crowd saw some spectacular and thrilling racing at the state fair grounds today.

There were eight starters in the first event, the Chamber of Commerce Stakes of $2000, for 2.09 trotters, the first heat of which proved a most sensational one. At the half all the contenders moved closely together, and as they swept around the lower turn it was any one's race. In one of those "eyelash" finishes, abounding in desperate driving, Locust Jack nipped the heat by a nose from Daniel, Octoo being third, just a fraction back. The second heat was as sensational as the first, the race home between the three leaders being of the nerve-racking sort, with Margaret O. getting a shade the best of it. Margaret O. took the next two heats without much difficulty.

In the Syracuse Stake of $5000 for 2.11 pacers, the Eel took the race in straight heats.

There were three starters in the heralded feature, the free-for-all trot, for a purse of $1500. In the first heat Major Delmar negotiated the mile in 2.07¾ with Oro a strongly challenging second. Major Delmar's early break in the second heat put him out of it and Sweet Marie won. Major Delmar kept the lead thruout the third heat.

The 2.17 was won by Dr. Bonney in straight heats. Summary:
