Drummond & Brown received the following to day over their private wire from W. G. McCormick & Co., Chicago: The morning cables quoted the tone of English wheat markets quiet and barely steady, but gave quotations which indicated halfpenny advance since yesterday morning. The temper of our trading crowd was as usual bearish, and in the absence of a large trade at the opening they found no difficulty in depressing prices. Later in the day Berlin cables quoted an advance of 3 marks, which started the shorts to buying and caused a recovery of the early decline. The market of to-day has shown but few interesting features, but on the whole we consider that it has been a strong one. The great trouble seems to be the smallness of outside trade, but we believe that this will increase if foreign markets continue firm. Receipts at primary points were not so large as the average of last week. Corn has exhibited great strength, although the trading has not been large. The greatest bull factor in this deal is the unusual demand for all grades of cash stuff, both here and throughout the west, which renders an accumulation of stock impossible. The close of the market is firm, but not active. Provisions opened weak, and although no great decline has taken place we consider the market very heavy and expect to see lower prices before much further advance. We notice heavy realizing among those longs who have good profits, and that several packers who during last week were free buyers have to-day entered the market as sellers. The size of the stocks which last week did not seem to deter operators from buying beginning to loom up again and to be quoted by those same operators as cause for a break. We believe that long stuff sold to-day will be bought back at a fair profit within the next few days.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

Drummond & Brown received the following to day over their private wire from W. S. Lawson & Co. of New York: Late yesterday afternoon when it became known that the Treasury Department had refused to allow the gold shippers to take gold bars there was a sudden rush to cover shorts, so that the market had a strong close. The idea was that no gold would go out. This morning, however, exchange rates advanced to meet the increased cost of shipping coin. The one million of gold ordered was taken in eagles, and it is believed that more gold will go Saturday, which shows that the laws of trade are not set aside by statutes. The market seemed to be paralyzed by this development and the traders were indisposed to do anything but sell; hence there was little done and that much at generally lower prices. Northwest stock developed weakness to-day, probably on inside knowledge of a poor showing in earnings about to come out. The short in the market is pretty large, but for all that it acts weak.

Business Embarrassments.

A. L. Dent, groceries and liquors, Woodstock, is financially embarrassed.

J. & B. Allen, hardware merchants, 156 King-street east, have secured a settlement with their creditors at 75c on the dollar. Liabilities were not large. The firm has to vacate its present premises July 1, and the compromise was acceded to in order to facilitate this.

These assignments are reported: Thomas Cox, grocer, Brantford; Joseph James, manufacturer, Bridgewater; John Ross, general store, Freelton; M. Tierney, tinsmith, Hastings; W. Deco, furniture, Marmora; W. Thompson, general store, Millbank; James McKae, merchant, Paris; J. J. Marsh, furniture, Spencerville; W. E. West, tobacconist, Windsor.

At an informal meeting this afternoon of the creditors of James Park & Son, the Front-street commission merchants and packers, whose financial troubles were announced yesterday, the firm's assets were found to be more satisfactory than anticipated. The Traders' Bank is secured in full, and for the ordinary creditors there is a surplus over liabilities. The cause of the failure was dulness in trade and losses from bad debts. Business is being carried on under a trustee. Mr. Park has been in business about 40 years. The firm to-day assigned to John Taylor of the Morse Soap Works, who is the largest creditor.
