Colborne.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The midsummer examination of the pupils of S. S. No. 3, was held on Tuesday last, commencing at 10 o'clock. On entering the room the visitor was struck by the very attractive appearance of the school which was tastefully decorated with evergreens, flowers, mottoes and colored map drawing, the work of the pupils. The teachers were assisted during the day by Rev. Messrs. Pritchard and Smith, of Auburn, Miss Brown, of Oliver's school, and Messrs. Strang, Miller, Elliott, of Colborne, and Miller, of Goderich tp. The manner in which the several classes acquitted themselves was alike creditable to themselves and to their teachers. At noon, children and visitors there were about 60 of the latter present, were treated to a sumptuous repast, provided by the ladies of the section. After the various classes had been thoroughly examined, W. Young, Esq., the popular Reeve of Colborne, was voted to the chair, and filled the position of chairman in his customary able manner. After the distribution of prizes, short addresses were delivered by the trustees, clergymen and teachers present, all of whom paid high tribute to the success attending the labors of Mr. McLean and Miss Traquair in S. S. No. 3, Colborne.

Bayfield.

The Bayfield correspondent of the Goderich Star seems very much elated over the Tory majority in this place on the 20th. So he may be, when we consider the fact that Bayfield always was a Tory stronghold, and he can congratulate himself on the likelihood of its always remaining so, so long as he is able to use such influences as he does in the municipality. He can also take comfort from the fact that South Huron is Reform and will continue to be so during the period of his natural life. The majority for Shannon was 13 less than for Jackson at last election for the Local, showing plainly that the Conservative ranks in Bayfield are not on the increase. Owing to the honorable conduct of the Liberal leaders in this municipality, in consequence of the absurd cry of "infidel" raised against the Refosm candidate for South Huron, the voters on that side were left entirely to their own free will, to vote or not vote as they thought proper. This combined with the influence of the interfering clergy, placed the matter where it is. It is true, Cameron, "the hero of West Huron," had a majority of 2 in 1878, but several of the Conservative party voted for that gentleman. But what has this pompous Dublin orator gained, or is likely to gain, by his boasted majority in Bayfield? What has the great heaven-born statesman done for him, his party here, or the place he is permitted to live in? Where is the grant for our harbor, so much needed, when last session all ports on Lake Huron got money but us? Where are all the tall chimneys, the despised of Perth told us in 1878 would be placed on our beautiful river extending far inland, if the prince of jugglers got into power? Where are all the laborers, machanics and others who would be happy under the blessed N.P? Echo answers, where? Yes, sir, the Bayfield Tory scribblers may be jubilant, when they think of the exertion they made; when they think of the unwholesome literature issued from their tract depository; when they think of their deputation to Varna to annoy McMillan's meeting during the campaign; when they think of their visit to the Presbyterian church on Sunday to deter Reform voters by the cry of infidel; when they think of the discord they have sown amongst brethren that it may take years to heal, they may well feel proud. A tree is known by its fruits, and the scribbling Tories of Bayfield by their actions (see the Seaforth Sun and Goderich Star). The electors of South Huron, have shown the Bayfield Tories and other men that they do not despise a good man on account of his alleged religious doubts; and if even an infidel, we are told in that good old Book, that there are worse men, and it seems to me that some of them have been elected for the House of Commons at Ottawa, in this year of grace A. D. 1882. AN ELECTOR.

Goderich Township.

Mrs. McCurdy, of the 16th con. had the misfortune to break the thigh bone of the right leg last Sunday. Being a woman well advanced in years the accident is considered quite serious.

Rev. Mr. Baugh, (successor to Mr. Livingstone) preached his first sermon at Cole's church, on Sunday last. Though a stranger to all in this neighborhood he left a very favorable impression on his hearers.

A social was held at the residence of Mr. John Rudd, Maitland con., on Friday evening last, in aid of the parsonage fund of the Methodist church. It goes without saying that the affair was a great success, and all enjoyed themselves well. About $9 was realized.

Mr. Thos. Dyke, of the 16th con., who is bordering on his 68th year, expresses his ability to walk five miles and cradle an acre of wheat before 8 a. m. any day this harvest, and if his ability to do this is doubted, he is prepared to back up his assertion by money.

Mr. J. H. Lindsay, of the 16th con., raised the frame of his barn this week. The building which is quite large is built on a foundation of stonework. When finished it will make one of the number of fine farm buildings, for which this part of the county is justly noted.

Last week Messrs J. Wigginton and J. McIsaac, of the Bayfield road, travelled as far north as Lucknow, on a hunt for two yoke of oxen. They managed to secure them, at a cost of $150 a yoke, but state that it was hard work, as such cattle are getting very scarce.

On Thursday evening last several of the members of Cole's church drove over to Bayfield to extend a welcome to their new pastor, Rev. Mr. Baugh, who just arrived on his circuit. They took possession of the parsonage, and having provided abundantly of the good things of life, spent a very pleasant evening.

A boy a few days since while walking on the beach at the end of the Cut Line, Goderich township, got caught in a bed of quicksand, in which he sank so rapidly that he needed good help to extricate himself. After he was got out a pole was thrust down for about six feet without finding bottom.

S. S. No. 11.—The following is a list of the names of the pupils who took first and second places in their respective classes for the month of June. First class:—1st A. E. Disney, 2nd W Jenkins. Junior second 1 R. Coats, 2nd R. Smith. Senior second, 1st G. W. Churchill, 2nd Ada Woon. Junior third, 1st Eva Jenkins, 2nd D. Churchill. Senior third, 1st S. Izzard, 2nd C. Jenkins.

On Saturday last one of the very early settlers of Goderich township died in Goderich, in the person of Mr. Simons, formerly of the Bayfield con. Deceased settled on the farm now occupied by his son, about 40 years ago, and only left it a few years since. He was born in Scotland but emigrated here from the neighborhood of Dundas. Of a quiet yet genial disposition, he enjoyed a large circle of acquaintances.—[New Era.

Auburn.

The new inmate of the C. M. parsonage is a girl.

Robt. Mcgee, George Sturdy and John Stalker have returned from Manitoba. They have no intention of going back.

The annual pic-nic of the C. M. Sabbath School of this place was held on Lawson's Island. A pleasent time was spent. Blyth concert band was in attendance.

As Mr. A. Clark of West Wawanosh was bringing a steer to Auburn to deliver to a buyer on Tuesday last the animal got unruly and backed over the abutment at the west end of the bridge and was seriously injured

Dunlop.

Our townsman Mr. D. Cummings was one of the 1st prize winner at the quoit-in tourney in Goderich on Dominion Day.

BASE BALL.—The rain on Friday last prevented the Black Sheep from regaining their lost fleeces from the I. O. G. T. of Leeburn, no match being played between these celebrated nines. A match was played between mixed sides captained by G. F. Hall and J. M. Williams respectively. Mr. Hall's side won in five innings by a score of 15 to 13. The grass was very wet, and the ball heavy and slippery.

THE CROPS.—Our Leeburn neighbors were startled on Tuesday to see Mr. J. Tobin cutting his hay. We have the start of Leeburn in the mowing line this year.

Mr. Tobin is not one whit taken aback by the offer of Mr. Hugh Chisholm. He is not only confident of holding his own in fall wheat, but will give Mr. Chisholm a brace of fowl if he can show as large a yield to the acre of spring wheat this season. Dunlop will not be sat upon in the matter of big crops.

Mr. Bean has a field of very promising spring wheat, and will be willing to compete with his old friend J. O. Stewart for a pair of ducks.

Mr. H. Hazlewood, a leading farmer of Hullett, is the guest of Mr. R. Bean.

There is a rush for THE SIGNAL here every Friday, and each paper circulates widely among the neighbors. You will get many new subscribers here before New Year's.

To the Night Blooming Cereus

(Floraldi McDonaldi)

BY ELOISE A SKIMMINGS

Written for the "Signal"

So grandly beatiful art thou,
Flower so rare;
Born in beauty like the sun,
So wondrous fair.

And thy short life in beauty dies
Without a stain;
Strong in unsullied purity
Closes again.

Knowing that Time all beauty mars,
Even the soul;
Yet thy short life a sermon gives
To reach the goal.

For which we brave temptation wiles
With hearts sincere,
And strive like thee, while life shall last,
Pure to appear.

Goderich, Ont., Dominion Day, 1882.

The old friends and acquaintances of D. McGilivray, who was born and spent his boyhood in Bruce township, and who afterwards removed to Goderich, where his father Rev. A. McGilivery, is now officiating, will be pleased to learn that he recently closed a brilliant course at the Toronto University, taking the degree of B. A., and the gold medal in classics. His scholastic career throughout was one laden with brilliant successes having taken in his four years's course, in scholarships, eight prizes, $480, besides the gold medal in his graduation year.—[Bruce Co. Obituary Poetry.

FLORA MURRAY, WEST WAWANOSH, AGED 15 YEARS 2 MONTHS 10 DAYS.

And art thou gone, Oh Flora, dear,
Art thou gone and left us here;
Shall we look for thee no more
Where thou wast wont to be before.

Thou wast young and thou wast fair,
Young to leave this world of care;
But too fair to linger here
In this world of grief and fear.

Thou only came awhile to cheer
Thy friends within this vale of tears,
Oh may we meet with thee on high,
When we are called upon to die.

For we all shall follow soon,
To that lonely narrow home;
And thou art only gone to show
That our time is short below.

As in the past we often played
Together 'neath the schoolhouse shade,
I little dreamt so soon to see
Thee laid beneath the graveyard tree.

Yes thou art gone—thy days are past,
With all their cares and trials at last,
Thou art consigned unto the clay,
There to await the judgment day.
