Interesting Address by the New Canadian Solicitor-General.

A Firm Believer in a Great Future for the Dominion.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—The picnic in aid of St. Paul's Church, held on the grounds of the House of Providence, n Saturday, had as one of its chief attractions a visit and an address from Mr. Charles Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General in the Laurier Administration, who had kindly accepted Rev. Father Hand's invitation to be present and address a few words to the gathering. As political leaders go, Mr. Fitzpatrick is a comparatively young man, and carries his 42 years lightly. He is tall and of a decidedly athletic build. He has among his brethren of the law a splendid reputation and has been engaged in several very well known cases, the most notable being the trial of Louis Riel and of McGreevy and Connolly, in both instances acting for the defense. Mr. Fitzpatrick spoke briefly, shortly before leaving the city for the east. He returned thanks in a few graceful words to Mr. Peter Ryan, his host uring the visit, for the opportunity of meeting so many of his fellowcountrymen and women. broud, he said, to proclaim himself an Irishman and an Irish Roman Catholic, believing as he did in the words of a famous Irishman, that no one, a prouder boast than the man who boasts of the bravery of his Irish forefathers and the immaculate purity of his Irish maternity. (Applause.) He was proud also of his faith, which, coming down through many generations, burns as brightly today on Vatican Hill as it did 2,000 years ago on Golgotha. Irishmen in Canada should ever cherish the old land, but they should allow the love of the land of their birth or adoption to shine even more brightly. In conclusion he said: "This is a glorious land, stretching as it does from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and facing on the two greatest oceans of the universe. Not only is it great in its magnificent resources, but it is also great in the magnificent constitution under which we live, and which constitution guarantees to every citizen of this country that full measure of liberty to which every man is entitled. The country is prosperous to a certain extent at the present time, but its possibilities are such that we can scarcely grasp the magnitude of them. Let me, then, desire for my fellow-countrymen, not that we should be isolated, not that we should be a band apart in this country, but that we should, hand in hand, endeavor to act with other peoples, with other nationalities, for the purpose of accomplishing to their full extent the possibili-

they can in building up Canada, our fabric I want to feel, if I can, that the corr. . stone has been laid by the Rev. Father Hand extended a cordial welcome to the Solicitor-General, and said Mr. Fitzpatrick was one of those Trishmen in this country who had done credit to the race from which they had sprung. They wished him God-speed, and hoped he would fulfil the bright hopes they all entertained in regard to him.

London, Aug. 10.-The Duke of Abercorn, the Marquis of Londonderry, and others of the landlord party in the House of Lords, who pushed amendments to the Irish Land Bill, opposed by the Government, have issued a manifesto to the effect that the public has attached undue importance to these amendments to the land bill. Editorials in the morning papers very generally agree that this means that of Commons and agree to give up their amendments to the bill.

The agency adds that the Prince of Wales, on the occasion of his last visit to Paris, presented the invitation to President Faure. An-

London, Aug. 10.-Cables from Rhodesia convey little, almost nothing, of the truth as to the destruction that thas fallen upon the colony. Private letters received by business firms in London having relations with companies at Johannesburg and Buluwayo disclose facts which the Chartered Company officials will soon be unable to conceal. Though the Matabeles have been driven into the forest and hill fastnesses, it will take months to ties of the Dominion. (Cheers.) The colonists are streaming out of Rhodesia towards the Transvaal-anywhere southwards, where they hope to live in peace. The only traffic into the colony includes ammunition and provisions for thie troops. Men who are not enrolled in the fighting forces and all women emigrate as a necessity from a country where milk costs 12 shillings per bottle, and a tin of meat about 5 shillings. All necessaries that can be brought by transport are required by the fighting men. As regards the military operations it is expected that they will be suspended when the rainy season commences. The stand the Matabeles have made is giving them something like the prestige of victory among the native races, and widespread risings are feared in the north of the Cape Colony and in Na-

THE THREATENED STRIKE.

London, Aug. 10.-The threatened strike of dock laborers has been fixed by J. Havelock Wilson and Tom Mann to begin on Aug. 16. If Wilson's plans are carried out, it will be a worldwide strike, no mere Thames struggle. Sailors, firemen, dock laborers and all allied workers are summoned out until another shilling or two per cent and lessened hours are accorded them by the employes. Wilson declares that delegates at the American ports are getting the men there to organize on behalf of a universal strike and against non-unionists. The Thames, Liverpool and Glasgow companies, business would be paralyzed by a strike which is to call out a million men, according to agitators, do not seem to be scared. The chairman of the East and West India Dock Company has just told the shareholders that there is no discontent on the part of the laborers, and since 1889 the system then fixed for a strike is
