Things Well Said and Worth Repeating

"Never fix the price of anything so low that you can't afford to advertise it."

"Circulars hit only once, and are then consigned to the waste-basket."

"Don't advertise spasmodically—keep at it. Your particular line of goods may not be wanted to-day; they will be sought to-morrow, or the day after."

"Don't run the same card from January to December. Change occasionally. Don't get into a rut. Have some vim."

"People won't and can't guess that you have a good thing."

"Success means thought. It costs no more to publish good matter than poor. Prepare your matter carefully; make it attractive; don't crowd; let your catch lines be bold."

"There should be a point to every advertisement. State your point and stop right there. Don't keep on just to fill space."

"Judicious advertising
Creates many a new business.
Enlarges many an old business.
Revives many a dull business.
Rescues many a failing business.
Preserves many a large business."

"He who in the world would rise, must either fail or advertise."

"Your advertisement is your representative. It need not be large or imposing, but should be honest and respectful."

"Advertising is to business as a man well shod; without advertising, man will always plod."

"Advertising is an eloquent and effective 'salesman'—distinguished from the verbal salesman in this, that while the latter talks to one customer the advertising salesman is talking to tens, possibly hundreds, of thousands.

"Courageous, intelligent, persistent advertising means the largest possible success in any particular line.

"Non-advertising means the limitation of business to personal influence." 99-o-zxv
