On Tuesday evening of this week, the members of the Methodist sewing society met at "The Inn" and were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Allerton, who, after the time for sewing had expired, gave a nice dainty supper which was appreciated. The Rev. W. Wilson Lodge, pastor of the Methodist church, then gave a pleasing address and presented Mr. Herbert Bunting with a handsome dress suit case from the admiring friends of the congregation, who so much enjoyed Mr. Bunting's musical selections during the past summer. Mr. Bunting was so astonished, pleased and gratified that a reply was an effort, however he made a few happy and suitable remarks.
