UNITED STATES SUES BRANTFORD FIRM FOR LAND AND BUILDINGS

Trial of Action Arising Out of Shell Order Begins At Toronto.

TORONTO, June 28.—Before Justice Kelly this morning at Osgoode Hall, was commenced the trial of the action brought by the United States of America against Motor Trucks, Limited, of Brantford, Ont. Motor Trucks, Limited, entered into a contract with the United States on May 18, 1918, for the delivery of 125,000 howitzer H. E. shells.

Before any had been delivered, peace came and the contract was terminated. In the meantime, the Brantford firm had received $937,000 from the war credits board, and had made large expenditures for buildings, lands and plant. A claim of over $1,500,000 was made by the company against the United States. The claim was investigated by the Imperial Munitions Board, and was allowed at $637,812. The company was to turn over all tools, plant, etc.

It is alleged that by a clerical error it was omitted from the award that lands valued at $34,062, and buildings valued at $342,434 were also to be turned over. It is to recover possession of these that the present action is launched. The United States asks, not only the return of the lands and buildings, or their equivalent in cash, but also for $100,000 damages for having to show that the United States are entitled to the lands or buildings, and deny the right of the States to acquire lands.

HELENE'S MARRIED LIFE

BY MAY CHRISTIE

Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

CX.—Changeable Alice.

Alice never once mentioned the subject of a previous marriage, concerning myself. Often I wished that she might bring the question up, so that I might confess the whole truth to her.

At last I took the bull by the horns, I told her about my previous marriage—with Jim. I told her of his lapse of memory. I told her some of my foolish fears as to reviving that memory in him. And then I spoke about Jim's second wooing, and our second wedding.

"Do you think it very silly, Alice" I inquired quite humbly.

She gave an envious laugh.

"No, not silly. Only romantic. You're so lucky, Helene. Of course he'd naturally fall in love with you a second time. You're so attractive. But of course I don't entirely believe in this loss-of-memory business. I'm sure your Jim was only playing a wily game to win you back!"

Well, I knew better. But I wasn't going to argue out the point with Alice.

"Do his people know?" she languidly inquired. "Do they know of your previous 'romance' with him?"

I shook my head.

"Well, don't tell them. Just let well enough alone." An air of profound wisdom settled on her pretty little face. "I wouldn't give them any information. It'll only let them have the upper hand. And that's fatal."

I had my own ideas on this point. But I said nothing.

The telephone bell rang. I answered it. I heard the voice of Tony on the wire.

He had written Alice twice, he said. And had she got his flowers? And would I please tell her that he was coming round immediately to see her?

I was flabbergasted at his impudence. Coming round to my apartment—quite uninvited, too! Did the man not remember his last visit to the place when Travis Lloyd had had to kick him down the stairs?

I found my voice. I told him pretty sharply that it would be impossible to receive him at the apartment—now—or at any other time.

Mrs. Anstruther, I added, was not yet seeing visitors.

Tony answered me most impertinently. He more than hinted that it would be to my interest to keep friendly with him, and to let bygones be bygones. It seemed to me there was a hint of blackmail in his tone.

That made me furious. Tony—of all people—to dare to assume that attitude towards me.

Why, I know enough about the fellow to have him put in jail!

"You can't come here. I won't admit you." I said sharply, injudiciously raising my tones a little. Then I rang off.

I returned to the sitting-room, to find Alice in tears.

"I—I heard—the cruel things you said——" She was sobbing quite dramatically. "Oh, Helene, you want to cut me off from all my friends——"

"Alice, I'm astonished at you," I stared at her, amazed.

"I—I'm so lonely——"

I sat down beside her, and deliberately recounted to her the tale of Tony's last visit to the apartment. I spared no details, emphasizing Tony's wish to compromise me, his plot to lure me into marriage, and the timely arrival of Mr. Travis Lloyd, who kicked the intruder down the stairs.

"So there's the sort of man Tony is," I concluded, "a perfect rotter. Don't imagine that I think he cares for me! It was money he was after! He's mad on money. He'd marry any woman, if he thought she could support him comfortably——"

The phone bell rang again. I made a move to answer it.

But Alice was too quick for me. With crimson cheeks she dashed out to the little hall, jerked the receiver off its hook, and in a trembly voice I heard her say:

"Yes, Tony. This is I, Alice. Why, of course. I'd love to see you, Tony——"

Tomorrow—Confidences.

FARMERS WILL GET 50 PER CENT OF EXCESS DUE

Payment On Wheat Board Certificates About July 15 Next.

FOSTER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Minister Says It Will Be Not Less Than 20 Cents a Bushel.

OTTAWA, June 28.—(By Canadian Press.)—Farmers will receive fifty per cent of the excess due them on Canada Wheat Board participation certificates about July 15 next. Definite announcement has been made that this excess on the original wheat price will be at least forty cents per bushel.

Just before the bill to empower the Government to extend the jurisdiction of the Canada Wheat Board, if necessary, until August 15, 1921, was passed by the Houe of Commons tonight, Sir George Foster stated that the wheat board would pay fifty per cent of the amount due farmers out of the profit made by the wheat board on or after July 15.

Effect of Announcement.

Interviewed by the Canadian Press regarding the exact effect of the announcement, Sir George stated that the exact price of last season's wheat crop could not be decided yet. Several million bushels remained to be disposed of by the board, but meantime the board would be able to make a fifty per cent payment to wheat growers, and this would be not less than twenty cents per bushel. The balance would be payable when the marketing of last season's crop was completed, and not later than the end of the present year.

Ruin Dealers in Oats.

J. A. Robb protested that control of shipments by the Wheat Board would ruin dealers in oats. Sir George Foster said that the board did not control shipments. They would only appeal to the railway commission for preference for wheat. The final decision rested with the railway commission.

After Sir George had announced that fifty per cent will be paid to farmers on wheat board participation certificates the bill was given the third reading and passed all stages of the House.

THIRTEEN MEMBERS OF TEDDY ROOSEVELT CREW WALK ASHORE

ST. THOMAS, June 28.—Thirteen members of the crew of the S. S. Teddy Roosevelt walked off the ship today just before the last warning by her departure siren was sounded, including the petty officers, wheelsman, lookout and watchman. But Captain Clark refused to delay the departure of the boat to negotiate with the disgruntled sailors.

The action of the men is alleged to be the outcome of an order issued forbidding any of the crew to mingle with the passengers, or to go on the dance floor. The order, it is stated, was issued following the seizure, 48 hours earlier, by the authorities at Port Stanley of five cases of liquor consigned to a member of the crew. The man to whom the liquor was shipped was not, it is claimed, among those who came ashore.

It is understood that Captain Clark will give the men an opportunity to return to their duties when the steamer returns to Port, but in the meantime, will secure temporary help in Cleveland.

HAMILTON CORONER, EVADING INCOME TAX, PAYS FINE OF $3,000

HAMILTON, June 28.—For attempting to evade the federal income tax Coroner W. B. Hopkins, well-known Hamilton physician, was heavily punished today. The department doubted the doctor's returns and put an inspector on the books. The evidence showed a return in 1917 of $1,500, while actual receipts were $8,905, $4,000 in 1918 with actual receipts of $13,600, and $3,000 in 1919 with receipts of $12,000. It was estimated that nearly $10,000 of last year's profits came from liquor scripts.

The magistrate debated for a time about sending the physician down for six months, but finally imposed a fine of $3,000.
